MORE TROOPS ORDERED OUT!

Situation at Tien-Tsin Is Still Regarded as Serious.

Germany Expects England to Yield—Japan Mobilizing Her Fleet and May Clash With Russia—Modified Terms Regarding Manchuria.

DEMANDS BRITISH APOLOGY.

LONDON, March 21.—"Gen. Wogack has refused to accept Count Von Waldersee's arbitration at Tien Tsin," says the Pekin correspondent of the Daily Mail, wiring yesterday, "and demands that the British not only withdraw, but apologize for removing the Russian flag. Gen. Barrow refuses to do either, and in so refusing has the support of the British Government. British reinforcements are being sent."

UNDER ARMS.

A Tien Tsin dispatch says: In addition to the Australians, outposts from the line of communication are coming in to be ready in case of necessity. The British are under arms to prevent the settlement being rushed, but they do not anticipate such extremes.

ENGLAND EXPECTED TO YIELD.

A Berlin dispatch says: In German official circles it is asserted that British and Russian guards still occupy the land in controversy at Tien Tsin, and that a satisfactory adjustment of the matter may be expected. The press does not consider the Tien Tsin incident vital. All the papers express a belief that Great Britain will yield.

The Vossische Zeitung says that England cannot now afford to engage in a serious conflict with Russia.

RUSSIAN PRESS OPINION.

St. Petersburg, March 20.—The Russian press is not alarmed about the Tien Tsin affair. "There is no mention of it in the official agencies' dispatches, but the London correspondent of the Novoye Vremya characterizes the dispute as unimportant. Another London correspondent quotes a French diplomat as saying that an Anglo-Russian war is impossible, as Russia need only threaten to support the Russian position in order to obtain upon her knees. The Novost advocates a Russo-Japanese alliance which will assure Japan her present possessions and a large market for her industrial products in Russian territory, where they will be protected against Anglo-German competition. In conclusion, the article declares this alliance is as important in the Orient as the Franco-Russian alliance is in
