THIS WASHER MUST PAY FOR ITSELF.

AMAN tried to sell me a horse once. He said it was a fine horse and had nothing the matter with it. I wanted a fine horse, but I didn't know anything about horses much. And I didn't know the man very well either.

So I told him I wanted to try the horse for a month.
He said "All right," but he said I'd have to pay him first, and I'd give you back your money if the horse isn't all right."

Well, I didn't like that. I was afraid the horse wasn't all right and I'd lose my money. So I didn't buy the horse, although I wanted it very much. Now, this is the thinking.

Let me see I make Washing Machines—the "1900 Gravity" Washer.

And I said to myself, lots of people may think about my Washing Machine as I thought about the horse, and about the man who owned it.
But I'd never known, because they wouldn't write and tell me. You see I sell my Washing Machines by mail. I have sold over half a million that way. So, though I'd, it is only fair to let people try my Washing Machines for a month, before they pay for them, just as I would to try the horse.

Now, I know what my "1900 Gravity" Washer will do for you. It will wash your clothes, without wearing or tearing them, in less than half the time they can be washed by hand or by any other machine.

I know it will wash a tub full of very dirty clothes in six minutes. I know no other machine ever invented can do that, without wearing the clothes. Or, so easy that a child can run it almost as well as a strong woman, and it doesn't wear clothes. I fry the clothes, nor break buttons, the way all other machines do.

It just drives away water clear through the fibres of the clothes like a force pump might.
So, safe, to myself, I will do with my "1900 Gravity" Washer what I wanted the man to do with the horse. Only I won't wait for people to try it. I'll offer it, and I'll make good the offer every time.

Let me send you a "1900 Gravity" Washer on a month's free trial. I'll pay the freight out of my own pocket, and if you don't want the machine after you've used it a month, I'll take it back and pay the freight too. Surely that is fair to you, isn't it?

Doesn't it prove that the "1900 Gravity" Washer must be the best that is made?

And you can pay me out of what it saves for you. It will save its whole cost in a few months.
I'll wear and tear on the clothes alone. And then it will save 50 to 75 cents a week over what in woman's wages it would cost to keep the machine after the month's trial, I'll let you pay for it out of what it saves you. You can pay me 50 cents a week that cheerfully, and I'll wait for my money until the machine has earned the balance.
Drop me a line to-day, and let me send you a book about the "1900 Gravity" Washer that washes clothes in six minutes.

The Laundry Shed

Miss J. L. Sheppard

In case a woodshed is available, with an old stove, that can be used there, these should be pressed into service for washing during the winter months. The woodshed as a washroom would necessitate a wash-day which is mild and sunny, but there is usually more than one such day in each week; and when the health of the family is at stake, the washing can well be done on some other day than Monday. At best, the woodshed would be cold, hence the worker need a piece of old carpet or linoleum and warm bricks or a suspense to protect her feet while standing at the tub.

A small bench on rollers, made the same height as a wash bench, will enable the housewife to move the filled tub about without any lifting.
Such preparations on the day previous are necessary in order to shorten the processes on washday and hasten the drying of clothes, for the earlier in the day that some of the clothes can be put on the line, the less need there will be for the remainder to lie wet in the house or to be dried there.

In case a shed is too cold for use in all processes of washing, it should be used for those which need hot steam, such as running clothes through the washing machine. Wringer, wash bench, boiler, basket and hanger should be kept in this shed rather than carried from the cellar and back, or rather than keep doors open while carrying them from the smoke house to the wash room.

Lookin' Backwards

Settin' here so kind a lonely, Gazin' out across the way, Nollin' there to look at, only What I see most every day, Houses jett like one another, Towern' up four stories high, Nice enough, but then I'd rather See a good-sized bit of sky Like the sky so blue an' soft an' Fluffy like. How I'd enjoy Sittin' it as I did often When I was a growin' boy.

When I was a happy youngster, Laughin' like at earthly ills, Livin' on 'th' farm amongst th' Dear New England rugged hills.
Wish as when I wakened up some morning.

I feel myself again In the house what I was born in, Sleepin' side o' Brother Ben.
How the ol' straw bed ud rest me, Sleepin' through without a break; I dunno tho' but I'd jist be Satisfied to lie awake.

Wonder if there's many changes In the place 'et I'd need see?
Guess the thing 'twould seem mo' strange is Me, the boy that ust to be,
There was our ol' soup that hung there

On the allum tree, where I Lots o' times have sat an' swung
there Waitin' fer the cat to die.
When to school then, 'cept in hayin', Books I someway didn't have in,
'Member mother kep' a sayin' 'Hurry! It's a quarter of!'

Ust to call myself ill-treated When I had to fetch the cow, I kin an' guess I'll be Guess I know how mor' 'n sweet 'ud Be a ramble like that new Freshen' the' mornin' breeze, Not much like th' smells all over City streets like each an' these.
Suthin' in my eyes a winkin' Does occasionally when I set down an' git a thinkin'
'Et I was a boy again.

Design for Embroidering a Blouse

"I reckon," said the first farmer, 'that I get up earlier than anybody in this neighborhood. I am always up before three o'clock in the morning.' The second farmer said he was always up before that and had part of his chores done. The first farmer thought he was a liar and decided to find out. A few mornings later he got

GIRLS' UNDER WAIST AND DRAWERS.

There and little girls will be sure to welcome this garment. The two are buttoned together. In one view, the drawers are shown loose finished with tucks and frills and, in another, they are assembled into bands.
Treated in the latter way, they are finished with openings at the drawers and the bands are buttoned into place.

For the 10 year size, 2 yards of material 36 or 44 inches wide with 1.34 yards of banding. 2.12 yards of edging for the waist, 1.34 yards of edging, 1.34 yards of banding for the drawers.

This pattern is cut in sizes for girls from 6 to 15 years of age.

SURPLICE BLOUSE WITH ROBESPIERRE COLLAR.

Almost every variation of the simple house is to be worn this autumn but the one made with Robespierre collar and a front opening is an unquestioned favorite.
Here is a model that can be made quite elegant and elaborate by the use of lace frills or simple and plain. The sleeves are in one piece each of the "set-in" sort and the long ones can be finished with or without openings.

For the medium size 3.34 yards of material 36, 1.74 yards 36, 1.34 yards 44 inches wide with 1.4 yard any width for the collar, 1.12 yards of lace 6 inches wide for the jabot revers, 2 yards of narrow lace for the sleeve frills, .34 yard 12 inches wide for the chemise.

This pattern is cut in sizes from 34 to 42 inches bust measure.

CHILD'S WRAPPER, 7588

The loose, simple little wrapper that is easy to slip on is the one that the child enjoys. Here is a model that includes only four seams in the garment itself and which can be made with high neck and round collar or with V-shaped neck. Both treatments are pretty and the sleeves can be made long or short. Almost every little girl will like the patch pockets but, as they are applied to the garment ment, they can be used or not as liked.

For the 6 year size, 3.12 yards of material 36, 2.12 yards 36, 2.14 yards 44 inches wide with 4.4 yard 27 inches wide for the collar and cuffs.

This pattern is cut in sizes for girls of 2, 4, 6 and 8 years.

up at two a.m., and went to the neighborly house. He rapped on the back door and the woman of the house opened it. "Where is your husband?" asked the farmer, "He is in bed," the neighbor in bed. "He was around here early in the morning," answered the wife, "but I don't know where he is now."—"Grove Country
