

Gillette Safety Razor

He'll Appreciate Your Good Judgment As Well As Your Good Will
if for Christmas, 1917, you send him a Gillette Safety Razor! That's the gift that is valued Overseas for itself as well as for the sake of the sender. Few articles of personal equipment are so welcome, for the Gillette is known up and down the Allied lines, by Canadian, Briton and Anzac, Frenchman, Italian and American, as the one sure passport to a clean and enjoyable shave.
Even if he has already had one, the man in whom your hopes centre will be glad to get another Gillette Safety Razor. For under active service conditions, equipment so sought after as the Gillette strays easily and often, and he may now be trying to worry along again without one. So whatever else your box may contain, don't forget a GILLETTE SAFETY RAZOR—and a good supply of blades.
If you prefer, we will take your order, through your dealer or direct, and deliver the razor of your choice from our nearest depot Overseas. Ask your dealer about this when he shows you his Gillette assortment.
Standard Sets and "Bulldogs" cost $5.00—Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets $6.50 up—at Drug, Jewelry and Hardware Stores.
Mails are congested—shipments slow. Send his Gillette early!

Sudden Death of Mr. W. R. Payne

Former Station Master at Newcastle Died Suddenly Saturday

The death occurred suddenly at Moncton on Saturday afternoon of Mr. W. R. Payne, until two years ago station master at Newcastle. The deceased had been ailing since last January, but it was believed his condition was improving. On Saturday afternoon the Rev. W. H. Barclough, pastor of Central Methodist Church, of which the deceased was a member, was calling at his home and Mr. Payne was showing him the Fenian Raid Medals and the I. C. R. long service medal, which he holds, when suddenly he sank back into his chair, never to regain from the paralytic shock.

The deceased was a former I. C. R. station agent, and was in the employ of the railway for a period of thirty-nine years, twenty of which he spent in the capacity of agent at Bathurst and seven years in the same capacity at Newcastle. The late Mr. Payne was superannuated about two years ago and went to Moncton there to spend the remaining days of his life, and had just completed a beautiful home. The deceased was well and favorably known to all railway men on the northern division, as well as to the travelling public, among whom he had a large circle of friends.

Mr. Payne was 67 years of age at his death, and is survived by a widow and three sons, Charles F. Payne, now in Halifax at the ocean terminals; William in the trenches in France; Gordon, in the employ of the G. G. R. and one daughter, Miss Edna, student nurse, in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. A sister, Mrs. Ellen of Bathurst, also survives.

The deceased was a prominent member of Keith Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

Address and Presentation

On her birthday, Monday night, Mrs. E. A. McLean was surprised by the members of the Auxiliary of the W. M. S. and presented with an address and a sum of money in gold. The presentation was made by Mrs. T. J. Jeffrey, and the address, which was as follows was read by Mrs. J. A. Follansbee:

Dear Mrs. McLean:—Another year has sped by, another anniversary of your birthday is here, and we believe it is fitting that we your friends and associates in the work of the Women's Missionary Society, should make the occasion one on which to wish you the very best that the kind Father of us all can bestow on you at this time, and during the years of our life, yet to be fulfilled.

We have met in your home many times before, in our monthly meetings, and on many other occasions, when you have always been to us, the same kind considerate and willing co-worker. Your smile has been to us a benediction you have overlooked our little shortcomings, and oft time failures, and by your kind counsel, and never failing magnanimity, you have stimulated us to greater effort. We have been inspired to press "on, always on!" in the W. M. S. work. We are comforted by the thought that as long as you are with us, you will manifest the same deep interest in us as individuals and in the W. M. S. as an organization.

As a token of our deep appreciation of all your kindnesses we ask you to accept this little gift. It is in itself of very trifling value, but we are confident that you realize it bears with it a wealth of love, and deep sense of sisterhood.

Our sincere wish is that you may be blessed with many more years of life, knowing full well that when done with the things of this mortal existence you will be carried by the angels to that Land so fair, when the sublime word "Faithful" shall be spoken unto you and you shall dwell forever more in the light of His presence.

On behalf of the Auxiliary of the W. M. S. Elizabeth Follansbee, Pres. M. F. Jeffrey, Treas.

Immediately after this presentation, Mrs. T. A. Clarke, on behalf of the Auxiliary, presented Mrs. Follansbee with a life membership certificate. Refreshments were served and the happy gathering broke up with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and the Doxology.

12th BATTERY DRAFTS SOON GOING OVERSEAS

It is expected that a draft will soon be taken from the 65th Battery now at Woodstock, for overseas. It is also said that the other batteries, including the 12th of New Castle, will also supply overseas drafts within a short time. A report from Woodstock says: "There is a rumor that the 65th Battery will proceed overseas at an early date as a unit. The men are now being examined and classified for overseas. It is also rumored that extensive changes will be made in the personnel of the officers before sailing."
