ADVOCATE LIES NAILED.

Great Reception at Catalina.

CATALINA, April 28.

The Advocate of lies printed relative to the arrival of

Bradley and Hodder at Catalina is most typical of the language used by the people who control that the Opposition committee of nearly all the voters of this island. The building of an arch was included in the meeting was held Saturday night, fully 300 present. Speeches were given by Walter Carter, S. W. Hoddinott,

K. Oakley, John White, Frank Dewey

and I assure you the broken promise by the present Government was fully exposed. Greenspond is two to one for Monroe, Winsor and Little.

Out of about 330 voters Bennett party will poll 240 votes. Numbers are flocking to our standard daily.

Ten more were added to our roll at the meeting. Men who had just returned from the Seal Fishery did not wait to change their clothes, but came forward to add their name to the roll. Count on three men for Bonavista Bay for Bennett.

S. W. HODDINOTT,

Secretary.

WINTERTON WILL RETURN STONE

BRADLEY AND HODDER.

HEART'S CONTENT, April 30.

Pulled off very enthusiastic meeting at Winterton Saturday night, people apparently are everywhere crying for BENNETT AND BETTER

TIMES.—COR.

GRATE'S COVE IN LINE FOR BET-

TER TIMES.

GRATE'S COVE, April 30.

Grate's Cove 90 per cent. for Crosbie and Fiddister. Best public meeting ever held. Victory certain.

JAMES AVERY.

BAINE HR., April 30.

Walsh, Sullivan and Sinnott arrived here this morning from Oderin and Rushoon and were given a wonderful reception. This section 100 per cent for Bennett and Better Times. Hurrah for Bennett and prosperity, hurrah for Walsh, Sullivan and Sinnott.—COR.

BELLEORAM WELCOMES OUTER-

BRIDGE.

BELLEORAM, April 30.

Outerbridge held a meeting here on Friday night. M. Fudge, chairman.

The meeting was the best held here for years and the enthusiasm shown proves that Coakerism is dead in this District. Mr. Outerbridge outlined the Bennett Policy and was given cheer after cheer. Belleoram will give Outerbridge great support.—

COR.

OUTERBRIDGE AT ST. JACQUES.

BELLEORAM, April 30.

Outerbridge and Warren held a joint meeting here on Saturday night.

E. D. Elliott was chairman. Warren spoke mainly on Humber Deal, but could not answer any questions concerning it. He also failed miserably when he tried to explain the Government's squandering of the past 3 and ½ years. Mr. Outerbridge's speech showed up clearly the maladministra-tion of the present political misfit.

Outerbridge's speech made a big impression and he was loudly applauded. St. Jacques will give a big vote for Outerbridge and BENNETT AND

BETTER TIMES.—COR.

ADVOCATE FALSEHOODS.

Sam Elliott did not Sign Report.

CATALINA, April 30.

Report of Stone's meeting here appearing in the Advocate of the 28th over the signature of Sam Elliott, chairman of Council is absolutely false as committee invited him to committee room and he denied ever seeing the report neither did he sign it any more than a man in France;

these are his own words.

TWILLINGATE, To-day.

The glad assuring news from centre to circumference of this district is that Ayre, Peters and Short will head the poll on May 3rd. Their triumphant march is increasing and echoes of next Thursday's victory are already sounding. The batches of vile literature that are being circulated throughout this district is clear evidence of the desperate and Wedding Bells.

MILLER-ADAMS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of England Cathedral at 7 o'clock this morning by the Rev. J. Brinton, when Mr. R. W. Miller, second eldest son of Mr. Joseph Miller, and agent for the Motor Union Insurance Company, led to the altar Miss Ruth Adams, fifth daughter of Mr. Geo. J. Adams. The bride entered the Church leaning on the arm of her father and looked very charming in a large costume with a picture hat, wearing a black fur. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Adams and Miss Blanche Miller, sister of the groom, they also looked charming in dresses of flame with black picture hats. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. George R. Adams brother of the bride. The reception was held at the West End Restaurant where a recherche breakfast was served to a party of forty, being the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The health of the bride was proposed by Rev. J. Brinton and responded to by the groom, who then proposed the health of the bridesmaids and was responded to by the bridesmaids. The Hon. John Davy proposed the health of the bridegroom in a very able manner and was responded to by Mr. Miller. The health of the bride's parents was proposed by Mr. R. G. Ash and was responded to by the bride's father. The party then motored to the station, where the happy couple joined the morning express for Holyrood, where the honeymoon will be spent. The presents received were numerous and testified the popularity of the bride and groom.
