THE RED CROSS SOCIETY have presented to Lance Corp. Jas. Pendlebury, and Private Geo. Somers, a box containing mittens, caps, scarfs, handkerchiefs, tobacco, and a housewife; and the Women's Canadian Club a bullet-proof mirror, and a box of writing paper.

Miss Alice Grimmer a few days ago received a letter from her brother, Private Stuart Grimmer, who is at Shorncliffe, England, saying that while walking along the street one day he met Dr. Percy Hartt. Private Grimmer was greatly surprised as well as pleased to meet Dr. Hartt, as he had not had an opportunity of seeing many papers, and did not know that he had enlisted.

A young girl by the name of Kyle, who was landed at Chatham from a boat a few days ago from Eastport, Me., was taken into custody on Tuesday by Immigration Inspector Maloney. Shortly after taking her in charge, Inspector Maloney had a phone message from the immigration authorities at Calais, asking him to look out for a girl who had been missing from her home there for some time, and this girl happened to be the one. She was sent up river by steamer on Wednesday.

Mr. E. Cecil Dewolf enlisted in the 115th Battalion at the recruiting office in St. Stephen on Wednesday last, and was to be attached to the 2nd Battalion, which will soon be organized for that Battalion.

Jas. F. Douglas, of St. Stephen, has been appointed selling agent for Charlotte County for the popular McLaughlin-Bulck Cars. The 1916 Models are all equipped with six cylinder, valve-in-head type engines; and for finish, beauty of design and economy of operation, are the acknowledged leaders of Canadian cars.

APRECIATIVE RECRUITS We have been requested by Pte. Frank A. Grimmer, No. 742588, Co. B, 115th Battalion, St. John, to convey to the Ladies of the Recruiting Committee and the Members of the Band in St. Andrew's on behalf of himself and the other recruits from St. Andrew's who went to St. John on Monday, Jan. 24, thanks for the very great kindness and attention shown them on their departure to the camp of instruction. The enthusiastic "send-off" will never be forgotten.

MOTHS IN JANUARY We have received from our Campobello correspondent a large mass of black wings marked with light brown stripes, and a Hedge-Hog caterpillar (Pyrrhia chisobella) which were found alive outdoors by Mr. Thomas Calder on Friday, Jan. 28. The extraordinary mildness of the last week of January was responsible for the preliminary awakening of dormant insect life.

THREE PAIRS OF TWINS The announcement that twins have been born to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Goodwin, 159 St. John street, West St. John, is the more interesting because this is the third pair born to Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, and all of them, five boys and a girl, are living and well. The happy parents are receiving the hearty congratulations of their friends.—Times & Star, St. John, Jan. 31.

An old sea captain resident in Rugby, England, noting that the engine on the train on the London and North-Western Railway bore the name Dabchudd, wrote to the railway company suggesting that, as an act of patriotism, the name should be changed. The engine has now been renamed Bulldog.

Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes Take advantage of the fine fall days to fix things up before the winter's storms arrive. Get busy with the paint brush. Don't leave wooden surfaces unprotected or with a worn-out coat of paint. Sun, rain, frost and storm crack and check unprotected wood. That means decay and expensive repairs later.
