

They will consider also the extent and nature of the emoluments; the assistance necessary for the efficient performance of the duties of the Office; and the advisability of substituting fixed Salaries for Fees, as the mode of remuneration.

As the object of the appointment of the Commission, is to investigate generally all matters of public interest connected with the several Departments, this Committee will understand, that they are not restricted to limit their inquiries by the strict letter of the foregoing queries; but that, in the spirit of the same, they are to pursue any course of investigation, which may appear to them expedient.

COURTS OF REQUEST, AND COMMISSIONERS OF THOSE COURTS.

Committee No. 7.

MEMBERS:

THE LAW OFFICERS.

This Committee will examine the constitution of these Courts, in their present state, and consider their efficiency as at present constituted; and whether some alteration in the law might not be made, by which they would be rendered more useful to the community.
