

County and Suburban News

TWEED

Mr. Thos. Murphy, of Stoco, spent a couple of days in Godfrey this week. Mrs. Dan Whalen, of Belleville, who has been dangerously sick, we are glad to hear she is able to be around again.

Mrs. C. S. Bootes left on Tuesday for England where she will make an extended visit at her home there. Miss Miller, of Malone, is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Jessie Miller this week.

Miss Hogan returned on Wednesday after visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Brennan.

Brother Simon, of De La Salle College, Aurora, is the guest of Rev. Father Quinn this week.

Mrs. T. Hinds and Mrs. G. LaFontaine, received word this week of the serious illness of their sister, Miss A. Doonan in the Western Hospital, Toronto.

STIRLING

Mrs. Geo. Richards spent Tuesday in Belleville.

Mr. Fred Hulin is spending Good Friday in Kingston.

Mr. Charles Todd is expected home for the Easter holidays.

Miss Annie Mosher is leaving this afternoon to spend Easter with her sister, Mrs. Ferguson in Oshawa.

Rev. Geo. E. and Mrs. Simmons arrived in town last evening from China, and are guests of Mrs. Simmons mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Kingston.

FRANKFORD

Mr. Willard Reed loaded cart with potatoes and cows also, posted and lumber here on Tuesday and left for Whitby on Tuesday.

Mrs. Wiley, of Murray, visited her aunt, Mrs. S. A. Badgley on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Reynolds of Foxboro, spent Wednesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gay.

Mrs. Miller and son, Thomas, arrived home on Wednesday after visiting her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simmons, for the winter in Calgary.

Miss Kathleen Simmons arrived in town on Friday morning to visit her mother, Mrs. Fred Terry.

Service was held by Rural Dean Byers in Trinity Church on Good Friday at 11 a.m.

Mr. Geo. Pollard, of Ottawa, spent Easter holidays with his uncle, Mr. Geo. Pollard, Sr., in town.

Mr. Will Rose, of St. Catharines, arrived home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rose on Friday, also Jas. Doyle is visiting his mother, Mrs. M. Doyle.

Miss Theda Frost, of Albert College, Belleville, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Frost in town.

Rev. Geo. Simmons and Mrs. Simmons of Homan, China, are visiting his mother and other relatives in town.

Miss Luffman left on Saturday to spend Easter at her home in Wellington.

Miss Maggie Bowen and Miss Edie Spencer were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bates in Murray, Good Friday.

The temperance meeting held in Windover's Hall on Friday night was fairly well attended. The principal speaker was Mr. Sinclair, of Belleville. There was also a musical programme given by Frankford talent.

Miss Fern Ford, of St. Catharines, is spending the Easter week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ford.

Miss Minnie Rogers, of Murray, spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miller at the Willows.

Miss Ada Munn, of Belleville, spent Easter Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. Munn, in town.

Mr. J. M. Bell has purchased the house and lot on the east side of King street from Mr. Williamson and intends moving there in the near future.

TRENTON

The funeral of Mr. Driscoll, Sr., who was struck and killed by the train coming in town from the north, was held on Tuesday morning last, interment in the R. C. cemetery.

Mr. Crothers' have moved from our midst.

Mr. W. Gosley is home from Niagara to spend Easter week with his family.

Mr. Fraser spoke to North Trent Sunday School on Easter morning. A union service was held on Friday at 10.30 a.m. at Grace Church Rev. Mr. Cranston, Presbyterian minister, filled the pulpit.

Mrs. H. Gay, of Foxboro, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Huffman.

The services at King Street church Easter Sunday were impressive. Rev. Mr. Clarke filled the pulpit, the choir furnished excellent music under the

CAMPBELLFORD

Mr. J. D. McEachern is visiting his old home at Eldon this week.

Mrs. A. H. McKeloe is in Toronto this week visiting her son, Ernest.

Mr. J. C. Powells, of Oshawa, was in town for a couple of days last week.

Mr. Harry Kenny will spend the Easter holidays at his home in Concession.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson are visiting their daughter Miss Eva Martin in New York.

Mrs. J. G. McKelvie and children, returned this week to Alaska, Sask., after spending a couple of months with Mrs. Curie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clark are now residents of Campbellford, having moved in from Seymour East.

Mr. Alex. James and daughter, East, Robt. A. Linn, of Seymour, were in Kingston last week attending the funeral of Mrs. W. Ross. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Rankin, Collins Bay.

BANCROFT

Mr. Hugh McCaul, of Norwood, spent the week end in town.

Two cases of small-pox have been reported to the authorities. One in Dungeness and one in Herschel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Manroe are in Toronto, visiting the former's mother, who is taking special treatment in the city.

Miss Dorothy Embury, who has been attending Haverburg Ladies' College, Toronto, is home for the Easter holidays.

Mr. Robt. Buchanan, who purchased the Bancroft Creamery here this winter has disposed of it to the Belleville Creamery and has in turn purchased another Creamery in Havelock.

Section Foreman Wilson and Roadmaster McDonald were severely shaken up when their gas car ran into a dog, killing the canine and throwing them into the ditch.

The Coo Hill train left the rails near Eldorado. The auxiliary train was called from Trenton, it taking several hours to replace her. The express due here at one-twenty did not arrive until five-thirty.

PICTON

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkley of Toronto, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leavitt, Mary street over Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Benson, of Bloomfield, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Keller, Waupoos.

Dr. and Mrs. White were this week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Moran, Crofton.

Mr. Richard Jenkins of the Port Milford Packing Co. has accepted the position of manager with the Boulter & Benson Canning Company for the coming year.

Mr. C. E. Dyer has returned from Oshawa and will be on Herbert Cooper & Son's farm at Woodrow.

Miss Clara Sprague, Big Island, spent last week in town, the guest of Miss Helen Way, Queen street, and other friends in town.

Mrs. Ernest Weese and Mrs. J. A. Bristow, of Trenton, spent a day recently with Miss Alida Bristow, who has been ill for several weeks at her home, Mary street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clapp and daughters of Pictou, spent the week-end the guests of Mr. W. Bedell and Miss Bedell of Hilder.

Dr. C. E. Wright and Mrs. Wright, are spending the Easter holidays in Trenton, the guests of Dr. Wright's parents, Dr. G. F. Wright. They will return to town on Monday.

Mr. H. N. Rose, of Athol, is nursing a broken leg. Mr. Rose was riding on horseback after dark when the horse slipped on a place of ice and went down. Mr. Rose jumped but the horse came down on his ankle, breaking both bones.

Mr. Danforth Holt has exchanged farms with Mr. Emmet Wood. Mr. Wood owns the farm alongside Mr. Holt's. The exchange gives Mr. Holt a hundred-acre farm and Mr. Wood 180 acres in a block.

Miss Ethel Brown of New York, is spending the Easter holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown, Bloomfield. Miss Brown who is a teacher of Spanish in one of the New York schools intends taking a trip to Spain during the coming summer.

Mr. Lyall Wood is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Woods, Talbot St., before leaving for Havana, Cuba, where he will occupy a position with the Bank of Nova Scotia. For the past several months he has held a position in the Head Office of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Toronto.

MADOC JCT.

Mr. and Mrs. Galt entertained friends from Belleville for the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Keegan were the guests of Mrs. Mary Wright on Easter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews entertained friends from Toronto for the Easter holidays.

Mr. Will Cox of the G.T.R. staff, Lindsay, was among the visitors here for Easter.

Miss Annie Stapley, of Northport Public School spent the holidays visiting her mother here.

Those who attended the evening service in Stirling Methodist Church report an inspiring sermon to W. M. S. workers, also splendid Easter music by the choir.

Mr. Arthur Wilson acted as chairman at West Huntingdon on Friday evening and kept up his reputation as one of the best—at least the ladies think he is. The programme consisted of lantern slides explained by Rev. G. McQuade the pastor, and appropriate solos by Miss Wright, Mrs. Andrews and Miss Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams spent a few days last week with their son, Alex. Williams, Bloomfield.

Mr. Everett Scott and two daughters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Scott.

Mrs. Bernice Farrington spent Sunday with her friend, Mildred McKibbin.

Mr. Ivy Emory who has been on the sick list is recovering and every one is hoping to see him out again soon.

Miss Mae Morrison and brother spent the week-end at the Blakely home.

Miss Rose McKibbin, East Lake Road is spending the holiday week with her aunt, Mrs. Nelson Palmer.

The Epworth League held their regular weekly meeting Friday evening. Mr. Wm. Moore taking the topic and made it very interesting for all.

Mrs. M. F. Miller and two children are visiting friends at Fish Lake.

Mr. Wm. Bushel who has been on the sick list is able to be out again, also Mr. Geo. Francis.

The Sunday School held their annual at-home for the home department members and cradle roll members Good Friday in Cherry Valley Church. Mr. B. Williams, the county superintendent of the home department gave a splendid talk which was enjoyed by all. After several reports from the different departments of the church and short addresses and solos the meeting closed. All were invited to come to the school room where tables were laid with lots of good things and a social hour was spent together which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, especially the aged people.

MARMORA

Mr. Martin Murray, of Stirling, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Stanis Bertrand is in Ottawa for a couple of days.

Miss Rose Sullivan is spending a couple of weeks' holidays in Buffalo.

Miss Miller, of Niagara Falls, is visiting at her home in North Marmora.

Mr. John Sullivan, who was working in a camp north of Sudbury during the past winter, returned to his home here last week.

Mr. M. E. Grant, manager of the Dominion Bank, has moved into the old Gordon McWilliams residence on Bursfall street.

Mr. Jas. Flynn, of Deloraine, Man., and Mrs. Flynn, who is residing in Peterboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Madden, of Peterboro, visited relatives in Marmora and vicinity over the week end.

FOXBORO

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ketcheson, of Belleville, spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Prentice.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prentice and baby Grace, of Hastings, spent the Easter holidays with the former's parents here.

Mr. Clarence Lang returned home after spending the past week in Belleville.

Miss Mabel Snider was the guest of Miss Helen Davis, on Sunday.

Master John and Ted Stewart are visiting their sister, Mrs. Harry Hoard, Godolphin, during the holidays.

Miss Cora Bell and friend, of Point Anne, were Sunday visitors of Miss Gladys Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dufee and children of Point Anne, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Burd left on Friday for Regina, as they received a message that their daughter was very ill.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Rosebush in their sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Palmer visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ross, on Sunday.

Miss Ruth Eggleton, Stirling, is the guest of her friend, Miss Grace Pittman.

Mrs. Percy King and children are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hetherington.

Miss Martha Pittman is the guest of Miss Florence Eggleton, Stirling, for over Sunday.

Mr. Embury Irvine, Belleville, spent Sunday in the village.

Mr. Neil Davis left on Monday for Toronto to attend the school convention.

ROSS' CORNERS

Sugar making is the order of the day.

Mrs. T. Waldron spent a few days recently with her brother, John Chisholm of Wallbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fry, of Campbellford, spent Saturday and Sunday the guests of Mr. Alex. Fry.

Miss Davis Gould, of Belleville High School, is spending the Easter holidays with friends in this vicinity.

Miss Caverly, of Madoc, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Fry.

Mrs. Geo. Ross and Miss Letitia Rose, of Halloway, spent Saturday and Sunday the guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. Whaley.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown, of Belleville, spent Easter with the latter's parents, Mr. Peter Delong.

Mr. Waldron has erected a new garage.

SHANNONVILLE

Miss Carrie Campbell, of Oshawa, is visiting her mother and friends in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Coyle, of Colborne, is spending Easter at the latter's parents.

Miss Aetha Coulter, the popular school teacher, is spending her holidays in Toronto.

Mr. Eckwell Hinchey, of Toronto University, and Mr. E. L. Hinchey, of Kingston, are enjoying Easter holidays at home.

Mrs. (Dr.) Moore, Miss Edith and Douglas are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kerr and friends in the village.

The many friends of Mr. Albert Reid and also Mrs. Lewis Reid are pleased to know they are improving from their recent illness.

Mrs. Wm. F. White who has been in Belleville hospital for treatment will be home in a few days. Mrs. Cora Sager is gaining also.

Master Tommy Emmons, who has been attending High School at Campbellton as home for the Easter week.

The W. M. S. Auxiliary held a very profitable service in the Methodist Church Sunday evening last. The secretary, Mrs. W. D. Robertson, gave a very encouraging report of the work accomplished during the year.

BIG ISLAND

The many friends heard with regret of the death of Mr. Anson Lowry at his home on High Shore on Saturday morning.

Capt. and Mrs. Black, Solmsville, spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peck.

Norman Kerr was the guest of his friend Frank Ralston on Good Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peck spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sprague.

Mrs. Harry Smith, of Northport, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kerr on Friday.

To have the children sound and healthy is the first care of a mother. They cannot be healthy if troubled with worms. Use Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

GLEN ROSS

Sunday being Easter the service was unusually interesting. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers.

Miss Lela Hagerman is spending her Easter holidays in Foxboro.

Miss Edith Abbott of Frankford was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Johnson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Abbott and Miss Olive were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson. Miss Olive remained for the Easter holidays.

Miss R. Carlisle and Miss Myrtle are home for the holidays.

Mrs. Cleugh and son Willie were guests at Mr. A. W. Greene's on Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Weaver spent the week end in Belleville.

Dr. Ackerill, of Belleville was making professional calls in this vicinity recently.

Miss Violet spent Monday, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. Wheeler, Stirling.

Mr. John Foreman was suddenly seized with a fit of vomiting on Wednesday last, causing a hemorrhage after which he lost consciousness and did not rally for several hours. Dr. Alger is in attendance and considers the case critical.

CONSECON

Mr. E. McLean, of Toronto, spent Good Friday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McLean.

Rev. H. B. Kenny, of Campbellford is spending Easter week with his father, Mr. Robert Kenny.

Miss Edna Flemming, also Miss Evelyn Carter are in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ketcheson, Elizabeth and Louis, also Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carter of Thomasburg, are spending Easter week with friends in the village.

Mr. Geo. Miller is visiting his grandparents in Picton.

Miss Pearl Spriggs of Toronto, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Young.

WEDDING BELLS

MCINROY-HAGGERTY

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haggerty, West Huntingdon on Wednesday, March 23rd, at noon, when their eldest daughter Helen Louise, was united in marriage to Wallace McInroy, the Rev. R. Simpson performing the ceremony.

The bride was beautifully dressed in white crepe-de-chine with veil and blossoms, and carried pink roses. The bridesmaid Miss Lilian, sister of the bride, was dressed in white embroidered net and carried white carnations.

The wedding march was played by Miss Bernice Haggerty. After the ceremony guests numbering over 100 sat down to a sumptuous dinner, after which the happy couple left for a short honeymoon.

The many and costly gifts and cheques testify to the high esteem in which they are held, and all wish for them a long life of prosperity and happiness.

CAPREOL FIRE LOSS BIG.

CAPREOL, Ont., Mar. 29.—A large part of the Yonge St. business section here was destroyed by fire, the loss being sixty thousand.

ALFONSO IS HIMSELF AGAIN

Madrid, March 29.—King Alfonso is entirely recovered from his recent indisposition, and held a conference today with the Premier and other ministers relative to the re-opening of Parliament.

VIVIANI IN U.S.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Rene Viviani, Envoy Extraordinary from France, arrived here on La Lorraine. He will go to Washington today, and on Wednesday he will call on Secretary of State Hughes and pay his respects to the President.

TO SOME IT MAY BE

LIKE GOOD OLD DAYS.

SASKATOON, Sask., Mar. 29.—Eggs are selling in the city at 22 1/2 a dozen. Travellers report that farmers in country districts are selling them at 15c a dozen. Egg breakfasts are now served to prisoners in the police cells.

VETERAN DIES OF BURNS

LONDON, Ont., March 29.—Thomas R. Murray, aged thirty, a returned soldier, died yesterday in Victoria Hospital from the effects of burns. It is believed that while smoking in bed, the clothes became ignited. An inquest will be held.

JAPAN STEPS DOWN.

TOKIO, March 29.—Japan will withdraw troops from the former German island assigned to her, the Japanese Foreign Office announced today. The statement denied Japan is fortifying the islands, which are described as "economically and strategically unimportant."

MEN STILL SEARCH FOR BODY OF GIRL IN MONTREAL SEWER.

MONTREAL, March 29.—Two men in a boat, armed with boat hooks and grappling irons, are at present somewhere under Craig street in the main sewer searching for the body of eight year old Lillian Manning, the little girl who fell into a manhole on St. James street between Aqueduct and Mountain streets opposite St. Antoine street, on Thursday, March 10. Up to noon they had found nothing, but the search is being continued this afternoon and evening.

News About People and Social Events

HE alone is great who by a life heroic conquers fate.

—S. K. Boulton.

Mrs. Thomas Watson, of Kingston, spent Easter in the city.

Miss Bessie Conley, of Stirling, spent a week with friends in Belleville.

Cadet Wills spent Easter in the city with his parents, Judge and Mrs. Wills.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daley, of Cape Vincent, are visitors to this city.

Miss O. Tilley, of Oshawa, spent her Easter holidays at her home in Belleville.

Master Percy Flindall, of Albert College, is at his home in Peterboro for the holidays.

Miss Marie Thornton, of this city, is spending the Easter vacation at her home in Woodstock.

Miss Madge Cooper who is attending St. Agnes School, is spending her holidays at her home in Gananoque.

Recent Trenton visitors to Belleville were, Miss Maude Turner, Mrs. Genwerd, Mrs. J. Squire and Mrs. Turner.

Miss Winnifred Hay, St. Agnes College, who has been the guest of Mrs. Norman Fraser, Kingston, has returned home.

Master Andrew Whalen has returned to his home in Belleville after spending a couple of weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. C. Kelly, Stoco.

Miss Mabel Smith, graduate nurse of the Belleville General Hospital, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, Campbellford.

Mr. D. Peters, Mr. H. Downey, Mr. W. Crookshank, Mr. G. Maddeaux and Mr. G. Langdon of the Tiger Rubber Co., spent the Easter holidays in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brynner, of Kingston, will return from Bermuda this week.

Mr. G. W. Sulman, of Chatham, has returned home after spending the holiday with his mother.

Miss Tower, of this city, spent a couple of days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pennell, Napanee.

Mrs. A. E. Calnan, of Picton, is spending a few days in Belleville the guest of Mrs. Charles Pearce.

The Misses Helen and Anna Baker of Warkworth, are spending their Easter holidays with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Reid, 314 Albert St.

Jas. P. Wills, of the Toronto Hydro and Chas. H. Wills, of the Hamilton Hydro, spent their Easter holidays at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wills, 122 Yeomans St.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Mallory have just received word that their son-in-law, J. E. Bentham, of Winnipeg, who is connected with the Hygiene Products Co., has been transferred to the head office in Montreal. He