Look at the War Map
For Basis of Any Peace

So Says the German Chancellor in an Interview Given to a Berlin Paper, and Evidently Disposes of Any Further Peace Talk.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, June 2.—"The present war map must form the basis of peace.
Let the statesmen of the Entente powers look at the facts as presented by this map and they will know Germany's terms."

Thus spoke Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, in the course of an interview with the correspondent of the Berlin Neueste Nachrichten during a visit to Munich, says Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent.

The chancellor's words, says the correspondent, have attracted the widest attention. The Lokal Anzei-ger, commenting on the interview, says:

"We interpret the chancellor's words to mean that the trenches which the Central powers have erected east and west are an impenetrable German wall of soldiers which must be the frontiers of a peace treaty. In no war yet has this been the case, but a military achievement which has been gained with so much blood must form the starting point for any negotiations for peace."

S. S. MCCLURE GIVES OUT
TERMS OF TENTATIVE TREATY BETWEEN BRITAIN AND HUNS

This Agreement Was Reached in 1914 Before the War, and Would Have Satisfied Germany He States—Both Countries Ready For Peace if They Got What They Wanted.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

New York, June 2.—(Montreal Gazette)—S. S. McClure, editor of the Evening Mail, in an address last night to a large audience at Carnegie Hall read the terms of a treaty between England and Germany which, he said, was drafted and initiated by the conference in June, 1914. If signed, it would have satisfied Germany for decades, he said, and would not have endangered the British Empire. He learned of this proposed treaty from official German sources, and had obtained some confirmation of it in England. Following is a summary of it, as given out by Mr. McClure:

"The Baghdad railway from Constantinople to Basra is definitely left to German capital in co-operation with Turkey. In the territory of the Bagdad railway, German economical working will not be hindered by England."

"Basra becomes a sea harbor in the building of which German capital is concerned with sixty per cent, and English capital with forty per cent.
For the navigation from Basra to the Persian Gulf the independence of the open sea is agreed to."

"Kuwait is excluded from the agreement between Germany and England."
"In the navigation on the Tigris, English capital is interested with 50 per cent, German capital with 25 per cent, and Turkish with 25 per cent."

"OIL WELLS FOR BRITAIN.
"The oil wells of the whole of Mesopotamia shall be developed by a British company, the capital shall be given at fifty per cent, at 25 per cent by German bank and at 25 per cent by the Royal Dutch Company (a company which is Dutch, but closely connected with England) for the ir-and on the autonomy of Poland."

OLD COUNTRY NOTES

Decline of local rates is one of many results of the war in rural municipalities. When the war began many councils had fixed appropriation for improvements which were wisely held up. Now that the second year of the war is about due the leving of local taxes is proportionately small, or at least not so great as was expected. A penny in the pound levied on the ratepayers is a heavy imperial tax to meet.

A very effective help for the soldiers in the street fighting at Dublin were improvised armoured cars. Large engine boilers were obtained from the Great Southern Railway. These boilers were placed on motor lorries from Guinness's Brewery. The boilers were looped and filled with soldiers. By the assistance of these armoured cars large bodies of rebels were rounded up.

The Derry County Council and the Armagh Quarter Sessions both simultaneously came to the conclusion that one effect of the war was a diminution in insanity and unemployment. Crime had also decreased considerably, and in villages that gave vent to their pleasure from time to time by drinking bouts were now reported most orderly and law-abiding.

Among the victims of the Sinn Fein revolt was the Earl of Donoughmore, who was wounded during the fighting in one of the provincial centres in Ireland. Lord Donoughmore was Under-Secretary for War from 1903 to 1905, and became Chairman of Committees, House of Lords, in 1911.

Starvation, which always haunts half the population of Dublin, has drawn terribly near to them lately. There has been no work done, and no work means no money to people who depend on their daily earnings for their daily bread.

The largest demonstration of the kind ever held in Scotland occurred in Glasgow recently when, as a protest against the manufacture and sale of liquor during the war, 30,000 women headed by bands marched to the green, where speeches were made advocating prohibition.

A fox drive over the hillsides is to take place from time to time in the Campbell Hills. Flockmasters there have sustained heavy losses owing to the depredations of foxes, one farmer alone having lost nearly twenty lambs.

Record prices for cattle have recently been obtained at Perth, Dundee, Arbroath, and Forfar. The extraordinarily dear prices for bullocks have been the "talk of the town," and a steady rise is currently reported.
The copestone was, however, laid metaphorically, at Cupar show and sale a few days ago, when recent previous record prices went by the board.
Sixty-three pounds ten shillings was paid for a roan bullock, which weighed 15 1-2 cwt. This is equal to 83s 6d per live cwt. the record for Scotland.

MOHAWK PARK
BEING CLEANED UP

The regular monthly meeting of the parks board was held last evening at the city hall. Accounts chiefly for work done in the different parks in the way of spring cleaning to the amount of $274.80, were passed and ordered paid.

P. Cancellia tendered for the season to supply peanuts and other wares at Agricultural Park, the privileges being granted him upon payment of $25.

Two applications were laid before the board for the use of the park, one from members of the Masonic order at Hamilton and one from the school of Simcoe to hold outings. The work on the new roadway being built into the park, although very heavy, is progressing satisfactorily, when completed it will greatly benefit both the appearance of the park and facility of entrance.

Boating privileges are only to be attainable through the man who owns the boats now and who is desirous of selling his rights. The work of clearing up all rubbish in the parks has been and is being carried on, and the park is looking at its best. The waterworks commissioners are proceeding with the planting of about 500 trees—all that the parks board could spare to them at the present time. The intention is to devote such land as may be required to the planting of trees and shrubs, is one on which the parks board and waterworks board are in thorough accord; had this work been undertaken years ago, a considerable portion of the Holmedale land would by now have been reforested. Those present were E. L. Gould, F. Cockshutt, F.
Grobbs, Wm. Glover, Mayor Bowley and Secretary J. J. Hawkins.

WERE IN ACCORD NOW Mr. McClure said that England and Germany to-day were almost in accord in the outlines of the settlement of the war. Both, he said, wanted security above all else—England, security against the doctrine that the power possessing the might has the right to force other nations to do its will; Germany, security against the threat for the future in the great growth of population in Russia.

Mr. McClure said that England was ready to return the German colonies, but would insist on the restoration of Belgium. In addition to the assurance of security, he said that Germany would insist on retaining Courland and other German sections of Russia
and on the autonomy of Poland."

MADE PRESENTATION

The employees at the Pumping Station yesterday, presented Mr.
David Webster, who for 39 years has been at the waterworks, and now is retiring from his position as chief engineer, with an address and a ring.
The address was read by Mr. Robert Lloyd and the ring presented by Alex.
Gillespie. Mr. Webster made a suitable reply and was much pleased at the kindly recognition given to him.
The letter of presentation was as follows:

David Webster, Esq.,
City.

Dear Sir,—We, the employees at the pumping station under your supervision, understand that you are retiring from your position as Chief Engineer to accept one with the Board of Commissioners in an advisory capacity, and it is our desire to show in a small way our appreciation of the just, fair and impartial manner in which you carried out the instructions of the Board.

We hope that you will accept the accompanying ring as a small token in remembrance of our good wishes towards yourself and Mrs. Webster, and we sincerely trust that you will both be spared to enjoy many years of rest and happiness.

Sincerely yours,
H. H. Loyd,

Give Former Outlet to Sea

Roumania's Relations
With Central Powers

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, June 2.—(New York World cable)—A Rotterdam despatch to the Daily News says:

"According to a special correspondent of the Nieuwe Rotterdamsche 'Courant' at Bucharest, important negotiations between Roumania, Bulgaria and Turkey are proceeding, which, if successful, will give Rou-mania an outlet on the Bosphorus."

"Roumania's improved relations with the Central powers are further indicated by an agreement in writing for the mutual exchange of products, one consequence of which is the closing of the Russian frontier."

"German troops have been withdrawn from the Bulgarian fortresses on the Danube."

UNDERSTANDING REACHED

Berlin, June 2.—(By wireless to Sayville)—According to reports from Bucharest, says the Overseas News Agency to-day, the representatives of the Roumanian Importation Commit-a general understanding with the Turkish officials regarding the pro-

Roumania and Turkey, negotiations regarding which were begun on the understanding that it would follow the lines of the German and Austro-Hungarian commercial treaties with the Balkan kingdom.

The treaty, the advices state, will be signed when prices have been established at which products shall be exported from Turkey.

An eloquent sermon was preached by Archdeacon Davidson, of Guelph, on the lessons of Ascension Day.

The offertory taken up was for the benefit of St. Luke's Church. The benediction was pronounced by Arch-
