CASE WAS NOT PROVEN

Annie Fraecliek and Young
Palmer will Come up
Again

The Tupperville Case is Arousing Considerable
Interest

Considerable interest centred in the County Police Court yesterday morning when a young man named Palmer and a young woman named Minnie Fraecliek came up charged with being inmates of a disorderly house at Tupperville.

The raid was made a few days ago by Constable Peters, and these two were found in the house. There was also a little girl ten years of age who was said to be living in the house.

The evidence yesterday morning revealed the fact that the two people arrested would never be mistaken for Sunday school graduates. If all the language was used, which was alleged to have been used, it is no wonder that the neighbors complained.

Mrs. Eva Ross, Mrs. Susan Fraecliek and Mrs. Lindsey were among those who were examined besides Constable Peters. Their evidence, however, did not prove conclusively the charge that had been laid, and so the case was laid over until Monday, when more evidence will be given. The Crown Attorney said that there were a number of people around the neighborhood who complained, but who did not wish to give evidence. He announced that if it is necessary, he will bring the whole bunch in to Chatham to give evidence.

The question of what is best to do with the little girl is a serious one with the Court. Mr. Gunton, the Executive Officer of the Children's Aid Society, will be notified to be in Court to look after the child.

The father, Anson Fraecliek, was discharged on a charge of keeping a disorderly house.

A NEW CANDIDATE

Mr. John Edmondson Will Again
Run For The City Council—
His Past Career

Yesterday afternoon a representative of The Planet, having heard John Edmondson's name prominently mentioned in connection with the coming municipal campaign, called on Mr. Edmondson, Baldoon street, with a query as to whether he would be in the Mayoralty campaign this season or not. In reply he said:

"No, I do not intend to be in the field for Mayor, but it is my intention to be in the field for alderman."

Mr. Edmondson stated that several people had asked him to be in the field this year, and it is now his intention to do so. For six years he has served as alderman in the City Council, and in the election last year was defeated by a majority of thirteen votes. For two years he was chairman of the Property committee, and for one year was chairman of the Board of Works. He was a valued member of the City Council, and his appearance as a city father will be welcomed by many.

FIRST DAY OF SALE

Wallaceburg, Oct. 17. — The first day of the auction sale held at W. D. McKee's, better known as the Sydney Stock Farm, took place yesterday, about 10 colts being disposed of. Those which were under the hammer the first day were of the Prince Dillard, Hal Dillard, Simmond and Hamiltonian Wilkes.

COUNCIL TAKE ACTION

Petrols, Oct. 17. — As a precautionary measure against the danger of the explosion of nitro-glycerine in the town, the Council to-night passed a by-law prohibiting the manufacture or storing of the explosive within the corporation limits.

This morning at nine o'clock a special meeting was called when the matter was discussed at length, and was then adjourned until this evening to consider matters before taking action.

The passing of the prohibitory by-law will necessitate the removal of at least one factory, the owners of which have been given notice to move within the next twenty-four hours or prosecution will follow.

LAYING FOR HIM

What would you think of a man who would feed breakfast food to his chickens?
I should think that the chickens would be laying for him.

DRY KILN DESTROYED

Serious Fire at the Chatham Fruit Growers' Factory

Loss $600, and no Insurance—Fireman Side Injured

At 12.40 this afternoon the firemen were called out to a conflagration on Raleigh street, near the G. T. R. tracks. The dry kiln belonging to the Chatham Fruit Growers' Association had caught fire and was completely consumed.

The building, which was a frame one, was situated a short distance behind the peeling and packing house building, and also adjoined the building where the dried apples are stored. It is thought that the fire originated from the heaters in the building, as a strong fire is always kept in them in order to dry the apples. The fire was blazing furiously and was almost past control before it was noticed. Two men who were eating their dinner in the peeling house were the first to notice it, and immediately sent in the alarm. The fire department responded quickly and were soon on the scene. Three streams were playing on the blaze and in a short time the fire was extinguished. The walls and roof fell in shortly after the arrival of the firemen.

Mr. Ross, manager of the factory, when interviewed relative to the insurance, stated that there was no insurance on the building and the loss would amount to about $600. He also stated that the building which immediately adjoined the dry kiln contained dried apples to the value of $1,000. This building was saved.

Matthew Side, one of the firemen, sustained some painful injuries from a fall received while at the fire. He was on a beam in the second story and when the walls fell in he also fell, alighting on some woodwork, etc. The third finger of his right hand was badly cut, his back was sprained, and he sustained several other minor injuries from the fall.

ALDERMEN ARE SCARCE

There are Six Possibilities for Mayor and one
Councillor

It is Hoped that Civic
Candidates will Announce
Themselves

FOR MAYOR—Ald. William Potter, Ald. Charles Austin, Ald. William Bensen, ex-Ald. Thomas Scullard, and possibly Mayor William M. Stone and Ald. W. H. Westman.

FOR ALDERMEN—

Prospective candidates for the Mayor's chair seem to be plentiful in Chatham, but there appears to be very few talking of running for the positions which will be left open in the event of so many present aldermen running for high honors, and unless a greater interest is manifested later on, aldermanic seats in this city stand a chance of seeking the men instead of the men seeking them. It is to be hoped, however, that such will not be the case, and that these positions of honor, dignity and responsibility will be keenly contested for as in years gone by.

Only one man has so far been mentioned as having said anything seriously about running for an aldermanic position.

As will be seen by the above list, there is a possibility of there being six men in the field for Mayor. Many of these gentlemen have been interviewed by The Planet previously. Messrs. Potter, Bensen and Scullard have announced definitely that they will run. Ald. Charles Austin is widely spoken of as a candidate, but is silent when approached on the subject. Mayor Stone also shows Sphinxlike traits, when he is asked about the possibility of his running. Ald. Westman remarks that he may run for Mayor, and his friends appear to think that he should make the plunge this year anyway.

The news that ex-Ald. John Edmondson, the "Mayor" of North Chatham, will once more be in the field, will be welcomed by a host of his friends. John has broken the aldermanic candidature, and he deserves credit for doing so. An interview with ex-Ald. Edmondson will be found in another section of the G. T. R. It is now up to other candidates for the City Council to announce themselves, and the Board of Education and Water Board candidates should make haste to follow suit.

A HAPPY RE-UNION

Hewitt Children Embrace
Their Father in Prisoners'
Pen

Wife Says That Her Sister
Enticed Her Husband
Away

"O, Daddy, we're so glad to see you!" was the joyful exclamation which burst from the lips of the Hewitt children as they ran to the open arms of their father, who faced Judge Houston this morning on a charge of wife desertion. The faces of the spectators were turned away for a moment as the little ones climbed up on the knees of their father, whom they have not seen in the past seven months.

Some philosophers have made the remark that there must be some good in a man whose children are glad to greet him. If this saying be true, then Wm. Hewitt must have a share of virtue somewhere in his makeup. Hewitt appeared to forget his surroundings for the time being, and he bobbed about as the children would their arms affectionately about his neck. The deserted mother with her week-old babe in her arms, also burst into tears.

Mrs. Hewitt says that she is willing to forgive and forget, and Hewitt says that he will be glad to go back and work hard to support his family. Big-hearted Chief Holmes and Curotaker Walter Hewson composed the peace conference which brought about this happy family re-union, and they are both of the firm belief that if Hewitt gets off he will keep his word. His case was remanded till Monday.

Mrs. Hewitt says that she does not blame Hewitt so much, but her sister, with whom he cleared out. She appears to think that her sister enticed him away. When Hewitt was arrested, he was found living with the sister in a tent.

Hewitt owns a house and lot in Nixon, and was fairly well-to-do when the quarrel with his wife took place. Mrs. Hewitt was only fourteen when she was married.

THE DOLLAR MARK

Wheat Will Not Go Below Present
Price For Some Time—Mr.
Stevens Talks

In a short interview with N. H. Stevens, president of the Canada Flour Mills, The Planet gained some valuable information about the markets. Mr. Stevens said that there was a great break in the wheat market, and in two days the wheat market of Manitoba dropped seven cents. Chicago wheat has also dropped several cents and the corn, oat and barley market is also very weak. By all accounts the wheat crop of Manitoba is good and the grades show that at least sixty per cent. of the wheat will be good for milling purposes. The booming of the price of Manitoba wheat has been done by the grain men in order to make a good profit out of the old wheat they have on hand.

"The winter wheat will not go below the dollar mark for some time," said Mr. Stevens, "but in case of the western wheat going down we need not look for much advance."

Another bearish feature is the larger increase in the acreage of winter wheat sown this fall. Its growing condition is first class and it is thought that all the crop of wheat of 1907 will be required by the mills before the 1908 crop comes in.

ELLIS-STEPHENS

Leamington, Oct. 16.—A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. Stephens, when her daughter, Miss E. Stephens, was united in marriage to Mr. Roy Ellis, Leamington. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jasper Wilson in the presence of relatives of the bride and groom.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Bere Ellis.

The happy pair will honeymoon at Detroit and other western points. On their return they will occupy the handsome residence lately erected by Mr. Ellis on concession 2.

COUNTY POLICE COURT

Charles Miller, of Camden, was arrested by County Officers McGregor and Peters yesterday on a charge of stealing a neighbor's horse. He was brought before Judge Houston in County Court this morning, when he elected to be tried by jury. The case was remanded till Monday for a preliminary hearing.

O. L. Lewis appeared for the prisoner, and Crown Attorney Smith prosecuted.

A man named Griffin was fined $5 and costs, $20, in all, for assaulting Wm. Muckle, of Shrewsbury, causing bodily harm.

DEATH OF JAS ROUSE

The death of James A. Rouse, aged 22 years and three months, occurred this morning at four o'clock after an illness of one year.

His early death has been a shock to a large number of the citizens of Chatham and will be much mourned. He was a very popular young man and led an upright and honest life. In 1906 he graduated from the Ontario College of Pharmacy and for six months was a valued clerk at the Radley drug store. After leaving this city he took a position with the firm of Burgess & Powell, of Toronto. He afterwards returned to his home in this city and has since been living with his parents on Park street. He was formerly a resident of Blenheim and came to this city about five years ago.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the residence of the deceased's parents, Park street. Interment will be made in the Maple Leaf cemetery.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

When men are frauds there is no need of justice; but when they are just they still need friendship.
