SIMCOE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MET

Veneral Diseases and Medical Examination of School Children Considered

ST. PATRICK'S TEA

(From our own Correspondent) Simcoe, March 8.—There was a splendid meeting of the Simcoe Women's Institute held at the Baptist church yesterday.

The question of paying for the medical examination came up, and the practice elsewhere will be inquired into.

GENERAL COUNTY NEWS. Mr. James L. Acker will present a bill to remove to Hamilton.

Miss Mary Thomson of Detroit, formerly of Dominion Cannery here, has dropped in home for a few days.

Former students of Waterloo High School to the number of 36 now in service, are listed on an honor roll recently unveiled by the Literary Society there.

It is very doubtful whether Norfolk Laurierites will shoulder the onus of advertising this county throughout the Dominion and face the uncertainties and expense of putting a protest against the return of the Federal member.

their appearance here early in the week.

The Methodist Choir will have in considerable outside talent for their annual Good Friday concert.

Still another effort will be made by the Board of Education to have Mr. Butcher's exemption extended.

There is some talk of a dollar day in Simcoe. A petition for an early closing by-law is going the rounds.

GAS PRICE AT DOVER JUMPS

Company Will Sink More Wells at the Port Very Soon

Simcoe, March 8.—(From our own correspondent) Following the sweeping endorsement at Port Dover of a by-law authorizing an increase in the price of gas from 25 cents to 25 cents per 1,000 feet, the company has decided to put down more wells in the field, and operations will begin with the opening of spring.

REBUILD RAILWAYS. By Courier Leased Wire. Ottawa, March 8.—In referring to the problems of reconstruction which will face the world when the war has ended, Hon. Frank Carvell, minister of public works, said: "We must have railways of course," he said.

CRITICIZE INTERVENTION. By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, March 8.—Intervention by Germany in Finland and the consequent ill-feeling against Germany in Sweden is criticized severely by Independent Socialists and Progressive members of the Reichstag.

NOMINATED MODERATOR. By Courier Leased Wire. Brockville, Ont., March 8.—Rev. Dr. Love, of St. Andrews, Que., has been nominated by the Brockville Presbytery, as moderator of the next General Assembly.

J. M. YOUNG & COMPANY

COULDN'T LIVE WITHOUT HER. By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, March 7.—The mystery in the suicide of Grand Duke Adolph Frederick of Mecklenburg-Strelitz is explained in an official statement from the ducal house published in the Rheinische West-falische Zeitung. The statement says that the Grand Duke attempted to become engaged to a German princess, but the difficulty in negotiations for dissolving previous obligations weighed so heavily on the Grand Duke's mind that he ended his life.

DUKE'S DAUGHTER TO FARE. By Courier Leased Wire. Ottawa, Ont., March 7.—In the annual championship competitions of the junior members of the Minto Sailing Club, yesterday afternoon, the girls' championship was won by Lady Rachel Cavendish, daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire.

EXTEND MARTIAL LAW. By Courier Leased Wire. Rio Janeiro, March 7.—A Presidential decree was issued to-day, extending martial law in the federal district and several states until May 6, when Congress convenes. Martial law has been in force since November in order to keep in check the activities of Germans who have attempted to embarrass Brazil in its war activities.
