

Our Children's Department is sustained by such writers as Mr. C. C. COFFIN, ERNEST INGERSOLL (on Natural History), W. J. ROLFE, CLARA ERSKINE CLEMENT, and others equally eminent, and it will be found entertaining and instructive to all, both to young and old.

A series of twelve articles or more, running through our columns this year, entitled,

GREAT SUBJECTS,

And from the pens of some of the most eminent thinkers in the land, is destined to attract wide attention. Among the writers are Ex-President WOOLSEY, Gen. J. R. HAWLEY, Hon. DORMAN B. EATON, BENJAMIN VAUGHAN ABBOTT, Dr. GEO. M. BEARD and Rev. NOAH PORTER, D.D. The large space of four columns a week, on an average, is devoted to our "Literary Department." It is gotten up wholly in the interest of our readers, and we receive frequent testimonies to its value.

With seven persons on our regular editorial staff, including Rev. A. H. Clapp, D.D., in New York, who, besides other matter, furnishes a letter every week, the reader will find THE CONGREGATIONALIST in all its departments fully abreast of the times. It touches subjects of current interest to the religious public every week, not only by its editorial articles, but by a great amount of paragraphs and short matter such as all are glad to read. We offer no premiums, but are now expending upon the columns of the paper itself what otherwise might be required for that purpose. The amount of money paid out sometimes in a single week to writers for THE CONGREGATIONALIST now exceeds the sum expended in this way for six months or a year a quarter of a century ago.

Specimen numbers sent free. Price, $3.00 a year.
