From the Front.

OFFICIAL.

LONDON, July 27.

The Governor, Newfoundland: The India Office report enemy's positions captured in Mesopotamia; Turkey evacuating Naxos; eleven guns, two machine guns and many hundreds of prisoners taken.

No important news from France. The Russian Government report the Germans thrown back on the Narva. Engagements began with advance on the defenses of Novo Georgievsk. Enemy attacks advanced to the works in Viengorod were repulsed. Between Viengorod and the Bug, the battle continues very fiercely, but little change on this point.

ST. PIERRE BULLETIN.

OFFICIAL.—In Artos cannonading has lessened. Several shells of heavy calibre were fired on Arras in Champagne on the Perthes and Basse-Jour front and at Yauquois, mining operations to our advantage, fierce cannonading at Le Pretre Wood. Pontonnage has been commenced on the river who also shelled several times positions they lost at Ban de Sapt.

ROME.—On the lower Isonzo after an effective artillery preparation our infantry advanced, realizing substantial progress. Our Western wing captured a large wood called Bosco del Caputo. From the centre we secured several lines of trenches. To the right Monte dei sei Busti was captured and lost several times. Finally the greatest part remained in our possession. The struggle was characterized everywhere by the greatest determination. The enemy used asphyxiating bombs. We captured 20 officers and 1,600 men. There is nothing to report on the remainder of the front.

SUBMARINE ACTIVITY.

LONDON, July 27. Four British trawlers, a Norwegian steamer and a Danish steamer have been sunk by German submarine. The crews were saved.

RUSSIANS HOLDING THEIR OWN.

PETROGRAD, July 27. German attacks, South East of Pultusk, have been driven back, but they are battering at advanced defences of Novo Georgievsk, according to an official statement issued at headquarters.

Will make the German flank safer, but, as has often occurred lately, Berlin officially reports "otherwise position of German troops under Von Mackensen remains unchanged." Along the western bank of the Vistula, from Ivangorod to Novo Georgievsk, even less progress apparently has been made, while along the Narva, where Von Hindenburg has been directing operations in an effort to drive a wedge behind the city, he is now largely occupied in meeting two counter-attacks. These attacks, according to Petrograd, have succeeded in forcing the Germans, who had crossed the river, to return to the northern bank on several points. Berlin asserts that they completely failed, and that the German force is advancing in an easterly direction. The Russians who were defeated in the Baltic Provinces recently, have also turned, according to the Berlin official report, and have delivered an attack from Mitau, which, however, was repulsed. Further south, the Germans continue their advance eastward toward the Vilna-Petrograd railway, but there is a lot of territory to cover before this is reached, and it is considered more likely that General Von Buelow, who is in command here, will turn south-west and threaten the Russian armies which are facing Von Hindenburg everywhere. The battles are now at their height, especially the one in which Von Mackensen is engaged, and all military critics believe that this is the most critical in the campaign, for the whole German plan depends upon his reaching the Lublin-Chelm railway.

With interest largely centred in the east, the important offensive of the French in Alsace has been almost disregarded. They report to-night another success north of Metz, which apparently is their objective, and the repulse of a series of German counter-attacks. The French have concentrated a lot of artillery in this region with high explosives, and have been simply tearing up the German defensive works which are among the strongest along the whole line.

Artillery is likewise playing an important part in the battle on the Isonzo where the Italians are reported to have concentrated for three days their fire on the Austrian positions. This fire is said to have exceeded in violence that which the Austrians have employed against the Russians in Western Galicia, which, up to that time, was the most terrific ever experienced in war.

THE GERMAN SUBMARINE.

LONDON, July 27. Apparently determined to demoralize the British sea supply as much as possible, two German submarines appeared suddenly among the shipping fleet off the North Coast of Scotland, and by shell fire sunk nine trawlers—Rosslyn, Celtic, Cyrona, Cadwell, Strathmore, Honoris, Cassie, Hermon, Sutton. In each case, in spite of vigorous shell fire from German underwater boats, the crews of fishermen escaped without injury, although the men of the Honoris and the crew of the Sutton died. The boats for forty and forty-five hours respectively, before being picked up. All the men were landed safely to-day. Many other fishing boats were forced to take refuge in the northern harbors. Some of the fishermen declare that the Germans on board the submarines spoke in English. In one case they shouted out to the British sailors, "We have nice little torpedoes here for Winston Churchill and Foreign Secretary Grey."

BRITAIN'S GOLD.

LONDON, July 27. The best method of economizing gold for individual circulation is engaging the attention of Reginald McKenna, Chancellor of the Exchequer, who is desirous that the public utilize currency notes so far as possible. No steps will be taken to interfere with legitimate exports of gold. Mr. McKenna told the Commons this afternoon, but he adopted the method of mobilizing war resources as when required for the purpose of foreign exchanges. The question was raised in Parliament by a questioner asserting that quantities of British gold were daily taken to the Continent by travellers. Boulogne was infested with German agents engaged in buying gold coins. McKenna promised that travellers hereafter would be more closely scrutinized.

DANISH STEAMER SUNK.

COPENHAGEN, July 27. The Danish steamer Nøglil, bound from Gothenburg, Sweden, for the River Tyne, laden with railway ties, was sunk in the North Sea by a German submarine. The crew landed at Wilhelmshaven. The name Nøglil does not appear on any available maritime records.

SECRETARY OF STATE LANSING RECEIVES COMPLAINT.

WASHINGTON, July 27. Secretary of State Lansing to-day received a complaint from "The Pa-therland," a German paper published in New York, that Sir Cecil Spring Rice, the British Ambassador, had been party to violations of the neutrality laws in recruiting for the British Army and in returning Montenegrins for service. The complaint follows the action of the Ambassador in suggesting to the State Department that the paper in question, in forecasting the destruction of Lusitania, has been guilty of foreknowledge of a crime.

HAYTIAN MASSACRE.

PORT AU PRINCE, July 27. General Oscar, Governor of Port au Prince, and a supporter of President Guillaume, caused to be executed at the time of the outbreak of the revolutionary movement in this city, all political prisoners in the hands of the Government, to the number of one hundred and sixty men. The victims of this massacre included General Orteses Zamor, the former President Hayti, who was driven out of the country last year, but returned in March, 1915, when he was made a prisoner. When the people of Port au Prince heard of this massacre there was a general outbreak of indignation. The mob invaded the Dominican Legation, where General Oscar took refuge, and after the unsuccessful defense of the Presidential Palace against the rebels, they seized Oscar, and dragged him before the doors of the Legation, where he was promptly executed by a fusillade of rifle shot. The mob, excited to a great degree, then turned on the French Legation, and threatened to invade the building to compass the execution of President Guillaume. The latter took refuge under the flag of France this morning, after he had been compelled to flee before the rebel attacks.

STEAMERS RELEASED.

LONDON, July 27. The Greek steamer Malcas from New York for Piræus, Greece, which had been held at Gibraltar for examination of certain items in her cargo, has been released. The Danish steamer States, bound from New York on July 15th for Christiania and Copenhagen, which was held at Kirkwall, has also been released.

GERMANS BLAMED.

SPAINFORTH, Ont., To-Day.—German sympathizers are blamed for what is considered a deliberate attempt to burn the warehouse of the Ogilvie Milling Company, containing 20,000 bushels of wheat, here at noon yesterday. The fire was discovered by workmen, who on investigation found oily waste secreted under the building. There was little damage.

ITALIAN ADVANCE PROGRESSES.

GENEVA, To-Day.—All trains from Gorizia have been reserved for troops, ammunition and food supplies. It is believed workmen have been ordered to cease strengthening the fortifications. Every measure has been taken for a great retreat. At Dobordo, the Austrian troops guarding the route to Trieste have been unable to hold their positions. On Carzo Plateau, with the exception of a few trenches, the Italians have captured the entire Plateau. The Austrians losing 2,000 men in two days here. Wedding Bells.

HORWOOD—BLACKMORE.

A very pretty wedding took place at Pilley's Island on the 20th inst., when Mr. Charles W. Horwood, band master of S.A. band, No. 2, this city, and Adj. Lucinda Blackmore, daughter of Mr. Joseph Blackmore, Pilley's Island, were made man and wife. The ceremony was performed by Brigadier Morehen, in the presence of a large circle of friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Lillian Blackmore, and the groom was supported by her brother, Mr. Percy Blackmore. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Orange Hall which was tastefully decorated. Mr. and Mrs. Horwood are spending a week at Pilley's Island, arrived in the city by Monday's express, and have taken up residence on Leslie Street. Miss Blackmore has been an officer in the Army for sixteen years, and Mr. Horwood has been a member of the same for about fourteen years. Many useful and valuable presents were received by the newly-wedded couple from their friends. The Telegram joins in the felicitations extended and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Horwood many years of wedded happiness.

Reception at Litledale.

On Monday last, the Feast of St. Anne, Miss Belle Rawlins and Miss Mary Macnamara received the white veil at Litledale Convent. The former young lady, who is a sister of Rev. J. J. Rawlins, Cape Breton, took the name of Sister Mary Aloysius, and Miss Macnamara will be known in religion as Sister Mary Alphonsus. His Grace the Archbishop officiated and addressed the young ladies on the meaning of the religious vocation. He impressed on the postulants the solemnity of the step they were about to take, and solemnly declared that they were bound to return to the world if they found that they had no true calling to the religious life. After the Reception His Grace imported Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Here and There.

KYLE'S PASSENGERS.—The Kyle arrived at Port aux Basques at 7 a.m. to-day with the following passengers in saloon: Mrs. M. Chapman, Mrs. E. Whiteway, Mrs. J. Pike, John Yeo, F. P. Thompson, B. J. McGarry, P. R. Chappell and J. F. McKenzie.

SIX-MILE RACE.—This afternoon's six-mile road race is being eagerly looked forward to. Ten competitors will face the starter. Some of our best known long distance runners have entered. Kavanagh and Bell are looked upon as the favorites, but a few, but the crowd contend that the "dark horse" has got to be reckoned with. According to the time made in training, it is expected that all previous records will be broken.

SLOVENLY WORK.

I hired a man to do some chores, to polish up the whole outdoors, and trim the bearded lawn; he seemed to work well, I paid him cheerfully a wheel, but when he was gone, for everything he did was wrong, and I must toil a whole day long, to make his blunders straight, and neighbors, seated 'neath their vines, could hear me quote impassioned lines, could hear my molars grate. Oh, industry is splendid stuff, but if you'd win it's not enough, unless it's backed by sense; employers say, "Such men we dread—they're too much sawdust in the head, their intellect's too dense." You'll find some chaps in every grad who say that Fortune treats them bad, they do not get their dues; they're always keeping down to tasks, they work so hard they sprain their backs, and wear out many shoes. No odds how eagerly they prance, they don't like other lads, advance but all the goose eggs snail; their heads are merely knobs on which to hang their glasses, lids and such—not package of brain.

White velvetten will wash beautifully. Knead and squeeze quickly in a warm lather, then rinse first in tepid, then in cold water. Wring and shake; then iron on the wrong side on a thickly padded ironing board. When using the typewriter and making carbon copies, the carbon paper sometimes wears out. Cut off one end about the width of the typewriter space; you will then get the use of the spaces between the lines.
