

In which myself I view :
 It shows me all my weakness,
 My folly and my shame ;
 But makes thereby more precious
 My Saviour's grace and name.

Oh what a light in darkness !
 Oh what a balm in woe !
 What streams of consolation
 Through all its pages flow !
 What mines of richest treasure,
 What glories fresh I meet,
 While, pondering the Scriptures,
 I sit at Jesu's feet !

His name, like sweetest music,
 Falls ever on mine ear ;
 I go to it, expecting
 My Saviour's voice to hear :
 A monument of mercy !
 Oh, may my life proclaim
 The truth of God's salvatiou,
 The glory of His name !

REMARKS ON MODERN RATIONALIST VIEWS.*

“ Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father : there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me ; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words ? ” (John v. 45-47).

Here we have more than one point. First,

* These remarks were originally penned by the writer for himself, but were subsequently sent to a religious magazine to shew Christians the bearing that modern rationalist views have on Christianity, so that they might not lightly suffer the taint of such views to approach them ; whatever might be their patience with those who may be deceived.
