

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAR. 9, 1894.

Last Friday Night's Meeting.

The political meeting held in Wolfville last Friday evening was an enthusiastic one. The hall was packed and on the whole good order prevailed.

Death of T. R. Harris, Ex M. P. P.

General regret will be felt throughout the province at the announcement of the death of Thomas R. Harris, at Aylesford.

The novel called "An Eclipse of Virtue."

The novel called "An Eclipse of Virtue," by Champlsey Bissel, contained in the March number of Tales From Town Topics, is a bright and daring work.

Bribery.

I have been wondering whether it were any use to write something for the ACADIAN respecting the sin of bribery.

He who buys a vote must have an inward feeling of shame, unless destitute of moral sensibilities. He who is bought degenerates his manhood, and becomes an object of contempt even to his purchaser.

Does Prohibition Prohibit?

Does fire burn? Will ice melt? What next? Certainly prohibition will prohibit if there is enough of it.

Horton Landing Items.

It's all over the place—mud! The missionary meeting held last week was well attended although the walking was very bad and the night dark.

There was a large surprise party at Mrs. A. R. Curry's on Monday evening.
