Yet in the sightless eyes the while There seemed some costasy of trance, And on the rigid mouth a smile Of more than life's significance.

They looked upon the painted scene Fraught with the magic of his mind, The outlined purpose, clear and keen, That never now should sequence find.

Alas - they said - his hand is still That shadowed forth the growing though Powerless his subtle brain and will That life to deeper meaning wrought!

Alas! alas! - again they cried -To miss the vision almost found! To fall upon the mountain-side So near the summit glory-crowned! But still the dead eyes gazed before,

Like one who sees the happy end;

And still the face transfigured wore

The look they could not comprehend; For they that o'er him sorrowing bent. And mourned the life too early done, Wist not the smile's pale rapture meant The dream fulfilled, the glory won! -KATE PUTNAM OSGOOD, in Harper's Weekly

NOTICE. | Fresh GARDEN, | AMMAN FIELD.

THE SUBSCRIBER has just received his usual large supply of Garden, [Field and Flower Seeds for the Season of 1890, imported direct from the now celebrated house STEELE BROS., Toronto, whose seeds gave such universal satisfaction last season.

At the meeting of the Farmers' Convention held in this City during the past winter, the President in the course of his remarks said that the Seeds grown by the Steele Brothers Co. of Toronto, were better adapted to the soil and climate of New Brunswick than any other.
