Naperville, Ill. Each one of her daughters is taking a definite stand in the church and is striving to be true to the Christian principles for which the mother stood. The names and addresses are—Mrs. L. Lang, Elmwood; Mrs.
A. Heiple, Heidelberg; Mrs. Hy. Geil, Alsfeldt; Mrs. Dan Bickmeier, Mildmay; Mrs. Wm. Liesemer, Waterloo; Mrs.
(Rev) N. H. Reibling, New Hamburg; Mrs. P. Reuber, Mildmay; Miss Clara, Nurse, Toronto.

In her life she had few and scanty opportunities to develop her taste for literature, but such as there were she developed to the fullest extent. The writer of these humble lines of tribute will never forget, that as a lad in the evening when the day's work was done he would sit beside her, reading simultaneously with her column after column of fiction serials that appeared in the periodicals and magazines that came to the house, or the family page or the story page, which had a unique fascination for her.
Few books could be counted among the treasures of the home, but such as were there have a place in the golden treasury of literature, her bible (her constant companion), Pilgrim's Progress, Saints' Rest, Piers Ploughman, St. Augustine's Confession and others. She possessed a vivid imagination, had a keen memory and could relate experiences with all the circumstantial detail and color background of an accomplished story-writer. Her vivid descriptions of the voyage on the "Alfred", of the wedding trip, the life in the shanty, the life in the log house, the religious revivals would furnish capital material for a standard novel.

But as already intimated her life was one of self-repression, self-immolation, it was a long sacrifice. The words of the great teacher find verification in her "He who loathes his life shall find it." She shall live in her sons and daughters.

The funeral obsequies took place on Feb. 15, 1918, from the house of Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Geil where she had been ill since November due to a fall, and where under loving and devoted care and attention she spent the last months of her earthly life and where, due to paralysis, death came.

She passed away calmly, joyously, inviting the messenger of God to summon her home from her weary pilgrimage.
Interment took place at the Alsfeldt cemetery. All the children were present excepting John S., 24 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren and many friends mourn her departure.
Rev. S. N. Schrader, her pastor, conducted the services and preached a very apt sermon in a beautiful and consoling spirit. Rev. J. G. Litt, Kitchener spoke appropriate words of loving sympathy.
Rev. A. W. Sauer, Hanover, expressed sentiments of tender regard and dropped fragrant flowers on her bier by his message of song. The ladies quartette sang a sweet and cheering hymn, soothing in its lingering tones of sweet accord.

The following words of tender consolation were penned by Rev. J. G. Litt and read at the service:

Dear children, I know that I left you behind.
You always were loving to me and so kind.
You helped me as only good children could do.
My days there were many, my years not a few.

Now no not begrudge me my heavenly home, And put forth strong efforts with me here to room.

Where I am now waiting with Jesus to reign, That we who have parted may soon meet again.

I often did tell you of God and his grace, And now I am sharing the smiles of His face.
"How sweet to my soul is communion with saints!"
No scenes of confusion are here, nor complaints To-day you are mourning, you are not left alone, King Jesus is with you and comforts his own; Ah, soon you shall greet with jubilation song:
Thus helping to swell the victorious throng.

Yes, well hath He said, "Have no trouble of heart.
Believing in God is the requisite part;
In heaven, our home, are new mansions prepared.
All ready for you and for me to be shared."

Good-bye then, dear children, and shed no more tears.
Nor trouble with doubts nor with heart-aching fears.
Your souls are now bleeding o'er death's victory won.
But say to Him "Jesus, yes Thy will be done."

Councils Chance To Serve.

The authorities are urging the public to prepare for the fuel famine next year by getting hardwood ready in advance.
That is more easily said than done, as the farmers are not getting the wood out, and the roads are simply impassable for hauling. It looks now as if the public will get very little wood except in towns where the municipal councils take hold. Here the council has a good chance to do something. They have wisely decided to do as little as possible on the streets this year. Why not get a couple of buzz saws going and keep the corporation employees busy sawing wood. The rear of the Town Hall might be used as a municipal wood yard. The Telescope heard yesterday of a farmer four miles out who has 300-cords in standing timber which he would sell for a dollar a cord. To cut this wood into short lengths at a cost of say $1.25, haul it to town, shouldn't bring the cost over $3 a cord delivered. If the town could get a thousand cords of short wood, they would find a ready sale for every stick of it and it would enable us to face the fuel situation nicely next winter.—

DEFEAT BACKACHE AND KIDNEY TROUBLE WITH ANURIC.

Many people in Canada have suffered from rheumatism and kidney trouble and have found Anuric to be the most successful remedy to overcome these painful and dangerous ailments.

The lucky people are those who have heeded Nature's warning signal in time to correct their trouble with that new discovery of Dr. Pierce's called "Anuric." You should promptly heed these warnings, some of which are dizzy spells, backache, irregularity of the urine or the painful twinges of rheumatism, sciatica or lumbago. To delay may make possible the dangerous forms of kidney disease, such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

To overcome these distressing conditions you should take plenty of exercise in the open air, avoid a heavy meat diet, drink freely of water and at each meal take Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets (double strength). You will, in a short time, find that you are one of the firm indorseers of An-uric, as are many of your neighbors.

Send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., or Bridgeburg, Ont., 10c for trial pkg.
St. Catharines, Ont.—For several years I suffered with gravel and with uric acid, causing rheumatic pains. Nothing ever helped me until I commenced to take "Anuric," and the first thing I noticed was that the gravel had disappeared and has never made a reappearance. My general health has improved and I have a better nerve condition and my eyesight seems better, too. I used to have such dizzy spells at times I thought I would faint, but these no longer trouble me. My only regret is that I did not know of Anuric before."

Substitute For Bacon.

You won't believe, of course that there can be a substitute for this luxury of antebellum days, but try the following recipe once. The proof of the pudding is in the eating:

Cook in a double boiler a quart of ordinary corn meal mush, having it rather thick. Just after removing from the fire stir in a tablespoonful of bouillon or beef extract. Have in readiness a couple of slices of boiled bacon, finely chopped; stir into the mush and pour into a square mould. Set in a cold place to chill, and when firm, slice and fry in pork gravy.
You will find that you have a nice big platter of tempting food which, thou in the 'muck' order, is particularly tasty and nourishing.

Why February is so Short.

Many people wonder why February should have only 28 days. It originally had 30, but when the name of the month of August was changed from Sextilis to August, in honor of Emperor Augustus, it was considered that a month so greatly honored should be given an extra day.
At the same time people felt it would be hardly fitting to lengthen this month and not lengthen the month of July, which was named after the mighty Julius Caesar. Therefore it was decided to lengthen both months, and two days were taken from February to do this.

The broad fields of Saskatchewan are doing much to feed the Allied armies.
The wheat production of Saskatchewan in 1917 was 104 million bushels, which was about 22 million bushels less than in the previous year. The oat crop yielded nearly 114 million bushels, 33 million less than in 1916. The total value of the field crops to the farmers of Saskatchewan was almost 605 millions.
The high prices prevailing brought the farmers more money than when the crop was larger.

Solving the Labor Problem

Of one thing we may be sure, labor will not be plentiful in 1918. Nor will it be cheap. On the other hand crop prices are bound to be high next year because there will be an active demand for everything we can possibly produce.

There is a real opportunity next year for the forehanded man; the man who gets in the game early, the man who gets his supplies of fertilizers and seeds while the getting is good, the man who is prepared for every eventuality, the man who uses what labor he has to the best advantage and uses it only to grow good crops. For this sort of farmer America holds forth a promise as never before. For Peter Tumbledown the prospects are a little worse than usual, which means they're worse than nothing.

THE SAD STORY OF THE STRUGGLE FOR LIFE is frequently revealed in these war times even in this well-to-do Province.

Hard enough to be poor—still worse to be sick and poor.

The lot of the consumptive is a specially trying one. Only recently a family was discovered living in two small rooms over a store. At one time they had occupied a comfortable home but the father took sick and had to give up work. With the savings all gone, they were forced to sell the furniture to buy food. When the man was found to be a consumptive, this was the opportunity of the Muskoka Free Hospital to bring relief so that not only would the stricken husband have a winning chance for life, but more desirable still, the wife and children should be removed from danger of contracting the disease. Under skilful guidance the home was cleaned up and the family temporarily provided for. It is now reported that the patient is doing well, with every chance of recovery.

This is the great work carried on by the Muskoka Free Hospital which is now appealing for help.

islative Assembly for the Province of Ontario, in Parliament assembled, at the cillors and for things necessary for the said Village when so incorporated.

The lands to be included within the Lots numbers twenty-five and twenty-

The hard weather has been playing havoc with water pipes in houses and barns and many farmers are finding it a difficult matter to supply their stock with water.
