Guelph, Nov. 23d, 1873.

Guelph Evening Mercury

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 24, 1873.

On Saturday, at 1 o'clock, the nominations for Lennox county came off at Napanee. The occasion was one of considerable interest, owing to the determined attempts which are being made in the County to at least reduce Mr. Cartwright's majority considerably, if not defeat him altogether—an unlikely result, the last. The interest was heightened by the presence of Sir John A. Macdonald. The gathering of voters was unprecedentedly large; they had come from all parts of the County, some from a distance of thirty miles; and it is estimated that about 3,000 were present. The proceedings were therefore held out doors. Although the day was bitterly cold, with occasionally falling snow, the political enthusiasm of these Lennox men kept most of them at the meeting until its close at six o'clock. The reporters had hard times of it. Speeches were delivered by Hon. Mr. Cartwright, Mr. Edmund Hooper, the Opposition candidate, Mr. A. M. De Roche, M. P. P., and Sir John Macdonald. Sir John's speech, "was continued until long after the shades of night, and frozen fingers precluded the possibility of his utterances being recorded." Mr. Cartwright and Mr. Hooper were nominated. At the close of the proceedings John A. and Mr. Hooper were serenaded by a brass band. The assemblage throughout the day was good humored and attentive, and was manifestly largely in favor of Mr. Cartwright.

The Mail's London correspondent says that at a meeting in the City Hotel, London, on Saturday, a memorial was carried asking Mr. Glass to resign his seat; that it was presented; and Mr. Glass said he would consider and reply. The Globe's correspondent says that "a meeting called in the Court House was entirely abandoned for want of sufficient attendance to make a half decent beginning. It would therefore appear that the great Lib.-Con. party had to content themselves with a caucus in the private room of a hotel instead of the red-hot demonstration of popular indignation which was to have melted Mr. Glass into political debris. The long-winded knot of Tories deserve some credit for sticking to their text so persistently. The Globe adds:—
"The situation was warmly discussed in hotel bar-rooms by farmers who usually throng the city on market day, and the general opinion was that Mr. Glass would be very foolish to take any notice of the paltry petitions presented to him."

"Boss Tweed," the most notorious rascal of the Tammany ring, has at last felt the heavy hand of the law. We announced a few days that he had been found guilty by a New York jury—a fact in itself which afforded matter for congratulation. On Saturday he was sentenced to twelve years in the county prison, and to pay a fine of $12,700—a heavy punishment, but not a whit heavier than this prince of swindlers deserves. The telegram says:—
Judge Davis sentenced the prisoner on every four counts in the entire 204 counts in the indictment. One year was inflicted for every four of the first 62, or twelve years' imprisonment in the county gaol in Ludlow Street. He was sentenced to a fine of $250 on every four counts on the entire number of 204, on which he was convicted. The entire fine amounts in the aggregate to $12,700, and the prisoner stands committed until it is paid. Tweed received his sentence calmly, and was removed in custody. Tweed is now 66 years of age, he will therefore be 78 years at the expiration of his punishment.

The people of New York deserve praise for the efforts they have made to clear out the nest of robbers who were making public honesty a by-word,—a thing to be laughed at as an amiable weakness only, indulged in by milkops who lacked practical shrewdness and worldly knowledge. The stern lesson of Judge Davis' sentence will teach these gentry a different lesson.

A huge devil-fish, said to be sixty feet long, has been seen off the coast of Newfoundland. It seized a boat belonging to two fishermen, who cut off the monster's arms, one of which has been preserved. It is described as a most horrible thing.

The St. John, N.B., Freeman gives an insight to the cause of Tilley's wanderings in search of some one to swear him into office as Lieut.-Governor. It says: "It was really too bad to ask Judge Fisher to swear Mr. Tilley in Lieut.-Governor of the Province, and it is not to be wondered at that he fled from Fredericton to avoid a task so humiliating and so painful. It is known that the Judge was led to expect that he would himself be appointed in the office, and for some months past he has been openly making preparations for its assumption, which was talked of all over Fredericton."

The St. Catharines News announces the removal of Mr. J. C. Rykert from the office of solicitor for the Welland Canal, a position he secured about a month since by Sir John's dismissal of the old incumbent without reason or warning. Hon. Mr. Currie takes Rykert's place. Says the London Advertiser:—"The change affects little Charlie's pocket to the extent of $1,500 a year, but then it gives him another item for his scrap book."

A large and influential meeting of the electors of the County of Russell was held in the village of Russell on the 19th instant, at which a resolution condemning the conduct of Dr. Grant in Parliament was carried. Requisitions were signed calling on him to resign.

Le Metis, of Manitoba, calls for a Parliamentary investigation into the question whether or not an amnesty was promised to Riel.
