Harper's Magazine

ILLUSTRATED. Notices of the Press

The Magazine has attained in its one quarter century and more of existence to that point where it may be said of it, in the words of Pr. Johnson, "It is vain to blame and useless to praise." The lustre of its long-ago-attained reputation has increased as the years have passed, and its future scene as bright if not brighter than at any time since the golden hue of prosperity settled around its later and best years.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Harper's Monthly is marked by the same characteristics which gave it circulation from the first with the better class of readers. It combines reading matt-r with illustrations in a way to make clear and vivid the facts presented. Pictures merely designed to catch the eye of the ignorant are never inserted.—Chicago Journal. The Greeley Monument.

The Greeley Monument.

The Greeley monument was unveiled at Greenwood Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The weather, though slightly cold, was such as to lempt abroad a large number of ladies, who lent their presence to the picture-equeness of the crowd that assembled to witness the ceremonies. A comparison of the audiences that have assembled at recent unveiling ceremonies in this vicinity, with that collected on the little knoll at Greenwood, yesterday, would suffice to disprove the adlage that years are more than the collected on the little knoll at Greenwood, yesterday, would suffice to disprove the adlage that years are more than the content of the

Once more, dear Mother Earth, we stand
In reverence where thy bounty gave
Our brother, yielded to thy hand,
The-sweet protection of the grave!
Well hast thou soothed him thro' the years,
The years our love and sorrow number,
And with thy smiles, and with thy tears.

Made green and fair his place of slumber.

MR. ROBWELL'S PRESENTATION SPECHT.

MR. CLARRMAN—It has been thought advisable that a representative of the united practical printers of the country—with whom the project to erect this memorial originated—should be selected to represent it to the public. When it is remembered that Mr. Greeley was mong the very flast in this country to a over in the matter of organizing printers' unions, and was the first should be so. When the death of Mr. Greeley fell like a pall upon the nation, the working printers, looking to the crection of some unitated at the country has yet produced that this country has yet produced that this country has yet produced that this country has yet produced. This necessitated the raising, of a lexcellence were are voritured in the larger amount of money, and for a time it seemed as though the project.
