THE SALE OF A WIFE.

A Very Peculiar Bigamy Case Tried at Cobourg The Husband Got a $15

Port Hope, Jan. 9 .- A case, in the criminal records of Canadian courts, was tried at Colourg yester-day in the County Court, before His Honor Judge Beason. That a man In this enlightened age should sell his wife for a watch conceivable. Bu which proves the charge brought by Crown Attorney Kerr against Albert Reynolds, of Percy Township, near Dartmouth. Reynolds was yesterday convicted of inciting to commit big-amy, and his brother and wife were convicted of bigamy.

On Dec. 10, 1900, George Albert Reynolds and Annie Clark were mar-ried by the Presbyterian minister at Norwood. They lived together as man and wife until last fall, when an elder brother, Walter Reynolds, aged 26, came home from Michigan.

He revived a former intimary existing between himself and George's wife. George resented this alienation of his wife's affections, or else he was tired of her, and offered to sell her and his household effects to Walter, the consideration being a watch bought in Michigan for $15.

A bargain to this effect was made the marriage license procured, under false pretences by the two brothers, at Rosmeath, and husband. No. 1 took charge of his two children while his wife and brother were being married by the Methodist minister at Warkworth, in November, 1902.

The husband No. 2 took immediate possession of his brother's wife, two shildren and household furniture.

The affair culminated yesterday, when Walter Reynolds and Annie Reynolds, who were defended by E. C. S. Huyckle, K. C., of Cobourg, pleaded guilty to charges of bigamy, and received sentences of four months each, in the county jail at Cobourg. George Albert Reynolds, the first husband, who was defended by J. B. McColl. M.P., was convicted of in-citing his brother and wife to commit bigamy, and received three months in the same place. In passing sentence, His Honor pointed out that the lightness of the sentences was due to the ignorance of the parties concerned, and that their offence against society and morality had affected no innocent party, injuriously.

The parties in this unique domestic mix-up remain unaffected in their relationship, husband No. 1 promising to take back his wife and children he had sold as soon as their sen-

A FIEND H DEED.

Four Young Manitoba Farmers Poured Whiskey Into a Halfbreed Boy Until He Collapsed-He Is Since Dead.

Winnipeg Jan. 10 .- It was all a joke. Four young farmers were in Neepawa for a good time. They had Henry Spence a halfbreed boy, aged 18, with them and decided to get him drunk.

Henry was willing, and now it all a tragedy. The boy died last night. Being roused to conscious-ness a couple of hours before his weak heart gave its last beat, he told as much as he could remember of what happened to him. Last night a coroner's jury held an inquest over the remains and the four men impli-cated are held on charges of manslaughter. It was last Monday night that the foul work was done. As long as Spence was able to hold himself together he yielded to brutal persua-sion and swallowed whiskey in large doses. When he became unable to help himself his associates further amused themselves by holding his head back and pouring the fiery liaud down his throat. Not until the boy completely collapsed did the disgusting spectacle end. The victim was taken home insensible, and lingered in a semi-conscious state till last night, when he died.
