(Continued from Page One.)

of the murder of Edward flights.

previous trial, whereas at this previous witness as to the good reputation of the accused at Stoney Plain.

Did Not See Assailant.

sive language. Joseph Zucht, father of the accused, was of a similar disposition, only rather more drunken in his nade a pass at hit him. Inglish made a pass at and went out to the rear of the hotel. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain his told he would have to remain in his room until the danger period was passed. The doctors told him he would have to remain h and went out to the rear of the hotel. A hammer. He thought he hit him When he returned, Jos. Zucht barred five times, three in succession, and his way and challenged him to fight. It wo afterwards. Just as Inklis drophing was struck by Jos. Zucht and when he tried to return the blow Gus when he tried to return the blow Gus in the side of the head. Witness then left. He later saw him going to the hammer. Inglis dropped in his tracks with the blood streaming from the head with his brother.

Set married.

"Did you ever hear Florence say what Ethel's opinion was about Mr. Wright?"

"She told me," replied Baum, deliberately, "that Ethel had said she had got rid of one husband, but that she would not get rid of another and she was met by physicians, and friends were unavailing. Upon arrival in Grand Forks, what Ethel's opinion was about Mr. Wright?"

She told me," replied Baum, deliberately, "that Ethel had said she had got rid of one husband, but that she would not get rid of another and the protests of physicians, and friends were unavailing. Upon arrival in Grand Forks, what Ethel's opinion was about Mr. Wright?"

She told me," replied Baum, deliberately, "that Ethel had said she had got rid of one husband, but that she would not get rid of another and the protests of physicians and friends were unavailing. Upon arrival in Grand Forks, what Ethel's opinion was about Mr. Wright?"

She told me, "a replied Baum, deliberately," that Ethel had said she had got rid of one husband, but that she would not get rid of another and the physicians and friends were unavailing. Upon arrival in Grand Forks, who dress-had got rid of one husband as the she was met by physicians, and friends were unavailing. The physicians are physicians and friends were unavailing. The physicians are physicians and friends were unavailing. The physicians are physicians and friends were unavailing. The tracks with the blood streaming from a wound in his head. He was assisted to his seat and later on revived.

Ferdinand F. Pilapzki, a freighter that she had to marry Mr. Wright."

Baum had never seen Miss Elliott or superficially, but did not consider it serious. Later in the week, Inglis became worse and Dr. Oatway again attended him. He found the skull to be cracked. He at once sent Inglis to Edmonton to the hospital. He was operated upon by Drs. Duncan Smith, James Biggar and J. A. Wilson, but died shortly afterwards. The Edmonton doctors expressed the used an early close, when all the returns The Edmonton doctors expressed the used an early close, when all the returns the Edmonton doctors expressed the used and provided it is estimated that used and received proper medical control of the was serious."

The witness had never heard of Elliott, or Warburton from Florence, but she had once pointed out a man in a box who might have been Warburton. She had once used a revolver in a sketch on the stage as a joke on Baum. Asked as to her general demeanor, he said there were general demeanor and the sai man-Ker Company at Stoney Plain for the past two years, was the first witness called. He stated that he went to the Royal Hotel shortly after doubtful currency. This could not be packaged with the other coins, but the ment out on the bar. He then went out on the sidewalk and returned in a few minutes to the hall-way of the hotel. He saw Ed.

Detective Pender, the next witness, was unable, he said, to discover any trace of Florence having sung in any church in Richmond. He made an the greater part of it was redeemed. The collecting was a decided success.

Detective Pender, the next witness, was unable, he said, to discover any trace of Florence having sung in any church in Richmond. He made an the greater part of it was redeemed. The collecting was a decided success.

The collecting was a decided success.

A principal of the next witness, was unable, he said, to discover any trace of Florence having sung in any church in Richmond. He made an the packaged with the other coins, but the greater part of it was redeemed. The collecting was a decided success.

The collecting was a decided success. then went out on the side will be seen and returned in a few minutes to the hall-way of the hotel. He saw Ed. Inglis, Jos. Zucht, Gus Zucht and several others in the hall. The accuracy was standing partly behind by $250.

Baltimore City Increases License Fee by $250.

Were untrue. Her manner of life at Virginia Beach was that of a good, respectable by $250.

Were untrue.

Her manner of life at Virginia Beach was that of a good, respectable by $250.

Wells to Miss Kinrade did not take Charles Peebles had a conclusion.

"Inglis turned around and walked these, unable to pay the increased to go to Virginia, having made preon the face. Inglis tried to hit old saloons in the poorer sections. One man Zucht when Gus Zucht struck of these, Paul Krautz, who for forty claw hammer."

Spondent because he was unable to pay the increased licenses that he times and it might have been more," said the witness. "They were pretty said the witness. "They were pretty said the witness."

Spondent because he was unable to pay the increased licenses that he committed suicide today by inhaling the C. P. R. and G. T. R., a number of them being destined for the west.

TO EXAMINE HIM across his face. George Emerson and a man named Wells picked him up and helped him to a chair. I wender into the hall a few minutes after wards and Inglis was standing up. Cross-examined by Mr. Robertso the accused had already been tried and convicted by two justices at Stoney Plain, of assaulting Edward Inglis and had been fined $45 and costs. He argued that as a couse-quence the accused could not be tried on the face and struck Inglis and had been fined $45 and convicted by two justices at Stoney Plain, of assaulting Edward Inglis and had been fined $45 and the face. Inglis tried to retaliate when Gus Zucht, the accused, came in from the street and struck Inglis on the head with a hammer. He struck on the bead with a hammer. He struck the crown's justice, and the necessity of protecting the innocent as well as of pursuing the guilty—altogether combined to build up in the course of his half hour address, an unprecion the course of his half hour address, an unprecion to the face of the struck on the struck of protecting the innocent as well as of pursuing the guilty—altogether tom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan and Portland and Seattle termined to sift the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan and Portland and Seattle termined to sift the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the "North Bank" termined to sift the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the crown's justice, and the necessity of protecting the innocent as well as of pursuing the guilty—altogether tom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the crown's justice, and the necessity of protecting the innocent as well as of pursuing the guilty—altogether tom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments are looked for.

Spokan are the matter to the bottom, and sensational developments a for in the criminal code. The accused stated that Inglis, when in the chair. In cross-examination the witness could not possibly have been convict- had tried to rise and fight Zucht. Wited of the murder of Edward Inglis at ness corroborated the evidence of the other matter.

per of men were gathered in the bar strong of the Royal Hotel at Stoney lis, Dan McLeod and Jos. Zucht in In his evidence, Jimmy Baum said At Risk of His Own Life Husband Florence Kinrade hald told him she Goes to Bedside of Dying Wife.

uəəq əasu ausin əni sin asın nonido the sum collected on tag day will amsaved if he had received proper mediount to $10,300. It was made up of cal treatment immediately after the coins and bills of all denominations. In bills and cheques there were $2,000, you are very much mistaken. Find in silver $8,000, and coppers $4,000. the man who followed her to Norfolk Thomas Porter, agent for the Brak-man-Ker Company at Stoney Plain for and approximately $100 in "phoney Detective Pender, the next witness, Inglis to fight," said the witness. $500 to $750 a year, and many of turned so soon, as she, Ethel, wanted him on the head with an ordinary years kept a saloon became so de-

IN KINRADE CASE

(Continued from Page One.)

they will pursue. They are crossexamining every witness of the Crown closely, and are fighting every inch of the way. It is admitted that Gus Zucht struck Edward Ingles with a cammer at the Royal Hotel on April 3rd and in view of this it is proposble that the defence will rely on the plea of justifiable homicide.

Defence Raises Objection.

Before pleading, Mr. Robertson took exception to the jurisdiction of the accused that the Royal hotel on various occasions on the day of the fight, April and convicted by two justices at mounced plans of the Canadian their hands information to the effect that the houses in question are owned by Mr. R. G. Robinson, but that they with the house in question are owned the close of the examination of the examination of the guarrelsome.
Nothing more eloquent than the adthere are crossthe close of the examination of the witnesses has ever been heard in a canadian court. Mr. Blackstock is a singularly picturesque figure, his grave impressive voice, his calm deliberate manner, his concise and the remains information to the effect that the houses in question are owned by Mr. R. G. Robinson, but that the house in question are owned by Mr. R. G. Robinson, but that the house in question are owned by Mr. R. G. Robinson, but that the house in question are owned by Mr. R. G. Robinson, but that the house in question are owned by Mr. R. G. Robinson, but that the house in question are owned by Mr. R. G. Robinson, but that the house in question are leased from him by a prominent the area of George Tate Blackstock at the close of the examination of the witnesses has ever been heard in a canadian court. Mr. Blackstock is a singularly picturesque figure, his grave impressive voice, his calm the present residents. This information that the hotelman, who if turn sublets them to the present residents. This information that the close of the examination of the witnesses has ever been heard in a canadian court. Mr. Blackstock is
a singularly picturesque figure, his grave impressive voice, his

Mr. Justice Harvey, "I grant that he was tried before, but he certainly was not tried for murder. This matter has been especially provided for in the and with a hammer. He struck three or four blows and Inglis sank to his knees. Two men helped him to a chair and witness then left the declared that the crown had no special theory and he declared that it would be a wanton improprietor. Mr. Blackstock declared that the crown had no special theory and he crown had no special theory and he cons for their actions. attempt to fit the facts to the theory.

The deduction of an inevitable conclusion from certain facts is quite an-trial he may be convicted on some such charge. The offence was the such charge. The offence was the same but the consequences at the time of the former trial were not the same as now. If he could have been convicted before on all of the counts in which he might now be convicted there would then be grounds for an objection to another trial. As it is the hallway. Witness said he saw the fight between these two men and some or excusable homicide.

The demeanor of Florence Kinrade under examination, and her moral irresponsibility was fully and painfully demonstrated and her entire lack of appreciation of the extraordinary effect of her constant contradictions of April 3rd. He saw Ed. Inglis and the wholesale nature of the evidence of fabrications and romantic inventions of which she had been the held with a hammer. Some one was in front of him and he could not see who struck the blow. Inglis dropped on the floor and witness said he went "Not guilty sir," said Zucht without the floor and witness said he went at the floor and witness as to the good reputation of Florence Kinrade under examination, and her moral irresponsibility was fully and painfully demonstrated and her entire lack of appreciation of the extraordinary effect of her constant contradictions and the whole salend and political feeling is intense. During the past with some author, the facility and ease with which she met all kinds of discrepancies with ingenious explanations and romantic form is candidates, met with some stormy receptions. At Western Bay, where he called in, the steamer peopancies with ingenious explanations and indicated the original stories, clearly indicated her mental status and indicated not injured. Not for forty years has The demeanor of Florence Kinrade

Plain. They had been drinking heavily during the afternoon. Among them were Joseph Zucht, father of the accused, and Edward Inglis, the man who was killed. They had been forced to marry a man twice her age and that she had been divorced and that she was trying to get back at him. She hated and the star in the University of North Dadsprenders. About seven o'clock in the evening the men were excluded from the bar. They went into the hall and moment or two Jos. They went into the hall. Inglis came out of the hall the saw out to draw the hall. Inglis went out to draw the said he saw some men carry Lutz, a German, out had been forced to marry a man twice her age and that she had been divorced and that she was trying to get back at him. She hated and despised him; was afraid of him. In the University of North Dadspread hall talking to some Germans. He had a hammer with him and was talking as if he intended to hit some one with it. In a moment or two Jos. Zucht and Inglis are into the hall. Inglis came out of the hall the same out of the hall the bar after he was knocked down. Water was thrown over Lutz to review him. He saw Gus Zucht in the despised him; was afraid of him. In the University of North Dadspread hall talking to some Germans. He had a hammer with him and was talking as if he intended to hit some one with it. In a moment or two Jos. Zucht and Inglis came out of the hall the proving the man had threatened to shoot her and that she was trying to get back at him. She hated and despised him; was afraid of him. In the University of North Dadspread and that she was trying to get back at him. She hated and twice her age and that she was trying to get back at him. She hated and been forced to marry a man twice her age and that she was trying to get back at him. She hated and been forced to marry a man twice her age and that she was trying to get back at him. She hated and been forced to marry a man twice her age and that she was trying to get back at him. She hate and been forced to marry a man twice her age and tainly was serious.'

Find the Man From Norfolk.

Her manner of life at Virginia ITS RELIABILITY door leaning against the corner of the telephone office. Jos. Zucht was near the bar door.

"I heard Jos. Zucht challenging Ed. crease in the cost of licenses from Inglis to fight." said the witness. $500 to $750 a year, and many of

> This was the last witness. 600 Immigrants Reach Toronto.

CALGARY POLICEMAN RESIGNS. Following Investigation of Department by Commissioners.

Calgary, May 1-For some time pas umors have been rife that the commiswas arraigned at the spring assizes before His Lordship Mr. Justice Harvey, charged with the murder of His Lordship Mr. By the sioners were conducting a secret inveswent to favor Miss Kinrade.

Nothing more eloquent than the adther than the houses in question are owned that the houses in question are owned to favor Miss Kinrade.

The sources that the commissioners have in announced plans of the Canadian tinental and is expected to Northern estimate the cost of the expenditure of $20,000,000. The left for the east on Saturation to the effect of the control of the week.

the commissioners interviewed night also refused to give any ad-

PUSHED HIM INTO SEA. Sir Robert Bond Receives Warm Reception at Certain Places. The accused was then asked "are you guilty or not guilty." Said Zucht without a tremor of the voice, in spite of the floor and witness said he went out. When he came in again in about a tremor of the voice, in spite of the serious charge preferred against him. He is following the case closely and eye-witness after eye-witness tells to his hitting Inglis with the hammer, but he displays no nervousness.

Story of the Fight.

For the benefit of the jury, E. B. Cogswell, crown prosecutor, told the story of the fight, which occurred in Story of the fight, which occurred in the went frome.

Alfred S. Roeder, the next witness at the Royal hotel on the product of the property of the Edward Inglis. He stated that a brile of Edward Inglis. He stated that he saw Ed. Inglis who was at the Royal hotel on the product of the product of the property of the Edward Inglis. Dan McLeod and Jos. Zucht in his evidence.

Story of the Fight.

For the benefit of the jury, E. B. Cogswell, crown prosecutor, told the start of the fight, which occurred in the own of the fight, which occurred in the product of the property of the fight.

Alfred S. Roeder, the next witness at the Royal hotel on the product of the property of the Edward Inglis. Dan McLeod and Jos. Zucht in his evidence.

In property of the stated that a bribe of $25,000 had been offered and subjection to the mysterious influences so vaguely and restrictedly recognized as operating in the psychic region of human nature.

Actor Baum's Evidence.

In his evidence.

In his evidence.

In his evidence.

At Riek of His Ones is the death or dischard down to alien into the sea, but at the her original stories, clearly indicated on the effect mental status and indicated the the original stories, clearly indicated that the sea, but the floor indicated that the property of the general type to which she constitutes at the her escitled in the property of the type is well known to alien indicated that the property of the type is well known to alien instead that the property of the type is we started to scrap.

Inglis, when sober, the Crown prosecutor said, was a peaceable man of a kindly disposition. When drunk he was quarrelsome and used abuse to fight?"

Zucht and Ed. linglis came out of the back Tuesday drag her from the stage if she did not come home. She was very much frightened.

was quarrelsome and used abuse to fight?"

was quarrelsome and used abuse to fight?"

was stabbed in the back Tuesday evening by another employee of the not come home. She was very much frightened.

"Did she ever speak of Ethel, her he would have to remain in his room." rightened.

"Did she ever speak of Ethel, her he would have to remain in his room hammer. Inglis dropped in his tracks with the blood streaming from a wound in his head. He was assisted to his seat and later on revived and went out on the street. Later in the evening Inglis and the two Zuchis were arrested, but were released on bail.

On Monday, April 5th, the men were brought up before the magistrate, and the accused and his father were both fined. Dr. Oatway examined Inglis' wound on Monday superficially, but did not consider it as would not get rid of another and she would not get rid of another and the acute of another and the would not get rid of another and the she would not get rid of another and the acute of another and the acute of another and the stee would not get rid of another and the acute of another and the acute of another and the would not get rid of another and the acute of another and the stee would not get rid of another and the acute of another and the acute of another and the she would not get rid of another and the would not get rid of another and the she would not get rid of another and the acute of another and the acute of another and the acute of the previous witnesses as to the exact way in which the fight took place. The case is proceeding this afternoon.

Tag DAY IN WINNIPEG.

Baum, in concluding, said: "If you smypathies of boards of trade, parti-jurymen think she did the murder cularly Montreal and Toronto in the

C. P. R. Laid Off 150 Men.

000,000 packets annually

LEADS. EVERY INFUSION IS DELICIOUS BE-CAUSE THE QUALITY IS THERE SOLD ONLY IN LEAD PACKETS. By All Grocers

CONSCILLA DE LA CONTRACTOR DE LA CONTRAC

MARVELLOUS ACTIVITY RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION

J. Hill, C.P.R. and C.N.R. Have

In pluy empaneted to try the case is composed of H. Bowen foreman). Fred Sache, Al. Brown, Geo. W. Davies, Wm. Howie, A. E. Jackson, The Crown challenged F. J. Fields, Stephen Ecker, and J. K. Jordan and the defence challenged fra A. Fetterly, Frank Pollard, and E. Green.

The counsel for the accused have had time to prevent the defence challenged from the accused when he struck Inglis, but he made no movement to stop him. He did not think the blows.

The construction of their ways.

Zucht Always Behaved Well.

The counsel for the accused have had time to prevent the defence was not as sensaring only a dead silence.

What Crown Wanted.

The open verdict is what the scruck in the struck in the beld, as several parties, see the error of their ways.

The continue the inquiry until, if ever, sufficient evidence to make any moment, begin list unless several parties, see the error of their ways.

The continue the inquiry until, if ever, sufficient evidence to make a may moment, begin list unless several parties, see the error of their ways.

The continue the parties westward to prevent the intendiary origin, due to burglars.

The wites from the accused when he struck Inglis, but he made no move-ment to stop him. He did not think the same ment to stop him. He did not think the sound have had time to prevent the inquiry until, if ever, sufficient evidence to make the inquiry until, if ever, sufficient evidence to make the inquiry until, if ever, sufficient evidence to make the inquiry until, if ever, sufficient evidence to make the will be held, as sevent parties, see the error of their ways.

The continue the parties see the error of their ways.

The continue the parties see the error of their ways.

The would have had time to prevent the hill into think the accuration of the induity of the same of the counting to present plans, on the counting to present plans, on the counting to present plans, on the counting to prevent the induity of the same of the induity of the counting to prevent the wide to burglans of the par

Pacific, and through them with the Burlington and Colorado and South-ern roads, adds greatly to the transportation facilities to the West and places the Columbia River basin in nuch closer touch than ever before he Rocky Mountains.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND WATERPROO OILED GARMENTS are cut on large patterns-designed to give the wearer LIGHT-DURABLE CLEAN SE SURE THE GAINERT YOU HAVE

Are responsible for ITS

ENORMOUS SALE of 18,

Bunches from noises of Casalian As a Human Remedy for Rheumatism. Sprains, Sore Throat, etc., it is invaluable. Every bottle of Caustic Balsam cold is Every bottle of Caustic Balsam old is a Warranted to give satisaction. Price $1.50 use in a minute.

> The I. H. C. gasoline engine is a power that is always ready at your hand. It is not necessarily stationary, like the windill, and on that account adapted to doing only one kind of work. styles-there are portable engines on trucks and skidded engines which can be moved wherever the work is to be done. Then here are stationary engines, both vertical and horizontal, in sizes from 1 to 25-horse-power, air cooled and water cooled, and o gasoline traction engines 15 and 20-horse-power. Beides, there are special sawing, ying and pump which you can select an outfit. the home office.

CANADIAN BRANCHES: Brendon, Calgory, Edmonton, Hamilton, London, Montreal, Ottawa, Regina, Suskatoon, St. John, Winnipeg International Harvester Company of America, Chicago, U.S.A.

FIRED AT C.P.R EXPRESS. Bullet Broke Window and Buried It self in Side of Dining Car. Calgary, May 3-While the eastern rain was passing through Calgary unction last night a bullet from the shot was fred at about 8 p.m... Will stores and offices being com-bot only does this con-to the police as soon as the train ar seventy thousand dollars, partly

DISASTROUS FIRE IN NORTH BAY SUNDAY

> New Business Block Completely Destroyed—Loss is $70,000—Suspi-cion That it Was of Incendiary Origin-Investigation to be Held.

let whistled through the air right by this morning North Bay was visited on improved farms at current rate of interest Agents wanted in unrepresented districts. Good, reliable and energetic men only wanted, to whom good commissions on loans effected will be paid.

MONEY TO LOAN

Apply to KILGOUR & LITTLE

Provincial Managers The Standard Trusts Company

EDMONTON or to Wm. Harvey, Managing Director, The Standard Trusts Company, Winnipeg

How a Reliable Engine Economizes Labor

F course, you, like other farmers, want to economize sign so that they can be easily your time. Think in how many places a power would be a help to you— would save time and work—if you had it in a handy form ready for Think how much hard work it ald save you in cutting feedin sawing wood, posts or poles— in running the cream separator or churn-in operating shop or greater strength than would greater strength than would safety, inasmuch as they have are not clumsy or too heavy. All parts are accessible and easily removed and reassembled. per cent of power in excess of its ing-you get more power than you pay for.

They are absolutely reliabledetail. They are unusually ecr less than a pint of gasoline er horse-power per hour. This means that a 2-horse power engine will produce full 2-horse power for five hours on only one gallon of gasoline. you to investigate and learn how an I. H. C. engine will save time and lighten the labor on you International local agents will

They are strong and durable-supply you with catalogs. Call on them for particulars, or write

WITH

FARM NOTES. A meeting of the Alberta F on May 7th in the Richardson. an annual convention in M on May 13th for the election and general business.

WHEAT SEEDING SA Winnipeg, May 3-Report by the Ogilvie Flour Mills from their agents and buyer from 20 to 25 per cent seeded and under circumstances, The re ing increased the mois ed hed. As the who cally all prepared, with orable summer weathering will be largely co middle of the month. T spectors estimate th wheat at 7,500,660, ner cent, on last ve inknown amount of districts may increas

* COMMERCIAL MARK

 TUESDAY'S GRAIN MAR

Winnipeg, bles came decrease in the The continued seeding in the C foreign crop summ wheat producing various countried, but on the as . last week. opened strong port demand a for Nos. 2 and : was active. The clos and 1% for October kets were strong an July was especially ed 2 over Monday: Offer market were reporte September wheat was cago did not show so Minneapolis, but market nevertheless hand. July closed 23. ber showed a range of tually closed only % ov

Winnipeg cash wheat—No. 1.23%; No. 2 Norther No. 3 Northern, 1.18½; No. No. 5, 1.05; No. 6, 94; No. rejected 1-1 Northern, 1.193 Northern, 1.131/2; rejected thern, 1.171/2; rejected 2-2 1.1412; rejected 2-3 Norther jected 1 Northern for seed ected 2 Northern for s Winter wheat-No. 1 Al Oats-No. 2 white, 44%

white, 43%; feed, 43%; Barley-No. 3, 58; No. 4 Flax-No. I Northwestern. Manitcha 1.36 Winnipeg 1.21%, 1.23%; July 1.22%, 1 Oats-May 44%, 44%; J 46¼; October 39, 39. Flax-May 1.381/2, 1.381/2. American options

1.17, 1.18; July 1.12, 1.16; § 1.63%, 1.05%. Minneapolis — May 1.24%. July 1.24, 1.26%; Septem

WEDNESDAY'S GRAIN MA Winnipeg, May 5 .- Marke higher this morning on f continued good weath United States and Canadi west eased prices off again close. Liverpool closed higher; Chicago unchanged lower; Minneapo'is % to Winnipeg % to % lower. remains quite strong, but t futures show some decline.

Winnipeg closing prices
tures—May 1.23½, July 1.24

1.05, May oats 44%, June July 46½, October 38½, Cash grain-No. 1 Northe No. 2 Northern, 1.20%; No. ern, 1.18%; No. 4, 1.12½; 1.04%; No. 6, 93½; feed, 85 Alberta red, 1.20½; No. red, 1.19½; No. 3 Alberta r Oats—No. 2 Canadian wes No. 3 Canadian western, 43 feed, 44; No. 2 feed, 43. jected, 51; feed, 50;

No. 1 Manitoba, 1.361/2.

CHICAGO GRAIN MAR Chicago, May 4.-Big mon in easy reach of the longs wheat. Longs who purch sized lines less than a wee who have continued since. The speculater and "reason" for a tim side of July wheat is not at the mement as It may possibly adv higher level tomorro ment in the way of will take heav buying to offset th an easy matter ishment received by These bulls bought v best prices reached market would skyward movement sudden change in the ever, and a sensation values was the next While conditions at vastly different from ing the wheat marke sensational price b from the present le probabilities. It is li wheat will reach $1.20 future and that it will e at a premium over the reached by the May

there will be setbrcks importance during the bull in July, which is now in ear