

The University of Western Ontario

The University Library System
London, Canada

THE DAWN OF TOMORROW

The National Negro Weekly. Devoted to the interests of the darker races.

Founded by James F. Jenkins and first published July 14, 1923. Mr. Jenkins died May 6, 1931 and the paper was continued by his family. Now (1983) published on an occasional basis.

Collation:

Volume I, Nos. 1-51. July 14, 1923 - July 5, 1924. Weekly

Volume II, Nos. 1-40. July 12, 1924 to July 13, 1925. Weekly, some weeks missed.

Volume III, Nos. 2-52. August 1, 1925 to March 12, 1927. Twice monthly.

Volume IV, Nos. 1-22. April 8, 1927 to July 11, 1929.
Monthly.

Volume V, Nos. 1-32. Aug. 26, 1929 to Dec. 18, 1931.
Monthly.

Total herewith: 181 issues, total of 1,292 pages. Collation of issues eclectic; believed to be a complete or nearly complete set, owned by Dr. Fred Landon, Librarian of U.W.O., and a frequent contributor of historical articles.