Criticism of Minis · Objection

Let the Read

To the Claim of W to Vote

By Miss Ethelwyn Weth ld, in "Wives A very full presentative of aged and declayed arguments against woman's right to vote was given by Hos. Mr. Dryden before the Ontario Legislature on May 10. These antiquities have been exposed so often and so long to the lapphter of a common sense public that, even when wheeled out in the comfortably-padded conveyance of several closely printed columns in a verbatim report, they topple about in a decrepit manner which appeals to one's sense of pity. Lefthe reader judge.

The first objection is to doubling the number at present on the roils, and to doubling the cost of preparation of the voters' lists. Such an obstacle is not to be regarded seriously. If half the countles
