COMING TO LONDON. Rev. H. J. Uren, who has been the junior pastor of the Thorndale circuit for the past year, and who goes to Dundas Center, London, as assistant, rreached his farewell sermon on Sunday night last to crowded cogregation. Flowers were strewn around the altar, testifying to the high esteem in which Mr. Uren is held. His text was in II. Corinthians, xii., 11: "Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in reace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you," and from these words he delivered an eloquent sermon, delighted his hearers. He showed clearly the necessity of every part being in its proper place in the construction of an elifice, and how fust as important was in connection with the church The Thames made her regular trips this of today. Before closing the service Mr. Uren took occasion to thank the people for the many kindnesses shown him during the first year of his ministry. He also paid a worthy tribute to the superintendent of the circuit (Rev. Mr. Kershaw), who he said was a man who would never swerve from the right nor stoop to meanness; but ene of sound principle. Mr. Uren is de stined to fill a prominent place in the Methodist ministry, and the people of Thorndale wish him every success in his new field of labor.
