Wyd, Atherton. My Chief and I; or, Six Months in Natal after the Langalibalea Outbreak. Illust. Lon., 1879, 8vo.

"The book is the history of a short episode in the life of a good man and brave soldier—Colonel Durnford—between the sad affair of the Bushman's River Pass and the fatal fate of Isandhwana, where . . . Colonel Durnford fell. The historian is an enthusiastic young friend, . . . whose simple, if sometimes too detailed, narrative leaves behind a very vivid picture of the object of his devotion."—Spectator, lili, 278.
