

in the field, so with us; we shall reap of the same kind as we sow.

A little boy once did a wrong; he disobeyed his father. That was a seed. It led to another act of disobedience, and then to another; and thus he went on, growing worse and worse. When he went to school he disobeyed his teacher—first once, then twice, then always. When he became a young man, he disobeyed the laws of the land, and continued so doing until he committed a great crime, for which he was sent to prison. His first act of disobedience was the seed, and all his other acts of disobedience were the fruits.

A little girl did something wrong; and when she was asked about it, she was afraid to confess her fault, and so denied it. She told a lie. That was a seed, and it produced a harvest of other lies. Not long after, she told another falsehood, and then another; and so she went on until she became such an habitual liar that no one could believe her.

MAKING SURE.—There are many people who adopt health and diet rules when attacked by disease of the stomach, liver or bowels, this is quite right, but those who add to this treatment the use of B. B. B. according to directions, make sure of being quickly and easily cured.

OLEAVING TO CHRIST.

"I have seen a heavy piece of iron hanging on to another, not welded, not linked, not glued to the spot, and yet it adhered with such tenacity as to bear not only its weight, but mine too, if I chose to seize it and hang upon it. A wire charged with an electric current is in contact with the mass, and hence its adhesion. Out the wire through, or move it by a hair's breadth, and the piece of iron drops dead to the ground, like any other unsupported weight.

"A stream of life from the Lord, brought into contact with a human spirit, keeps the spirit cleaving to the Lord so firmly that no power on earth or hell can wrench the two asunder. From Christ the mysterious life-stream flows, through the being of a disciple it spreads, and to the Lord returns again. In that circle the feeblest Christian is held safely, but if the circle be broken the dependent spirit instantly drops off."—Dr. Arnold.

A BIT OF MANNERS.

It was not because he was handsome that I fell in love with him. For the little fellow was not handsome as the phrase goes. But he had clear, honest eyes that looked friendly into yours, and a mouth that smiled cordially if shyly, as my friend touched his plump little hand which rested on the back of the car seat. He was with his mother. She was plainly clad as was he. She had a thoughtful face, perhaps a little sad. I fancied she was alone in the world; that her husband might be dead and this little boy her sole treasure. He had a protecting air, as if he were her only champion and defender. But he could not have been more than five years old.

We arrived at our station and left the car. We waited for the long train to pass. As the car in which our little friend was seated came up, he was at the window. He caught sight of us, and with the instinct of established courteous habit his hand went up to his cap, and the cap was lifted. A bright smile on the bonny face and he was gone.

Is it not a comment on the manners of ninety-nine boys that this little five-year-old fellow is the "one in a hundred" that we remember?

A SAD PROSPECT.—How many weary broken down invalids there are to whom life is burdensome, and whose prospect is sad indeed. The nervous debility and general weakness of those afflicted with lingering disease is best remedied by the invigorating and restoring properties of B. B. B.

"Do you see," said Dr. Arnold to an assistant teacher, "those two boys walking together? I never saw them together before. You should make a special point of observing the company they keep; nothing so tells the changes in a boy's character."

A FAMILY FRIEND.—Dear Sirs,—We have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil for sore throat and colds, and always can depend on it to cure. We also use it for sore shoulders on our horses. Mrs. Wm. Hughey, Wilberforce P.O., Ont.
