

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE RE CHARGES UNDER SECTION 18 (4) and 40 A.A.
IN THE CASE OF K-99014 SERGEANT GREENWOOD, John Gladwell, Reinforcement Section, C.F.C., Canadian Army (Overseas) (A.F.)

By direction of the Officer Commanding No. 3 District, C.F.C., the summary of evidence is to be taken on oath - R.F. 4(f).

1st Witness for Prosecution.

A-32003 Cpl. Saunders, J.R., No. 5 Detachment, Canadian Provost Corps, being duly sworn states:-

On the 8th Oct 43, I accompanied Lieut. Luker to the County Police Sta., Inverness, where we were introduced to Det/Sgt. Urquhart. We were shown some foodstuffs and we were informed that these foodstuffs had been found at the home of a Sergeant belonging to No. 7 Coy. C.F.C. by the name of Greenwood, J.G. I was then detailed to carry out an investigation into this matter in co-operation with Det/Sgt. Urquhart and Constable E.
MacDonald. We proceeded to Highwood Camp where we questioned Sgt.
Greenwood and, after duly cautioning him that any statement he made might be used as evidence, obtained the following statement:-

"I was in the Canteen on Sunday, 3 Oct 43 when I was approached by K-99121 Pte. Stephenson and he asked me if I wanted a few tins of jam and some tea and sugar. I asked him what he wanted for it and I put my hand in my pocket and gave him all the change I had in my pocket. It would be about 12 or 15 shillings; there was a ten shilling note. As I left the canteen I was handed a gunny sack.
I opened the sack when I got home and found it to contain tins of jam, tin with some tea in it and also a tin with sugar in it. Previously to making the above deal with Pte. Stephenson, I met Mr. A. MacDonald, a farmer with whom my wife and I resided, and he asked me if Pte.
Stephenson was in the canteen and I said yes. He then asked me to inform Stephenson that he, MacDonald, was there. I did so and Stephenson came outside and spoke to him. Stephenson was outside for about half an hour. He then came back into the Canteen. When I moved to Inverness on Monday, 4 Oct 43, I brought the goods I had purchased from Pte. Stephenson with me and when my residence was searched the goods were found by the Civil Police and were taken to Police Headquarters. I did not take any other goods to my home at any time nor did I ever give him any goods or food at any time. I did not ask Stephenson where he got the rations. He said to me this is none of my business. When I returned to Camp on Monday night after returning from Inverness, I went into the Canteen to get some change and I noticed MacDonald's car parked along beside the Canteen heading towards Inverness Lake when I overheard some men talking. I recognized MacDonald's voice and MacDonald was saying, is it alright and a person I do not know said in reply - Oh Yes, it is O.K., it is cashed over beside Royal Place. This is all I know about the affair."

(Signed by J.G. Greenwood)

On further investigating the matter, I visited a house and interviewed the occupant, a Mr. A. MacDonald, and during the course of this visit I was informed by Mr. MacDonald that - "I gave to Sgt. Greenwood a £1 note as he had hinted to me he was broke. It was a £1 note. Then on Sunday night he sent Pte. G. MacRae about 9 o'clock to my house to say Sgt. Greenwood wanted to see me at the camp. I went to the Camp and met Sgt. Greenwood who took me to another soldier who was the carpenter and he asked me to take this sugar if it was any good to me, or bully beef or anything like that, and I said I don't want any of it and he asked me to take this sugar which he had in three large tins at the side of the road. I took it in my car and Sgt. Greenwood told me to put it well out of sight."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.
