Dear Mr. Dawson:

I have just returned from a hurried trip to Winnipeg and find your letter awaiting me. You did not need to tell me who you were, because as soon as I saw your age I knew at once. In fact, whenever an opportunity arose to make enquiry of Mr. Dingman, formerly of Stratford, I have always done so and learned about you in that way.

However, I did not know that you were living in Brantford. It is a City I visit once in a while and I want to assure you that the next time I am up I will call and see you. I certainly remember you well, also Mrs. Dawson and your son, but I remember you best of all.

May you have many more years to enjoy life.

Very sincerely yours,

George W. Dawson, Esq.,
Brantford, Ont.
