

Travel from one to two years free in your Ford on your saving in one year's depreciation

Other cars in the $1000 or less class, after one year of service, are worth from $250 to $400 less than their purchase price. That's their depreciation.

Ford cars, after a year's hard work, sell on an average for only $125 less than they cost brand new. That's Ford depreciation.

The difference in depreciation of these year-old cars ranges from $125 in the one case to $275 in the other—both considerable savings for Ford owners.

Thousands of owners tell us that it costs .024 per mile on an average to drive a Ford—paying for gasoline, oil, tires and repairs.

So, if your saving in depreciation for a year is $125 you pay all your expenses for 5,208 miles—while if it is $275, you have kept enough money in your pocket to pay for driving your Ford 11,458 miles.

Buying a Ford in preference to other less than $1,000 cars, lets you save in one year's time a difference in depreciation that pays all your motoring bills for from one to two years.

Think it over.
