addressed by Mr. Gunn and Rev. W. T. Currie, of West Central Africa. Misses Macallum, of Smyrna, and Lyman, of Bombay, had expected to be present, but were unavoidably detained. The latter sent some Hindu curiosities which were exhibited, and attracted considerable attention. Mr. Currie also spoke at the "Children's Home," Wednesday afternoon.

The gentlemen of the church kindly gave the delegates and their hostesses a delightful drive after the final adjournment.
