Evening Telegram

W. J. HERDER, - - Proprietor
W. F. LLOYD, - - - - Editor

SATURDAY, October 26, 1912.

A Warning.

In the past, we have passed by many defamatory attacks made by the Hon. P. T. McGrath on our private character and professional standing. We have preferred so far to treat them with contempt. Yesterday the latest of these appeared in the Chronicle. By hint, suggestion and innuendo the public are advised that we are incapable of earning our living and on our way to the Poor House as an imbecile. The University title we worked for and won is degraded by italicizing and collating it with the nickname of "Dr." Neal, who is said to be in the Poor Asylum. The public are told we are "full to the bung" when we write our articles, and generally the suggestion is conveyed to the public that we are a chronic drunk, who should be in the Penitentiary or Lunatic Asylum, and is incapable of conducting a newspaper or law work, or doing any work to earn a living, and who is bound to finish his career in the Poor Asylum. All these statements, suggestions, hints and innuendo are false and defamatory. For nearly nine years we have edited the Evening Telegram, which has continued to grow in size, circulation and importance by leaps and bounds during that period. For ten years we were Vice-Principal of Bishop Feild College, and during the interval served an apprenticeship as law student with Sir William Whiteway and Sir Wm. Horwood. During our residence lived respectably and earned our living, and during that time have never been absent from work one hour.

from alcoholic indulgence or other misconduct. As to the statement that we were "full to the bung" when we wrote the article which appeared in the Evening Telegram on Thursday, it is an absolute and unqualified falsehood. We are not teetotal. But for four weeks preceding that time we had drunk only two glasses of spirits. During 36 hours before that time we had drunk only one glass of a beverage made of light beer and lemonade, and that was some twenty hours before the period of writing.

We admit we have given Mr. McGrath some immunity in the past by passing by such attacks. We therefore right here give him fair warning as to the future. We shall not pass by any express statement, hint, suggestion or innuendo that we are a chronic drunk, "full to the bung" when we write, or any statement calculated to injure us in our occupation or profession, either as a journalist or lawyer. Whether we set to devote our energy to journalism or law, or in what proportion to either, is none of Mr. McGrath's business. It is purely a private matter. We have worked for and obtained our titles in law from universities and the Nfld. Law Society. What we elect to do with them is our business and not his. We do not propose to permit in future without challenging them in the law courts any such statements as "We are sorry we cannot nominate him previously referred to as 'Dr.' Lloyd) for the Poor House. 'Dr.' Neal is there already."

If we have been careless of such defamation in the past, we propose to be more careful in the future; and we warn Mr. McGrath that any attacks capable of creating the impression that we are a "drunk," incapable as an editor, or a lawyer, incapable from lack of knowledge or misconduct or mental imbecility of doing legal work will be followed by the institution of legal proceedings.

Saved Boy's Life.

At 9.30 this morning X. Finney of the West End saved the life of a boy named Snelgrove who was in the water between J. J. Mullaly & Co.'s and Angelo's wharves. The man had just come out of the shed when he noticed the boy's head just above water. He had gone down repeatedly and no one but Finney saw him at the time. Being a strong swimmer the man jumped overboard and grasping the lad swam with him in the water until he reached the shore. When he first reached the lad he clung to his rescuer's arms so tenaciously that the man had to hit him between the eyes to make him release his grasp. The boy was much exhausted and both were chilled from their immersion.

Schrs. Collide.

The schr. Messenger, Capt. Legrow, left here laden with provisions, etc., Thursday night for Broad Cove, T. B., in company with schooner owned by a man named Belmont. Both ran under easy canvas when it began to get stormy and Belmont decided to run back to port, when the other vessel which was bound to Scilly Cove shot across her there was a heavy crash as the schooners came together and the Messenger was split in two and water poured into the hull. The accident occurred off Quidi Vidi and the men on board the damaged schooner worked before pumps with such energy that they got her safely back to port and she was hauled up at Pitts' wharf. All the freight has been taken out of her and is being transferred to the schr. "Passover" to be taken to Broad Cove. But for the fact that her cargo was mostly owned by poor people who had no insurance on the goods the crew would have abandoned the vessel.

Bonaventure in Port

FROM FRUIT TRADE.

The S. S. Bonaventure, Capt. Cross, arrived in port at 12.30 to-day from Sydney with a load of coal for A. Harvey & Co. The Bonaventure was engaged for four months in southern waters running between Boston, West Indies and South American ports and brought over a dozen cargoes of fruit, giving every satisfaction to the people who chartered her. She left Boston on Saturday last for Sydney and left the latter port four hours ahead of her consort, the "Bonaventure." All the crew of the "Bon" are well and to-day were examined by Dr. Campbell and given a clean bill of health.

Schooner Dorothy Lost.

CREW ARRIVES.

By the s.s. Prospero, which arrived from the northward to-day, there came a shipwrecked crew. They told a Telegram reporter that they belonged to the schr. Dorothy, which went ashore at Cape Fogo Thursday afternoon during a thick fog. The Dorothy was bound from Twillingate to Fogo to load fish. At the time the vessel struck the shore there was a heavy sea running and soon she was almost dashed to pieces on the rocks. The crew barely escaped in boats and had a difficult time getting ashore. They went to Fogo, where they joined the Prospero, which steamer was coming south. The Dorothy was a staunch English new vessel and was owned by Mr. W. O. Morris, of Port Maddock, England. This vessel was an ideal fish carrier, and lessens the number of our foreign sailing fleet, which is fast dwindling away.

Unconscious Again.

We learn with regret to-day that Miss Lizzie Martin, daughter of Mr. Arthur Martin, of the G. P. O., is again dangerously ill. Miss Martin was for days insensible as the result of a fall over the stairway of her brother-in-law's residence at Bell Island, but revived and was thought to be making good progress towards recovery. Yesterday she again became unconscious, and was in the father left for the island last evening.

Prospero Back.

The S. S. Prospero, Capt. A. Keau, arrived back from northern ports this forenoon, bringing a full freight and the following passengers:

Messrs. J. L. Croucher, Clarke, Saunders, Hillier, Pilgrim, Evans, Hutton, McGrath, Osmond, L. Winsor, A. Winsor, G. H. Pearce, Robinson, Norman, Budgett, Moores, Gillett, Barrett, King, Toraville, Keats, Battstone, Barnes, Messadams, Clarke, Taylor, Elliott, Bishop, White, Fowling, Butt, Misses Burt, King, Payne, Watton, Ridout, Cole, Emberley (2), and 123 in steerage.

GOOD WORK DONE.—There is no denying the fact that first-class work, good material and prompt delivery of some of the business principles of the Tailoring and Cleaning and Pressing Business conducted by SPURRELL, Bros., and it will pay you to have them attend to the care of your garments. A Silk Velvet or Melton Collar and a good pressing will give your overcoat the appearance of a new one. SPURRELL BROS., 365 Water Street, Taylor, Elliott, Bishop, White, Fowling, Butt, Misses Burt, King, Payne, Watton, Ridout, Cole, Emberley (2), and 123 in steerage.

Fined for Discharging Gun

The man who discharged the gun several times in Boat House Lane a few nights ago, frightened people in the neighborhood and caused injuries to his son, was summoned before Judge Conroy to-day and was fined ten dollars as well as the confiscation of the firearm. But that the accused was under the influence of liquor at the time the penalty would have been more severe.

A Long Delayed Letter.

A young man of the city recently received a letter from Labrador of an important nature and which required a prompt answer. It arrived here on the 2nd inst., and he did not receive it until the 24th. It was stamped at the Post Office as being received on the 2nd, and the stamp for delivery was placed on it on the 24th. He would like to know the cause of the long delay in delivering the missive.

Mr. R. G. McDonald will Lecture in St. Mary's Hall, South Side, Wednesday, Oct. 30th, at 9.15. Doors open at 8.30. Admission 10c. Everybody welcome. Subject: "Temperance." Oct 26, 21

Personal.

Mr. F. W. Pincock leaves by the Florizel this evening and will take a prominent position in Toronto.

Mr. T. J. Farrell, formerly of Revere, Mass., who has been residing in the States the past 18 years, arrived a few weeks ago to see his friends. For the past 10 years he has occupied the position of Station Agent on the New York, New Haven and Connecticut Railway. His sister leaves with him by the Florizel this evening.

Those Corns

How are You Trying to End Them?

Is it by paring? That is useless and dangerous.

It removes just the top layer, and a slip of the blade may mean infection.

All the petty methods of mere relief last only a little while.

There is now only one treatment used by people who know.

That is a Blue-jay plaster. It gives instant relief. But more than that, it removes the corn.

You apply it in a jiffy, then forget it. Within 48 hours the whole corn loosens and comes out. No pain, no soreness, no inconvenience.

Every month a million corns are ended forever in this way, while you let your corns keep on.

A famous chemist invented this wax to end corn troubles. Why not get the benefit—today.

A in the picture is the soft B & B wax. It loosens the corn. B protects the corn, stopping the pain at once. C wraps around the toe. It is narrowed to be comfortable. D is rubber adhesive to fasten the plaster on.

LONDON, Oct. 25. Mukhtar Pasha, son of the grand Vizier, who commanded the fortress of Kirk Kilissah, was captured by the Bulgarians, as well as Prince Abdul Halim, and several generals.

SPECIAL EVENING TELEGRAM.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 25. Stories of desperate hand-to-hand fighting between the Bulgarians and Turks, are told in all the newspapers despatches reaching here from Adrianople. Great losses were sustained by both armies in the battles around the city on Tuesday and Wednesday. Bayonets were used freely in the fight for the possession of the

Delicious "Syrup of Fig" Torpid Liver

If headachy, bilious, dizzy, tongue coated, stomach sour and full of acid, you feel indigestion and feel sick and miserable, it means that your liver is choked with sour bile and your bowels decay into poisons, gases and acids and that these poisons are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

Most people dread physic. They think of castor oil, salts and cathartic pills. They shrink from the after effects—so they postpone the dose until they get sick; then they do this liver and bowel cleansing in a heroic way—they have a bowel wash—
