and produce the most laughable Irish comedy sketches; their various acts are full of comical situations, witty and bright. The female impersonator in his specialty with his magnificent costumes will delight all. The pictures are very good indeed. Miss At-

Wedding Bells.

SCÉVIOUR-LAHEY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's Church at 8.30 last evening, the contracting parties being Mr. Walter Scévior, of the Reid Nfld. Co., and Miss Ste Lahey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas La-hey, of the Cabot Hotel, Water Street.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
Fr. Pippy in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was becomingly attired in blue satin and was attended by his sister, Miss Monica Lahey, while Mr. Edward Lahey, brother of the bride, supported the groom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents where a large number of guests had assembled. After the usual honours had been done the happy young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Scévior, drove to their future residence, 2 Burke's Square.
The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. The Telegram extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Scévior, and wishes them many happy years of wedded life.

INDUSTRIAL FAIR.—Last night the Mechanics' Industrial Fair was continued and attended with even greater success than the opening night. The attendance of visitors was larger and the ladies in charge of the stalls and refreshments did a lively business. To-night the remainder of the goods will be disposed of by auction. The Fair will close with a dance at which the C.C.C. band will be present.

Gas the Beneficent Spirit.

The nightly hot bath is the children's joy, and a pleasure to their nurse also, provided that its preliminaries do not involve wordy warfare with an indignant cook who requires the kitchen fire for her own purposes. All such trouble is obviated by the installation of a gas water-heater, which solves the hot water problem once for all.

It is as great a boon to the master of the house who wants to shave in a hurry as to the hockey-playing daughter who comes in tired and muddy, or to the nurse whose baby charge shows signs of a threatened chill. Such symptoms often yield before the simple remedies of an immediate hot bath and a night passed in a room well warmed and at the same time ventilated by a gas fire. Where gas is the family friend, there health, peace and contentment should reign supreme.

Your Neck Tells Your Age.

There is nothing about a woman's appearance that tells her age so surely as her neck, and when it is beautiful it is one of her most seductive charms. Why is it that so many women who take the greatest care of their complexions and their appearance generally, will not look beneath the chin for faults to correct?

If your neck is scrawny cocoa butter is efficacious in filling out the hollows. Rub it all off with a clean cloth when you have finished the massage and apply a little pure powder to keep from soiling the neckbands of your waists. In drying and rubbing the neck always rub from the top down.

If your neck is brown or discolored there are number of good remedies that may be used to bleach it.
There is nothing better, however, than lemon juice and water. One woman I know who has a lovely neck, always keeps a half lemon on her washstand. Just before she dries her neck every morning, she merely rubs a little lemon juice on it.

Tight collars are responsible for many unsightly necks. When you consider how close the connection is between the brain and the rest of the body, it surely does not seem a wise policy to place any restriction about the neck which might interfere with the circulation of the blood to the brain, or tend to check proper breathing. It is so delightful to feel that the neck is free and to feel the fresh air upon it.
