

How this beautiful Festival of the Ascension draws us all together! When we are far apart from those we love we can feel and know that in Jesus we are all quite close together. And may it make you feel and know that you are always very near to our Blessed Lord Himself! Ascension Day is not a sad day; it is a very happy and joyful day for those who are trying hard to serve the Saviour well

A WORD ABOUT GIVING.

"No, she isn't stingy, she's just selfish," said the old woman, speaking of a relative. "She'll give money if it's needed; she'll give a share of anything that grows in her fields or her orchards, but the one thing she never gives is a mite of herself.

"I'd expect her to send broth and jellies if I were sick, or blankets if I were cold, but I wouldn't ever expect her to come and spend the afternoon with me because I was lonely, or to be really interested in any trouble I had—or any joys either, for that matter. I'd never think of carrying her any of my boy's letters to read, as I do to little Mrs. Stone at the corner. Tom's been away nine months now, on a voyage, and Mrs. Stone has heard every one of his letters. We've hunted up together in her big atlas the places where he'll go, and when she comes across anything about one of them in the newspapers she always remembers and tells me. She doesn't do it just to please me, either; she's interested.

"Mrs. Stone scarcely has a spare dollar to share with anybody, but you never think of that. I think it's as much what folks'll let you share with them as what they share with you that counts."

SINGING AWAY PAIN.

A party of tourists were driving along a country road, leading to Killarney, that fine old town among the Irish lakes. As they came within sight of a cottage standing back from the road, with a lovely garden of flowers in front, there reached them the sound of singing.

The voice was full of sweetness, rich and strong, now and then rising into such lofty strains it seemed like an angel's song, then dropping to the mellow softness of a mother soothing her babe to sleep. The little company was entranced.

"If I could ever hope to sing like that!" exclaimed the young man who was driving, himself a student of music; and then, stopping his horses, he said: "Let us find who he is; perhaps I might be of help;" but here he paused as a young girl came out of the garden toward them. She had a basket on her arm, as if going to market. As she was passing, dropping a slight courtesy as she did so, he asked, "Will you please tell me who is singing so sweetly in the cottage?"

"Yes, indeed," said the girl, turning a bright face toward them. "It is only my Uncle Tim, sir; he's after having a bad turn with his leg, and so he's just singing the pain away the while."

For an instant the company was speechless; then the young man asked, "Is he young? Can he ever get over the trouble? Tell these ladies about it, please."

"Oh, he is getting a bit old now," was the answer. "No, the doctors say he'll never be the better of it in this world, but"—and her voice dropped into tender pathos—"he's that heavenly good, it would come nigh to making you cry sometimes to see him, with the tears running down his

Sufferers From Itching Piles

Who Found Quick Relief and Lasting Cure in the Use of

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

If you could read a few of the letters which come to these offices from persons who have been freed from the miseries of itching, bleeding, or protruding piles, you would soon realize the marvelous power of this wonderful preparation. Here are two sample letters, which show the heartfelt gratitude of cured ones:

Mr. John Tuttle, expressman, 107 Stewart street, Kingston, Ont., states: "Like most men who do much driving, sitting a good deal, and often exposed to dampness, I have been a great sufferer from piles. As a matter of fact, I had piles for a number of years and tried nearly everything I could hear of in a vain effort to get cured, but only succeeded when I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. The first application of this grand preparation brought me relief from the dreadful itching, burning sensations, and less than two boxes made a perfect and permanent cure. I am grateful for the freedom from suffering, and desire others to benefit by my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Mr. H. Kelly, Cobourg, Ont., states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for itching piles, and can truthfully say that it has entirely cured me. Only persons who have endured the torture of itching piles can have any idea of what I suffered. Dr. Chase's Ointment brought me prompt relief from the misery, and has made a thorough cure. I am thankful for this remedy, because it has made life worth living. I cannot say enough in recommendation of Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has no worthy rival as a cure for piles and itching skin disease. It is possessed of certain powers over these ailments which imitators are unable to reproduce. You can be absolutely sure of Dr. Chase's Ointment bringing relief and cure. It is backed by the testimony of the best people in all parts of Canada; 60 cents a box; at all dealers, or at Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
