

THE MAKING OF ALE.

THE BREWING—

This is the point where skill comes in. The best dish may be ruined by poor cooking, and good beer may be spoiled by bad brewing. To make the best article the brewery equipment must be of the best.

Carling's is a brewery where every real improvement is utilized. The brewer is an expert and his assistants have had many years of experience. Every detail is carefully looked after, and the result is a beverage that can always be depended upon.

THE CHRISTMAS MARTS

Brimful of Beautiful Goods.

LEADING BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENTS THE PLANET CAN RECOMMEND TO ITS FRIENDS.

The Planet herewith continues its description of Chatham's leading business establishments, and bespeaks for those mentioned the best consideration of its friends. It can guarantee that all these marts of trade are stocked with the latest and best goods, offered at the most reasonable prices.

KENNY'S BOOKSTORE.

The bookstore of W. J. Kenny presents a very holiday aspect, and the large stock of dainty, colored books, cards and novelties makes an exceedingly pretty picture.

"I have now been in business two years," said Mr. Kenny, "and my trade has steadily increased. This fall has been an exceedingly good one and business is very brisk." In the store is a beautiful range of well-selected stock. Mr. Kenny is showing some very fine gift books, which you are encouraged to call and inspect. He also has an extensive array of dolls and toys, which entitle him to a good share of your Christmas patronage.

RADLEY'S DRUG STORE.

The well-known and popular drug store of S. C. Radley is branching out. Edwin C. Radley has purchased the store lately occupied by J. W. Burris, and already has a staff of men engaged fitting up the premises. This store will be opened in a few days with a full line of pure drugs and medicines, and it is expected by Mr. Radley that he will be in a better position to meet the requirements of his growing trade by the change. At either store can be purchased perfumes, toilet articles and other fancy goods for use and ornament. Xmas shoppers will be surprised when they see the bargains S. C. Radley is offering.

CANDIES AND CONFECTIONS.

Nothing attracts more attention or shows the taste and ability of a firm to a greater degree than a beautiful window. The Planet reporter was much struck by the elegance of the window of W. S. Richards' confectionery store. It had been decorated with choice Christmas cakes, creams, chocolates, bonbons, etc. The dainty colors of the candies and cakes were set off by a background of needle and house palms, while carnations, chrysanthemums and roses added their delicate beauty to make a rich and pretty picture. This pleasing sight is a tribute to the skill of Miss Hamilton.

IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE.

Chas. Dingman's store has donned its holiday attire and is stocked with books of the season, and novelties. It is here that a specialty is made of

STONE'S GREAT SALE.

The past few weeks have been the biggest we have had since we have been in business," Mr. Stone of the firm of Thos. Stone and Son, told the Planet, "and we have made every preparation for the Christmas trade of the present. The administration sale has been successful beyond our greatest expectations. This is certainly the place for Christmas shoppers to visit as they can procure everything in the dry goods line at sale prices.

This large establishment is beautifully decorated in a manner fitting to the season and the store throughout possesses an exceedingly attractive appearance. All the holiday specialties of the dry goods line are exhibited. Kid gloves of the most recent makes are specialized. This store always has made a feature of fine Irish linens and the stock on display this Christmas will keep up the reputation of this large establishment. Furs, handkerchiefs, small wares of every sort, dress patterns and waist slits are also prominent in style and quality and when it is considered that these are offered at sale prices, the bargains to be obtained at this dry goods house may be easily seen.

GORRIE'S CONFECTIONERY.

D. Gorrie's confectionery has taken on its holiday attire and presents a pretty picture. Mr. Gorrie makes a specialty of fine Christmas cakes, and he has now a large supply of freshly made on hand. Any who desire to have their cakes baked by a professional, may have the work done at this establishment for 10 cents a pound. Other choice cakes and dainty pastries are also on display. The confections and candies are also of excellent quality. A large quantity of new kinds of candies have been received, and all the old favorites are also to be found here. The kisses of cinnamon and chocolate flavors are decidedly delicious. Then the chocolates, gems, Persian jellies, brandy drops, creams, taffies, etc., of all sorts and kinds. When purchasing candies you will find that you will do well in calling at the confectionery store of D. Gorrie. There you can get value for your money.

THE BEE HIVE.

The Bee Hive presents a lively scene these days and the large class of clerks are kept busy.

"We have had an extremely busy fall," said George McLachlan, "and last Saturday was a record breaker." A. D. Sulman has a keen eye for business and being a hustler, he buys with celerity and sells with dispatch. The reason goods don't stay on the shelves at the Bee Hive is owing to the fact that the proprietor purchases only the best and the latest and the result is immediate sales. The doll display is attracting a great deal of attention. The Bee Hive has a beautiful assortment of all kinds and these bibles. The range of different kinds is very large and you can procure whatever you want in the way of a bible for from 25 cents to $7.

THE CHATHAM DAILY PLANET

"We have imported our own bibles," said Mr. Dingman, "and we carry the largest stock of any store in the west."

In the way of books anything can be secured here, from a $15 set of Kipling down to the book of adventure for boys and the little picture works for the little tots. Then there is also a well chosen and excellent line of fancy goods and other novelties. All these are of splendid quality and workmanship and in this store many delightful Christmas gifts can be secured.

A new branch has been added in the picture-framing business. This proves to be a popular feature of this store. Some samples of the work may be seen in the window. One of the samples of frames on exhibition is called the Golden Oak, and it is certainly a marvel of workmanship and beauty. Christmas purchasers will do well to give this store a call.

THE PLACE FOR CLOTHING.

Amongst the merchant tailors of this city, there is none more successful than Albert Sheldrick, whose interesting advertisement appears in this issue.

"This has been one of our busiest seasons," Mr. Sheldrick told the Planet, "and as a matter of fact we have been busy just now that it will keep us hustling to get all our work out by Christmas."

This popular establishment carries a full line of all the latest cloths for making the best and most stylish suits. The stock of tweeds, worsteds and serges is very fine. In the windows, which are tastefully dressed by Milton Fox, may be seen a swell display of patterns and vest goods. We would suggest to the citizens that they visit Mr. Sheldrick and present themselves with a Christmas present in the way of a new suit.

A NOTABLE PRODUCTION.

From a macabre standpoint John Griffith has been more successful with his production of "The Three Musketeers" than with "Faust." The explanation is found in the charm of novelty and has deep significance. "Faust" had its turn for the past five years, and its run was long enough to permit people who care to see it the opportunity of doing so. "The Three Musketeers" is of the elaborate order regarding the scenery, from the brush of E. G. Unithascenic artist of Daniel Hoffman's Lyceum Theatre, New York City, and consists of four full stage sets and eight tableaux. It is semi-historical as well as the costumes. The same name gives a good idea of the play. The first act depicts the meeting of D'Artagnan, The Three Musketeers. The Queen, Cardinal Richelieu, the monarch Louis XIII. The development permits of the panorama of court life and then proceeds to the tragic termination, changing the background from palace halls to prison walls. Dumas' novel has been dramatized before but never met with the success that has attended this version. The character of D'Artagnan is well suited to Mr. John Griffith and is probably the greatest triumph of the country as worthy to rank with any of the great parts made famous by Booth, Barrett or McCullough. The support, including the young and beautiful Miss Kathryn Purcell, has been selected with a view of suiting the part to the actor. The play is a perfect ensemble and an almost perfect ensemble has been obtained. As Mr. Griffith has always been a warm favorite here there is not any doubt that he will be greeted with his usual large house on Thursday, Dec. 21st, at the Grand Opera House.

FILBURY.

Dec. 20.—On Saturday, 18th inst., the wife of J. Thomas, of Filbury North, of a daughter.

The Passion Play was given in Anderson Hall Monday evening.

Miss A. Phipps, of Merrill, was buried on Sunday last. Rev. T. Dobson conducting the funeral services.

Miss Nina Graham, of Tilbury West, grand-daughter of Mr. John Struthers, of this village, was lately married to Mr. Reid, of Merces.

BALDOON.

On Wednesday last the committee appointed to purchase the new organ for Grace church Sunday school went to the city and bought a fine, piano-casa, associate organ.

Jas. Wemp and a narrow escape the other day. While driving his team a colt came running behind them and got them into a very lively runaway, smashing things in general.

Mr. Wemp was badly shaken up. Miss Hattie Glassford is out for the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Robert Owen.

A report has reached this neighborhood that Joseph Kelly, who worked here some time ago, was up on a visit to some friends, met with a shocking death lately. Brantford in an elevator. The particulars have not yet reached us, but if true we are very sorry to hear it.

The congregation of Grace church has been adding about $150 worth of property to their estate lately.

The Christmas tree entertainment at Mitchell's Bay on Friday night was indeed a great success. The church was full, every seat being taken and extra chairs had to be brought in. The children's singing powers were well brought out under the training of their school teacher, W. S. Bell. The dialogues by the older ones were very entertaining, the singing by Miss Martindale and the paragon girls, and the recitations by Bert Dewart and Gordon Stewart were all good. Refreshments were served midway in the program. The funds of the school are increased by $15.

Grace church Xmas arch will be on exhibition on Wednesday evening, and a big crowd is expected. We all hope that Santa Claus will be in his most liberal mood.

My infant boy was afflicted with a terrible skin disease. The upper part of his body was one mass of bleeding sores which extended to his head, and one of his ears was so affected that we thought it would drop off. His sufferings were beyond description, and he had to be kept constantly under the influence of opium. Our physician did everything for his relief, but instead of the child getting better, the disease seemed to become more aggravated every day, until I became utterly discouraged. I could find nothing that would even relieve my child till one day my attention was called to CUTICURA by a testimonial published by you. I thought the CUTICURA remedies, using the CUTICURA CUTICURA Ointment, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT. The result was simply marvelous. After using the CUTICURA remedies the child was free from pain and the terrible itching sensation. From day to day improvement progressed, and in seven weeks from the day he started on the CUTICURA remedies the child was cured, the sores falling off, leaving a clean, smooth skin in their place.

THE NAKEDNESS OF THE INDIGENT WORLD

might be clothed from the trimmings of the vain.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is a true statement, particularly in the case of a man with weak lungs, likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying lung tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 31 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.
