Sixth Day-Thursday.

Twenty-five the turnstiles yesterday at the Western Fair. This was an unexpected pleasure to the directors. The weather juring the morning looked threatening, but later it cleared up, and a more beautiful day could not have been looked for. more the grand stands were packed and the fence encircling the packed and the fence encircling the race track surrounded. The directors were smiling and everybody else was happy. The sport was excellent. The drawing card is evidently the special attractions. Between I and 2 o'clock yesterday aftermoon the prize stock was exhibited on the track, and then came the events in the ring.

Seventh Day-Friday.

The glory of the Fair is on the wane and its sun sets to-day. This is called Citizens and Stock Breeders' Day and by supper time the exhibition of 1892 will be at an end. There has been no rush from outside grounds was by no means small and com-Citizens' Day a large proportion of the patronage came from the city people. All the departments were in full blast and the complete programme of the ring attraction was put through.

Again the weather was glorious, in fact, brighter and warmer than any previous day, despite the showers that fell in the early morn. The good fortune of the Fair in this respect has been truly remarkable.

To-morrow is named Exhibitors' Day. The exhibition will be closed at 8 a.m. when exhibitors will be permitted to remove their goods. The treasurer will be at his office on the grounds. All but exhibitors and those having business on the grounds will be excluded.

Dayro and Kindred Products.

Dairy and Kindred Products, A fine display in this line is made this season and the exhibits never appeared to better advantage. The already large re-frigerator will next year be replaced by one still larger. While cheese is not quite so plentiful as last year, the quality is pro nounced superior. There was a splendid exhibit of honey. Following are eye of the connoisseur and please the individual most insensible to the beauties of nature. Among the tropical plants is a yucca gloriosa, a member of the palm tree family, in bloom. The cut-flower diaplay is gorgeous. There are also a number of beautiful hanging-baskets.

The honey display in the agricultural hall is far more extensive than ever before. Ten tons of this delicious product are exhibited in every known shape. Jars of fruit preserved in honey, honey canky and honey cake are among the most unusual features. There are also several new appliances used in the care, manufacture and shipping of honey.

The display of the Indian tribes, while not equal to that of last year, is yet a very creditable one. The Indians and squaws show peculiar articles of their own manufacture.

The display of seed grains differs little The display of seed grains differs little from that of last year, and is a good one. Considering the season the fruit exhibit is very creditable. The Niagara district fruit men are on hand with a good display. Mr. J. S. Pearce, who has charge of the agricultural, incricultural and dairy halls, offered a handsome prize for the best collection of garden vegetables, correctly named and tastefully arranged, and four competitors entered. The displays made are all good, Mr. W. H. K. Talbot taking the prize. A somewhat similar competitions are somewhat similar competitions. are all good, Mr. W. H. K. Talbot taking the prize. A somewhat similar competition was arranged for by the Fair Board, and brought out three competitors, who also make interesting exhibits. The big pumpkin is in the hall looking much the same as at all the fairs in the years gone by, while large roots and corn are liberally shown.

This department, while comparing favorably in point of the number of entries with any former year, was never surpassed as to the quality of the exhibits. Most of the prize animals shown at the Toronto exhibition years here. Many of them had to hibition were here. Many of them had to be stored away with the pigs. NOTES.

The balloon was named "K. D. C." after the "King of Dyspepsia Cures."
Dr. Roome, M. P. for West Middlesex, was a visitor to the Fair yesterday.
Professor Shaw, of the Agricultural College, Guelph, was a caller yesterday.
C. W. Taylor, business manager of the Globe, was on the grounds yesterday.
The band of No. 1 Company, C. R. I., and the Oneida Indian Band supplied the music at the Fair yesterday.
Gerry, the regimental dog at the barracks of No. 1 Company, C. R. I., will accompany Madam Mandell in her trip skyward today.

been in operation in the main building all week, attracting the keenest attention of everyone. The paper is taken from the roll and the filler comes from the machine complete, not only making them more rapidly, but more uniform than is possible by hand. This company have taken the exclusive control of these machines in Canada, and as they manufacture the paper they are in a position to furnish these goods at a price that defies competition. The sizes made are 15, 30, 36 and 49 dozen cases and fillers. The machine is certainly a model of ingenuity and mechanical skill. The company have also an attractive display of their well-known Red Cross brand, plain and tarred sheeting papers, all of their own manufacture, which with their straw boards, have become the standard goods throughout the Dominion. Indeed, their goods are regarded by the trade as the superior of any in the country. Their representative at the Fair has succeeded in impressing the western public with the fact that his company are the leaders in their lines. Their mills are located at Campbell-ford, Ont., and their Toronto warchouse is at 62 Front street.

FLORENCE BLYTHE MARRIED.

Interesting Chapter in the Career of a Millionaire's Heir.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Florence Blythe, the heirers of old Thomas Blythe's $4,000,000 and the heroine of one of the most sensational law cases known in recent years, was married yesterday to Fitz W. Hinkley, the son of one of the partners in the great Union Iron Works. Not one of the 80 claimants to the Blythe millions was present. The ceremony was performed by Kev. F. H. Church. The bride is the natural daughter of Thomas Blythe and Susan Perry, Blythe, on one of his visits to England, met Miss Perry and persuaded her to live with him for several months. He recognized Florence as his daughter by sending her money and writing many letters and he had made arrangements to bring her out from England when his sudden death came on. Old Blythe died without a will and his large estate was claimed by many people. many people.

Dr. Talmage Tells of His Meeting With the Emperor of Russia.

New York, Sept. 23.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, Mrs. Talmage and their two daughters reached their home in Brooklyn last evening. Many members of the Tabernacle called during the evening to congratulate Dr. Talmage on his safe return. Dr. Talmage looked in excellent health and said he felt ten years younger than when he started on his trip to Europe in June.

His preaching tour in England, he said, was a great success, and he exnibited with pride a gold watch which had been presented to him at the Crystal Palace by 100 ministers of different denominations. In reference to his meeting with the Emperor of Russia he said:

SOMEONE CRIED "FIRE."

Panic at a Celebration of the Jewish New Year.

Wild Rush for the Narrow Exit and a Number of Persons Crushed to Death.

New York, Sept. 23.—There are four Jewish synagogues in the tenement house No. 27 Ludlow street. They were all crowded with Hebrews attending the festival services of the New Year, when some person in one of the places of worship raised the cry of "Fire."

Immediately there was a panic, and everybody rushed for the doors. They piled right on top of one another in the stairway.

The firemen were summoned and succeeded in extricating the people from the blocked stairway and found there were four dead and about a dozen injured. One of the bodies has been identified as that of Friebo Decker, 44 years old, of 38 Ludlow street. She was trampled to that of Friede Decker, 44 years old, ol Ludlow street. She was trampled death on the third floor.

FIGHTING THE COAL TRUST.

A Chicago Banker Has Joined Battle with the Great Combine.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—C. H. Vehmeyer, a banker, who resides at 337 Sixty-third street, and who also handles coal, has defied the coal trust, which has been compelled to sue Mr. Vehmeyer in the United States Court for $10,000. Some time ago
Mr. Vehmeyer purchased some hundreds of tons of hard coal from the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company.

The coal was delivered, but the company, so it is said, imposed such burdensome conditions on Mr. Vehmeyer regarding the delivery of the coal that he refused to pay a cent for what coal was sent him unless the PARIS, Sept. 23.—The crush on the treets yesterday was something unstreets yeaterday was something un-paralleled. It seemed as though every person in the city had turned out to observe the centennial of the founding of the first republic. Several persons who were wit-nessing the parades lost their footing and were trampled upon and badly injured, two is whom died last night. The Matin says the Italian and British embassics were the only embassies in the city that were illuminated last night in honor of the republic's centennial.
