FATAL ACCIDENT AT WIDDER.—On the 14th inst. Mr. James McKay, about 70 years of age, a resident of the village of Sylvan, fell down an embankment about twelve feet, in the town of Memphis, Michigan, and injured himself so much that he expired in a few moments afterwards.

A fearful catastrophe has just occurred on the Danube, in Hungary. A boat containing a large number of pilgrims from Tacksang, on their way to the sanctuary of Eresing, was upset, and all its occupants were drowned. A similar accident happened about two years back on the Lake of Zurich, when a steamer carrying a number of persons on a pious excursion to Notre Dame des Ermites sank, and many lives were lost.
