

2233

Why Should I be an Auxiliary ?

I.—The Need.

“Of all the things which God has made, the human heart is that which sheds most light, and, alas, most night.”

Nobody can deny the fact of the sin-disease in this world of ours. It is a stern reality confronting us at every step in an almost infinite variety of form and phase. Every thinking mind recoils with horror, every feeling heart