Don't Farm More Acres-Make Your Land More Productive

It is not the man with the largest farm that makes the most money. Your neighbor may be "land poor" and still make less money than you will from your 80 or 160 acres.

The secret lies in keeping up the fertility of your soil. Make every acre yield the highest possible returns by spreading the barnyard manure with one of the double the yield of the land you are now farming. Can you buy a farm machine that would be a better investment? Call and discuss the matter with the local agent handling one of the I. H. C. lines of spreaders. He will supply you with catalogs and fall particulars. Or. write to the nearest branch house for any further information desired
