MAJOR WALLER TESTIFIES

Denies Having Gone Beyond His Authority In Ordering Filipino Natives to Be Shot — Was Acting Under Orders of Gen. Smith Not to Blame.

Special to the Daily Nugget. Manila, March 31.—Major Waller of the marine corps testified in his own behalf today at his trial by court-martial for killing natives of Samar without trial. He graphically described the hardships the marines endured owing to the treachery of the natives and the attempted robbery of their arms, and said he was not aware that the guide Victor was the notorious and infamous insurgent captain who had led the insurgents at Bassy and Balangiga, otherwise he would not have allowed Victor to go. The major also said he carried out Gen. Smith's orders entirely, and never went beyond except in the last paragraph of the order which he issued on taking command of the marines, calling on the latter to avenge the slaughter at Balangiga of their comrades of the Ninth Infantry in the Chinese expedition. Every other act Gen. Smith had absolutely inspired.

QUAKER CITY PREACHER

Prayed for Czolgosz but Not McKinley

Has Been Forced to Resign the Pulpit Against His Own Wishes.

Special to the Daily Nugget. Philadelphia, March 31.—Rev. Edwin Sweetser of the Universalist church of the Messiah, one of the leading churches in this city, has been peremptorily ordered to resign. He prayed for Czolgosz and refused to pray for McKinley, but has hung on to his pulpit ever since.

Give Up Hope

Special to the Daily Nugget. London, March 31.—The admiralty tonight officially announced that all hope of finding the British sloop Condor had been given up and ordered that her books be closed and that the money due her officers and crew to March 17 should be paid. The British warship Condor left Victoria, B.C., December 2, for Honolulu, and has not been seen since. She was of 980 tons and carried a complement of 130 men.

Arrived With Eggs

R. L. Vining arrived yesterday 13 days from Whitehorse with 45 cases of eggs. The coldest weather he encountered on the way down was 8 degrees below zero, consequently his eggs arrived in great condition. He estimates that there are fully 1000 people now on the trail between here and Whitehorse, all headed this way.

Dowler Dies

Toronto, March 31.—The Rev. J. A. Dowler of Toronto is dead.

ALDERMAN T. G. WILSON

Returns From Hurried Visit to the Coast.

Will Take His Seat in City Council for First Time Tomorrow Evening.

Alderman T. G. Wilson returned Saturday afternoon from a flying trip outside looking none the worse for his 400-mile stage ride over the ice, but, on the contrary, seeming to have been considerably rejuvenated by his brief touch with the refining influences of the effete cities of the coast. Mr. Wilson's trip outside was wholly on business and as he has been gone but six weeks it can be readily understood that he had little time for visiting or sightseeing. He visited Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and San Francisco during the course of his travels.

"The coast cities are extremely prosperous and I found California booming," said he to a Nugget man. "Times are better now outside than they have been for years, and I look for the same conditions to prevail here this summer. Yes, I am bringing in another tremendous stock of goods this year, but that is a matter I do not care to speak about just yet. Practically all my shipments will come in via the lower river, as I find I can do much better over that route. 'I suppose you will be on hand at the council meeting tomorrow evening?' queried the reporter. 'Oh yes,' was the reply, 'I'll have to go around and see how the boys are getting along.'"

For the Tanana.

Seattle, March 16.—An expedition of eight men left this city last night on the steamer Dirigo for the Tanana placer diggings. George Dillabough heads the party. The other members, several of whom are in the employ of Dillabough, are George White, D. Mosika, J. B. Herges, John Forchat, James O'Donnell and F. W. Shaw. They will proceed first to Dawson and thence down the river, traveling a total distance of over 2,000 miles, more than half the way over the ice and snow. The party has a large outfit of miners' supplies. Dillabough has been operating in the Klondike for several years.

Much Damage

Special to the Daily Nugget. Pittsburg, Pa., March 31.—The damage resulting from recent storms will amount to $500,000 in this city alone.

Under Trial

Special to the Daily Nugget. London, Ont., March 31.—The second trial of Gerald Sifton, charged with the murder of his father, will open next week.

To Pay Under Protest.

Yokohama, March 17.—The United States consul, Alfred Buck, has advised the Americans to pay the house tax under protest. The government has officially announced that it will submit the question to arbitration, but that in the meantime it is determined to collect the tax. A dispatch to the Associated Press from Shanghai, March 7, announced that the foreign residents of Kobe, Japan, at a mass meeting then recently held, had decided to refuse to pay the new taxation of property, claiming that it was a violation of treaties, until the question was definitely settled between the powers and Japan.

OBSERVATION OF EASTER

Lovely Weather Added to Glorious Occasion

Appropriate Services Conducted at All of Dawson's Churches — Easter Attire.

Had the weather been made to order a more perfect day for Easter could not have been desired than that which which Dawson was favored yesterday. Bright, inviting, invigorating, with the air full of warmth and gladness, only the presence of birds, those true harbingers of spring, and the flowers one is accustomed to associate with Easter were needed to make the day perfect in every respect, one that would recall similar days of bygone years before man's thirst for gold led to the founding of a metropolis in the far north.

The services in all the churches were unusually well attended for it is a poor churchman who can not attend worship on at least that one of the most important days in the Christian calendar.

At St. Mary's an innovation new to Dawson yet frequently heard in the larger eastern cities was the introduction of Fremuth's orchestra, consisting of violin, clarinet, cornet, trombone and bass, to assist in the mass. La Hache's beautiful Messe Solennelle being rendered. Miss Katherine Krieg's excellent soprano was heard to splendid advantage in the solos, she also rendered during the offertory an Ave Marie set to the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana" with violin obligato by Mr. Friemuth. Mass was said by Rev. Father Lebert.

Services at St. Paul's were conducted by Rev. Mr. Warren, assisted by Rev. Mr. Reed. At matins occurred the celebration of the holy eucharist with sermon by Rev. Reed. The service at evensong was entirely choral, the music being under the direction of Mr. Arthur Boyle.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was filled at both the morning and evening service, at both of which Rev. Dr. Grant preached the sermon. Special music was rendered by the excellent choir under the direction of Mr. Ernest Searle, solos being contributed by Mrs. Boyes, Mrs. Devig, Mrs. Matteson, Mrs. Dr. Thompson, Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bozorth.

At the Methodist church the service was under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Hetherington, who delivered an able discourse upon the events commemorative of the day. The musical features were also of exceptional merit, embracing solos by Mrs. Hetherington, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. Libby, Mrs. Eugene Cole, Mr. George Craig and Mr. Hugs.

Informal Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Taggart, assisted by Miss Robinson, entertained a number of their friends informally Saturday evening at their residence on York street near Fourth avenue. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening, the bride and her charming sister presiding over the punch bowl with a grace delightful to see. Music and dancing was indulged in and the Rubicon trio, consisting of Messrs. Volkman, Zilly and Spence, favored with several classical selections. A thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent and all wished the popular bride and groom a safe and pleasant journey on their trip to the outside. Mr. and Mrs. Taggart expect to leave for Whitehorse tomorrow.
