"MEXICANA."

To-morrow evening the patrons of the Grand will have the opportunity of attending one of the brightest and prettiest musical comedies of the American stage. It has been through a lucky chance that "Mexicana" has been secured for the local playhouse and the theatre-goers should be as anxious as Mr. Briscoe to see this production well patronized. It is only through encouraging the best shows that good productions are induced to come to Chatham, and certainly such productions as "Mexicana" are the most desirable kind.

Manager Briscoe, during the past season, has provided some excellent treats for local music lovers and he promises to bring this record to a grand climax with "Mexicana" to-morrow night.

A WINDSOR WAIL.

"Chatham is alarmed by an outbreak of small-pox in its midst," and Windsor would do well to watch the progress of events down there. Chatham gets all its small-pox from Dover township, which is one vast culture-bed of the disease, due to the constitutional antipathy to vaccination there and consequent disregard of regulations.

The foregoing impertinent and extravagant statement comes from the Lilliputian quill-pusher who is hired by the Windsor Record. The untruthfulness of this "squib" is apparent to anyone in Chatham conversant with the true facts. The earnestness of the City Council and Board of Health in their efforts to provide suitable accommodation for patients suffering from contagious diseases, is evidently viewed by the Record man as an "alarm."

The slanderous insinuations made against the splendid township of Dover are as false as they are uncalled for.

The only sane remark in the paragraph seems to be that, "Windsor would do well to watch the progress of events in Chatham." Quite true. If Windsor had started long ago to watch the progressiveness of Chatham and her citizens, manufacturers and merchants, she might at the present time be something more than a suburb to a large city.

If the Record man wishes to go even farther, and arrange for a visit of some of his Windsorites to Chatham, the citizens here will be pleased to show them around and endeavor to enlighten them along the lines of up-to-date and progressive civil government.

What with high licenses and high prices for drinks, it promises to cost the rounder a smart penny to get high, in Ontario towns. The Hamilton Herald says local hotel men contemplate an all-round increase, such as agreed upon by St. Thomas hotel men. "It is proposed," says the Herald, "to raise the price of liquors, especially Scotch goods, as an extra charge will be made for soda, so that a drink of Scotch whiskey and soda water will cost twenty cents. Similar boosts will be made all along the line. It is not likely that any change will be made in the price of beer, but the size of the glass will likely be cut down." Under promised conditions, temperance men should find a notable adoption of their principles and Mr. McNaught less necessity for his anti-treating law.

HOYT'S "A BUNCH OF KEYS."

The keynote of the fun in Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys," which will be presented by Gus Bothner at the Grand to-night, is cleanliness. Its humor is the good, homely American kind, while its wit is the repartee of a clever mind.

Take a series of clever complications, add a bunch of comedians, stir in a handful of catchy songs, mix with several shapely chorus beauties, place upon a stage dressed with handsome costumes and you have the average farce comedy. Take all the above and add to them the magic of Charles H. Hoyt's name and the fame of Gus Bothner, and "A Bunch of Keys" easily makes the fun-making vehicle of the decade. Manager Briscoe, of the Grand, was fortunate in securing this attraction for to-night, and only one performance will be given. No farce comedy has been presented with success so continuously and none deserves better appreciation.

In spite of the conclusion arrived at some time ago by the management who for so many seasons have exploited with no small pecuniary gain Hoyt's "A Bunch of Keys" to at least temporarily rest this wonderfully successful musical farce owing to its long continued service, and for the purpose of launching another offering of equal merit so urgent have been the requests for its retention that as a sort of farewell our fun and music patrons are to be treated to another visit of this greatest of Hoyt's triumphs at the Grand this evening, on which occasion the purpose will be to show to what an extent an old and tried amusement friend can be rejuvenated through the process of a new interpretation and in brand new attire. To this end nothing has been neglected from a scenic point of view and extra care has been exercised in the selection of such a cast as would insure the best possible meaning of the author's humorous motives.

An evening of mirth, melody and merriment is in store for all who attend the Grand to-night.

MEXICANA.

"Mexicana," the torridly tropical comic opera, which will be given a spectacular production under the direction of the Messrs. Shubert, at the Grand Opera House to-morrow evening, is a big cast of favorites, a humorous and tuneful picture of certain picturesque phases of life in the republic across the Rio Grande. "Mexicana" will be presented by an uncommonly strong company of favorites, including Louis Harrison, Christie MacDonald, Joseph Herbert, Caro Roma, Edward Martindell, and Edmund Stanley, has its lyrics by Miss Clara Driscoll, a famous young Texas author who "knows" Mexico, and Robert B. Smith, who was co-author of "Fanny" with Sam S. Shubert. The music was written by Raymond Hubbell, composer of "The Runaways."

Nearly 100 players—mostly girls, and extremely pretty ones, too—are in the production. In the ensembles will be seen Vaqueros, bandoleros, pulqueros, aguadores, cahuileros, pulqueros, rurales, senoritas, Indians, and others, who combine to form the picturesque population ruled by Porfirio Diaz.

THEY KNOW IT.

Thousands of people throughout the country know that the ordinary remedies for piles—ointments, suppositories and appliances—will not cure.

The best of them only bring passing relief.

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid is a tablet taken internally that removes the cause of Piles, hence the cure is permanent. Every package sold carries a guarantee with it. It is perfectly harmless to the most delicate constitution. A month's treatment in each package. Sold at $1.00, at any drug store, or the Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

Libations and Perfumes.

In the libations of the Greeks, Egyptians and others perfume was largely used. Herodotus mentions the incident of the twelve kings of Egypt who were offering sacrifice in the temple of Vulcan. At the door of the temple on the great altar were laid bundles of sandalwood and cinnamon. Upon these the sacrificial boar was stretched, the fire lighted, pastils of incense thrown in and the smoke and "aldrus smells" rose high to heaven. Then into the inner courts marched the royal procession, preceded by incense burners, who bore golden salvers, and by the smaller altar the kings knelt in prayer. The priest, rising, sprinkled consecrated perfume over them and brought forth the golden beakers for libation. But the old man, a little middle headed, counted eleven cups as twelve. Psammethichus, who was left without, took off his brass helmet and in that offered the perfumed wine to Vulcan, the fire god. Previous to this the oracle had declared that he who offered a libation in a cup of brass should be sole King of Egypt. Unconsciously Psammethichus had fulfilled the condition, and he was therewith proclaimed king.

HANDED TO YORK LOAN.

Least Piano Co.'s Assets Assigned to Liquidators For the Benefit of Creditors—The Investigation.

Toronto, April 11.—The Least Piano Co. have quietly assigned their assets to us for the benefit of the York Loan, and we are now in possession," was the statement made by an official of the National Trust Co., liquidators for the York Loan, yesterday afternoon. The Phillips' investigation went on until nearly 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was adjourned until this morning.

Couldn't Serve Writ on Phillips.

An officer of the National Trust Co., liquidators of the York Loan, made an unsuccessful attempt to serve notice on Joseph Phillips of the writ that has been issued, asking that he be restrained from disposing of his Toronto Life stock. The court intimated that the writ must be served on Phillips only through his counsel.

C. E. Stacey, an inspector of the York Loan and Toronto Life, acknowledged that Phillips had given him permission to write up Toronto Life Insurance as a "side line," while traveling for the York Loan. From August, 1902, to December, 1904, witness received $12,000 to $15,000 for writing up insurance. From Nov. 1, 1904, up to the present he had received $1,000 as commissions from the Toronto Life, besides $20 a week salary.

Commissions Paid Stock.

The 60 shares of stock on which he had paid $1,750 had been paid out of commissions he had from the York Loan and Toronto Life, and on the 10 per cent. of his salary that had been held back by the York Loan. Witness denied that he had got any cheques in favor of Phillips or the Misses Hudson.

Wahra Mary Jane West, superintendent of the York Loan, deposed that she had sold National Monthlies under the instructions of Phillips.

"I," she added, "we sold two Monthlies and two York Loan shares, we were paid the regular commission by the York Loan. Also, if we sold three Monthlies and one share."

Witness had also sold pianos and Toronto Life insurance. One week she had written up from $10,000 to $15,000 insurance, and got a prize of $10 or $15. "Was this paid by the York Loan?"

"Yes, I guess so. It was cashed there, too."

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burt and the Hudson girls are subpoenaed for to-day.
