FILIGREE

BY ANNA KATHERINE GREEN

Copyright by the Bobbs-Merrill Company, and by special arrangement with Ma-Leod & Allen, Canadian Publishers.

Meantime I spent all my available time in loitering around newspaper offices and picking up such stray bits of gossip as were afforded. As no question had yet been raised of any the door for disease. Scott's more serious crime than suicide, these mostly related to the idiosyncrasies of the Moore family and the solitary bosition into which Miss Tuttle had been plunged by this sudden death of her only relative. As this beautiful and distinguished young woman had all provides nourishment. been and still was a great belle in her special circle, her present homeless, if not penniliess, position led to many surmises. Would she marry, and, if so, to which of the many wealthy or the present egotistic state of mind I bright and pleasing expression with secretly flattered myself that I was enough spice in her temperament to ing had expired. But this opinion received something of a shock when in a quiet talk with a reporter I learned that it was openly butterfly, but one term could be found stated by those who had courage to to characterize the proceeding, and existed at one time between Mr. Jef-frey and the handsome Miss Tuttie had been entirely of her own weaving. condition calculated to inspire reand that the person of Veronica Moore, rather than the large income she commanded, had been the attractive power which had led him away the older sister. This seemed improbable; for the charms of the poor little bride were not to be compared with those of her maturer sister. Yet, as we all know, there are other attractions than those offered by beauty. known. I have since heard it broadly stated that the peculiar twitch of the lip ob- the town. Now for the special. servable in all the Moores had proved an irresistible charm in the unfortunnecessary to name, had been present ate Veronica, making her a radiant at one critical instant in the lives of said, before the fancy took her to be gone on happily,—if Veronica had lived and Cora settled down into matsband seemed to impose on no one. hotel in Atlantic City. To those who knew the young couple It was at the time when the engage-picked up many small facts. Brought ginia-he who might have had the pick marry her. establishment of which she had been only. Miss Tuttle's charms are not pomade mistress, he was forgiven his tent enough to hold the heart which lack of taste. Little more was said of has once been fixed by her sister's his peculiarities until, his wife having smile.' died and his child proved weakly, he had at the conclusion of his such deep satisfaction. been so displeasing to their friends re- rant that not one of the men composport says not; but that it was so, is ing it but wished himself a hundred evident from the fact that great re- miles away. joicing took place on all sides when Jeffrey himself was chagrined, and Veronica suddenly developed into a made a move to follow the woman he healthy child and the probability of had so publicly scorned, but the look again has not come as a surprise to A. A. David Moore's inheriting the coveted she cast back at him was one to reestate decreased to a minimum. It member, and he hesitated. What was was not a long rejoicing, however, for there left for him to say, or even to to keep the sport going in this city. FOOTBALL. John Judson followed his wife to the do? The avowal had been made in all One prominent baseball man said: "We grave before Veronica had reached her its bald frankness and nothing could tenth year, leaving her and her half- alter it. crabbed old bachelor who had been so far as the world knew, ever showed positively unkind. For two years the the one man she adored. sisters seemed happy enough when, suddenly and somewhat peremptorily. I returned to Washington. I had active separated. Veronica being duainted myself with the open facts of the best being brought into the baseball talk again, a story having duainted myself with the open facts of the second to the effect that the will play with the New York American eyes without awakening in her any world.

ter say that under his influence she fine myself to facts. to a lovely one, Yet no engagement was announced, and society was won- Moore house.

And this background is the tragic discovery in the Invaders for another year or whether he sits about idly, waiting for Grifas announced, and society was won- Moore house dering what held Francis Jeffrey back from so great a prize, when Veronica Moore came home, and the question vas forever answered. Veronica was now nearly eighteen. and during her absence had blossomed is a German.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is for babies and children who are thin and pale when they ought to be fat and ruddy; for men and women who are weak and delicate when they ought to be strong ment from their food. Poor blood, thin body, open Emulsion bars the way. duces healthy flesh and above and hearty-for all who are not getting proper nourish-

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE. Toronto, Ont.

prominent men who had openly court- into womanhood. She was not as ed her would she accord her hand? In beautiful as her sister, but she had a yes to no man's entreaty till a certain hewly-made widower's year of mourn-not brilliant. Yet when Francis Jeffrey turned his attentions from Miss but settled income, he had hitherto spect and make his attentions to Miss! Tuttle seem both consistent and appropriate. But no sooner did Veronica's bright eyes appear than he fell at the his young heiress' feet and pressed suit so close and fast that in two months they were engaged and at the end of the half-year, married-with the disastrous consequences just made So much for the general gossip of image when she laughed. This was by these three persons. He was not a no means a rare occurrence, so they scandalmonger, and if everything had rimony-he would never have men-The few lines of attempted explana- tioned what he heard and saw one tion which she had left behind for her night in the great drawingroom of a well it was an open proof of her in-sanity; to those who knew them slight-frey and the young heiress. This and ly, as well as to the public at large, his previous attentions to Cora had it was a woman's way of expressing made much talk, both in Washington the disappointment she felt in her hus- and elsewhere, and there were not lacking those who had openly t That I might the more readily deter- him for his seeming inconstancy. This mine which of these two theories had had been over the cups of course, and the firmest basis in fact, I took ad- Jeffrey had borne it well enough from vantage of an afternoon off and slip- his so-called friends and intimates. ped away to Alexandria, where, I had But when, on a certain evening in the been told, Mr. Jeffrey had courted his parlor of one of the large hotels in bride. I wanted a taste of local gos- Atlantic City, a fellow whom nobody sip, you see, and I got it. The air was knew and nobody like accused him of fully charged with it, and being care- knowing on which side his bread was not to rouse antagonism by an- buttered, and that certainly it was nouncing myself a detective, I readily not on the side of beauty and superlor attainments, Jeffrey got angry. into shape and arranged in the form Heedless of who might be within hearof a narrative, the result was as fol- ing, he spoke up very plainly in these words: "You are all of a kind, rank John Judson Moore, the father of money-worshipers and self-seekers, Veronica, had fewer oddities than the or you would not be so ready to see other members of this eccentric fam- greed in my admiration for Miss B. train at 8:15 a.m., returning at 6:20 ily. It was thought, however, that he Moore. Disagreeable as I nd it to air p.m. had shown some strain of the peculiar my sentiments in this public manner, independence of his race when, in se- yet since you provoke me to it, I will lecting a wife, he let his choice fall say once and for all, that I am deeply widow who was generally re- in love with Miss Moore, and that it garded as the plainest woman in Vir- is for this reason only I am going to Where she the penniless of Southern beauty. But when in the girl her sister is, and Miss Tuttle the course of time this despised woman proud possessor of the wealth which, proved to be the possessor of those in your eves, confers such distinction virtues and social graces which emin- upon Miss Moore, you would still see man. ently fitted her to conduct the large me at the latter's feet, and at hers anis was pointed enough, certainly, which has since given that gentleman words a tall figure rose from a near corner and Cora Tuttle passed Why this proceeding should have amazed group with a bow, I dare war-year, leaving her and her half- alter it. As for her, she behaved this information is correct, but if it is, games, only two matches now remain Cora, to the guardianship of a beautifully, and by no word or look. I have hesitation whatever in saying to be played in the second round of his father's lawyer. This lawyer was that her woman's pride, if not her without the Eastern League.' morose and peevish, but he was never heart, had been cut to the quick, by

With this incident filling my mind. sent to a western school, where she of this family's history; but what of he will play with the New York Amerremained, seemingly without a single its inner life? Who knew it? Did any icans next season, by virtue of an arvisit east, till she was seventeen. Dur- one? Even the man who confided to rangement with Comiskey, who beat ing this long absence Miss Tuttle re- me the contretemps in the hotel par- Brush in a fight in the sided in Washington, developing under lor could not be sure what underlay summer, with the players' services the masters into an accomplished woman. Mr. Jeffrey's warm advocacy of the issue. It is now claimed that Brush Veronica's guardian, severe in his woman he had elected to marry. He merely played Davis to force the issue, treatment of the youthful owner of the could not even be certain that he had so that if the courts ruled against him which he had been really understood the feeling shown he might stop paying Davis the big made sole executor, was unexpectedly by Cora Tuttle when she heard the salary that his contract called for. generous to the penniless sister, hop-ing, perhaps, in his close, peevish old tions on her, express in this public force an issue, but not in any hope heart, that the charms and acquired manner a preference for her sister. A that he might rid himself of writing graces of this lovely woman would woman has great aptness in conceal-checks for Davis. The latter has the on win for her a husband in the bril- ing a mortal hurt, and, from what I New Yorker bound to a contract that liant set in which she naturally found had seen of this one, I thought it makes it immaterial, so far as 1904 herself. But Cora Tuttle was not highly improbable that all was quiet in goes, what the courts or the baseball to please, and the first men of her passionate breast because she had magnates do. Davis' salary comes special interest till she met Francis I was becoming confused in the can League club can get him unless he Jeffrey, who stole her heart with a maze of my own imaginings. To es- decides to waive his claim on Brush cape the results of this confusion, I and get into the game. Herman Long Those who remember her that win- determined to drop theory and con- has the Americans on almost as good developed from a handsome woman in- And thus passed the first few days whether Detroit takes him from the

[To be Continued.]

The world seldom speaks well of a man who is dead broke. One in four of the people of Chicago

Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Coughs, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria.

Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics. CRESOLENE is a long established and standard remedy for the diseases ated. It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried the diseased surfaces of the bronchial tubes with every breath, giving ged and constant treatment. Those of a consumptive tendency, or rs from chronic bronchitis, find immediate relief from coughs or inconditions of the throat. Descriptive booklet free.

LENE ANTISEPTIC TABLETS dissolved in the mouth, are effective and coughs and irritation of the throat. 10c. a box. ALL DEUGGISTS.

G. MILES & CO., 1651 Notre Dame St., Montreal, Canadian Agents

THE JUMPS ARE FAR TOO LONG

Why London Is at a Disadvant- The A. O. F. Carpetball League age in Sporting Matters at All Times.

It would seem as if London was forever doomed from becoming a great sporting center. It is true that championships have come this way, but much interest is being taken in the The Indians were told to work it the a good line of clubs that can stand the pace and put up the fights season This is neither to be laid to the doors and Court Forest City, the former win-Dillon's jersey. He had an elastic cord of players or public. The only explananing by a score of 35 to 24. In the land of the jersey, and the bottom of the jersey, and after season is more to be desired. tion seems that London is "back in the woods" as far as other cities of Court Forest Queen defeated to woods" as far as other cities of Court Fighton 35 to 29. The schedule any size are concerned. Certainly it Court Brighton 35 to 29. The schedule Cornell. Penn state was the victim. any size are concerned. Certainly it Court Brighton so to because there was any lack of for the season has been arranged as enthusiasm when the spectator's idea follows:

The ball is slipped under the jersey from the side. There is nothing in the enthusiasm when the spectator's idea of what should be was lived up to. The Nov. jump from London to any of the larger cities is too great, especially when a local team is pitted with teams in Hamilton or Toronto. The tension comes from the first of the season then, before the coffers of the club earn the right to the name and when a right in concluding that she would say rob her girlish features of insipidity dissenting voice to be raised at the meetings to organize a football team this season said the jumps were too Tuttle and fixed them without reserve, of the season, and the consequence is or seeming shame, upon this pretty that London is not in the championgreat for London to take at the first ship series. If the locals had only to speak that the tie which had certainly that was, fortune hunting. Of small ronto, or vice versa, for the first few shown a certain contentment with his things might have gone better. Of course, this was not the only difficulty here this season, but had players been expecting only to go a short distance, with a sort of local interest following them from London, things might have gone better. When a team goes to Toronto before the people at home have "caught on." they must make a splendid showing before they are well patronized, when they come back.

The towns and smaller cities near London do not do much to alleviate the trouble. Their teams might be good, or even the superiors of the Londons, but, what is really needed is a few cities conveniently near London. Then and not until then will

THE HOUGH CUP

Saturday Morning-ieam Not Yet Chosen.

The Collegiate club have received posters of the championship game to be play-The contending teams are from the Collegiates of Clinton and London. The London boys will leave on the L., H. and

The team to represent the local Collegiate will be chosen from the following: John Wood, W. de C. O'Grady, J. H. Downing, Ewart Ryckman, J. E. Campbell, K. McLean, George Garrett, Mark East Enders. Garrett, Wallace Crawford, J. Bowes, W. M. Govenlock, Lloyd Moffatt and J. Cole-

The club rates for the return trip will pleasant outing, should communicate with Captain Downing, of the Collegiate Institure, who is looking after the tickets.

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL IN MONTREAL. Montreal, Nov. 3.—The news that it has been decided to drop Montreal out of the Eastern League baseball circuit Manhattans vs. Liberals, Woodbines some of the gentlemen who have tried have nothing officially to tell us that

TALKING ABOUT DAVIS. George Davis is being brought into courts last Washington came and went before her turned an impassive front to the from Brush, and all that he has to do to earn it is to stay alive. No Ameria contract, and does not need to worry fin to find out something for him to do.

BALANCE ON RIGHT SIDE. Toronto, Nov. 4.—There was more interest than usual in the annual meeting will want to go and do likewise. of the Toronto baseball club tonight. owing to the effort of the bondholders to secure control. They said, however, that they were not strong enough, and with-drew their ticket. The shareholders' ticket of directors was elected, as follows: A. A. Alexander, John Morley, C. A. Campbell and Walter Fidler. They will meet later for the election of offi-The financial statement showed revenue of $49,484, and a net profit for the year of $1,841. The assets are placed at $20,475, including franchise, $6,000, and grand stand, $8,250. For depreciation on Amherst stands $1,250 was written off, and the balance now to the credit of profit and loss is $4,085. The statement was considered very satisfactory, and the pros-pects were pronounced good for next

ATHLETICS.

CANADA AT WORLD'S FAIR. Montreal, Nov. 3. - As soon as the for the sports at the World's Fair to be held next summer at St. Louis, a general invitation will be extended to all the important athletic clubs in Canada to join with the union in securing the pick of the athletes to represent Canadian Amateur Athletic Union ob-

MATCHES HAVE

Teams Have Arranged Schedule for the Season.

Two games have been played in the out football, but it is strategy that works very well, and no rule covers it. It is not a forward pass, either. championships are not everything, and matches that are to be played during first time Harvard kicked off, and they Nov. 12-Stella vs. Excelsior.

Nov. 16—Excelsior vs. Magnolia. Nov. 17—Forest City vs. Pride of Do-Nov. 24—Forest Queen vs. Brighton. Nov. 26—Stella vs. Magnolia. Dec. 1-Forest City vs. Stella.

Dec. 8-Magnolia vs. Excelsior. Dec. 10-Stella vs. Forest Queen. Dec. 15-Forest City vs. Pride of Dominion Dec. 21-Excelsior vs. Brighton. Dec. 22—Forest Queen vs. Magnolia. Jan. 18—Excelsior vs. Brighton, and Pride of Dominion vs. Brighton. Jan. 19-Forest City vs. Magnolia, nd Brighton vs. Stella. Jan. 28-Stella vs. Pride of Dominion. Feb. 1-Excelsior vs. Stella, and Pride of Dominion vs. Magnolia. Feb. 9-Magnolia vs. Forest Queen Feb. 11-Stella vs. Forest City. Feb. 16-Brighton vs. Excelsion Feb. 23.—Forest Queen vs. Brighton, and Magnolia vs. Pride of Dominion.

March 8-Pride of Dominion vs. Ex-Games are to be played at the rooms of the first named teams. BERESFORD LODGE WON. The first game of the Sons of England carpetball series, for the Willmot cup, was played last night be-Beresford and British Oak Lodges, resulting in a victory for Beresford. Score, 19 to 17. FIRST MATCHES

March 2-Brighton vs. Forest City.

Collegiates Leave for Clinton On Schedule for the Season's City

League Whist Games Has Been Arranged.

The schedule of the City Whist League has been drafted for a portion ed on the recreation grounds, Clinton, on of the season. The first games will be ed mental aberration. Saturday, for the Hough cup and inter- played on Nov. 10, and the season will collegiate championship of the province. continue until Jan, 5, when further games will be scheduled. The arrangement has been made as follows: Nov. 10-Sergeants' Mess vs. Seventh > bines, Liberals vs. East Enders, and Manhattans vs. Rockets. Nov. 17-Sergeants' Mess vs. Woodbines, Orients vs. Manhattans, Liberals vs. Seventh A. A., and Rockets vs. Nov 24-Orients vs Sergeants' Mess.

Manhattans vs. Woodbines, Lockets vs. Liberals, and Seventh A. A. vs. East Enders. Dec. 1-Sergeants' Mess vs. Liberals be $2. Friends of the Collegiate team Manhattans vs. East Enders, Woodbines who desire to accompany them on this vs. Seventh A. A., and Rockets vs. Orients. Dec. 8-Sergeants' Mess vs. East Enders, Manhattans vs. Seventh A. A., Woodbines vs. Rockets, and Orients vs. Liberals. Dec. 15-Sergeants' Mess vs. Manhattans, Rockets vs. Seventh A. A., Woodbines vs. Liberals, Orients vs. East

Enders. Jan. 5-Rockets vs. Sergeants' Mess. vs. East Enders, Orients vs. Seventh

DRAWING TO A CLOSE. With the exception of the drawn that we will manage easily to get along the City League football series. These will be between the Y. M. C. A. and the Barracks, and in the event of the former winning it will place them on an even basis with the Medicals, who are now in the lead. The standing is > Won. Lost. Drawn. Play Medicals 5 Y. M. C. A. I. C. I. Barracks Normal - Models 1 PARKHILL DROPS OUT.

Toronto, Nov. 4.-Word has been ceived by the secretary of the O. R. F. U. that Parkhill had decided to drop out of the junior series. reason given is the lack of finances to play all games in the semi-finals on neutral grounds. Parkhill was at the 27, when Stratford defaulted without giving due notice to Parkhill. Parkhill will have a strong team in the O. R. F. U. next season, as the game has become popular.

WILL MAKE MONEY. "Every team in the senior O. R. F. U. will quit from $200 to $500 ahead of the game this season," says Secretary Frank Woodworth, "This is pleasing, for all of them will be anxious to get in the game again next season, and other hearing of their good fortune

AMERICAN TEAMS' WORK. The following table shows the work of the principal eastern American foot-

Yale 9 Princeton 9 Harvard Columbia Pennsylvania Cornell Amherst Holy Cross Williams Wesleyan Annapolis

the pick of the athletes to represent ever sailed on local waters, will design Canada both in the olympic and other two boats. He has high hopes of building a craft to sail even faster than Thorella II. It is probable that one of the new boats will be an elabora-tion of ideas used in the Thorella, and it is probable that bige keel and a double rudder will be features of one of the new boats.

it is discovered to be. Yesterday it was shown that Widman worked it for the U. of M. alumni a few years ago. Now Warner, the Carlisle coach himself says that it is an old play saying to an eastern writer: "We have two or three tricks, and Dillon's is one. It may not be straight-the winter months. The first game was off the Indians surrounded him. The between Court Pride of the Dominion ball was quickly slipped up under the trick in 1897, when I was coaching up and 6 to go; Miss Cox beat Miss Gibson 2 up; Mrs. Sidney Smith beat Miss Stewart by default; Mrs. Burritt beat Miss Fenton 1 up; Miss Yarker beat Miss Maule 2 up and 1 to go; Mrs. Mahoney beat Mrs. Eustace Smith 2 up; Miss Elmsley beat Miss Jones 1 up; Mrs. Stikeman beat Miss Taylor 4 up and 3 to go.

MISS ADAIR AT TORONTO.

FAMOUS DRIVER INSANE.

until four years later that he became of 11, and her brother. Ricky, aged 6 champion. Hickok's last trotter of note orphans, living in their guardian's was Hulda that broke down in the hon Columbian free to all race in Chicago in 1893. In personal appearance Kic- eavesdropping), hears of Miss Cecilia's kok is a small, dapper man, always lovely home for lonely children, and dressed with extreme neatness, and decides to run away to her, which she was soft of speech, although possess- and her brother do in an adventurous tion of that sort was needed. About it was not long until there was mark-a good track and large attendance favorinto four moneys, $50, $25, $15, $10. Second race, 2:35 class, purse $100; divided Athletic Association Orients vs. Woodin $50, $25, $10. Results:

ford, Ridgetown, 1; James Alexander's Alvinstar, Ridgetown, 2; H. W. Lumley's Dick Sable, Ridgetown, 3. Best time, 2:444. Attendance, 1,200. YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS. At the Aqueduct-Atalana (O'Neil), 12 to 1 and 5 to 1; Grenada (Gannon), to 2 and out: All Gold (Fuller), 9 to financial matters, added to his wellknown literary ability, makes this article more than usually interesting. Ernest Thompson Seton contributes short sketches entitled "Fable and Woodmyth," with illustrations. The Grath, opens the November Cosmopolcolor work, besides the handsome new itan. It is a graphic description of cover, includes four pictures by Mans- how the ocean's wealth is garnered by field Parrish, accompanying the first the hardy sons of Newfoundland, and article of Edith Wharton's series on the perils that fishermen pass through. "Italian Villas and Their Gardens." A "Appareling a Pretty Woman," feature of this number is the opening tastefully illustrated, will interest readpaper of the new literary find, Thack- ers generally and the ladies in partic eray's letters recording his friendship ular. Other readable articles, illustratwith the Baxters, of New York, illused, are: "The Turk as a Soldier," trated by drawings and autographs. Food of the Gods," "Sydney G "Fighting the Hudson," the thrilling mont's Model," "Jerusalem as It Is Tostory of a perilous emergency in the of tunneling the Hudson River; "A World Congress of Lions," "Chapters from My Diplomatic Life," and expense of a trip to St. Marys on Oct. a number other articles will be found deeply interesting. These, with a generous variety of short stories, fiction and poetry combine to make the November Century even more than usually entertaining and instructive. ST. NICHOLAS.

LITERARY NOTES.

AWAY."

AN OLD TRICK. The more that trick play of the Carlisle Indians is talked of, the older this held the ball securely. I used rules to prevent the play."

GOLF. Toronto, Nov. 4.—There was another very large attendance at the Lambton golf links today for the opening round of the ladies' tournament. The results of the ladies' tournament. The results were as follows: First cup—Miss Rhona Adair beat Mrs. Peflar 10 up and 8 to go; Miss Green beat Mrs. Vere Brown 2 up and 1 to go; Miss Marter beat Mrs. Mussen 3 up and 1 to go; Mrs. Phepoe beat Miss Atkinson 2 up; Miss Phepoe beat Mrs. McPherson 8 up and 6 to go; Mrs. Bolte beat Miss Wilks 2 up; Miss Hoodless beat Miss Butler 1 up; Miss Harvey beat Miss McDougall 2 up. Second cup—Miss Davidson beat Miss F. Bryan 8 up and 6 to go; Miss Cox beat Miss Gibson 2 up; Mrs. Sidney Smith beat Miss

THE TURF. Orrin A. Hickok, who was recently committed to an insane asylum in Ohio, was for more than thirty years book has the same effect on one as a conspicuous figure among drivers of harnesss horses, and in his day brought out St. Julien, 2:11¼, at that time a world? time a world's record. Hickok began Ran Away," published by Macmillan his association with horses as a boy, idea of the former good qual-riding quarter horses in Wisconsin, and ities, the reader at the outset is put from that employment graduated into the harness school. In the late sixties he won a good many races with the won a good many races with a contents, and often that was promined to the contents. "The Children Who Ran Away" from Angeline, and after that was prominated to the home of a "lady ent behind Lucy 2:1814, driving her a great many exhibition miles against Goldsmith Maid. It was in 1876 that the discontented to the home of a "who wanted children that other ple didn't want," namely. Miss Hickok took St. Julien in hand, the cilia Molyneux, unhappy in her own horse having a record of 2:221/4, made childhood and so sympathetic with other the previous season, but it was not ers in like situations, were Prue, a girl

ed of plenty of determination when actwo years ago his health failed, and GOOD GOING AT RIDGETOWN. Ridgetown, Ont., Nov. 4.-A perfect day, d the racing committee this afternoon. First race, 2:20 class, purse $100; divided

2:20 class-Mr. Gordon's Tom Woods, of Glencoe, 1; T. Brady's Maggie L., of the quality of her first long story. This chatham, 2; D. McLaughlin's College Queen, of Chatham, 3; A. W. Leakie's Dolphy W., of Glencoe, 4. Three straights. Best time, 2:20½. Glass Wm. Marryfield's Capt. Post. 2:35 class-Wm. Merryfield's Capt. Bed-and 9 to 10; Revielle (Redfern), 1 to 3 and out; Demurrer (Redfern), 5 to 1 and Tribe's Hill (Callahan), 2 to 1 and 4 to 5.

THE CENTURY. The author's personal experience in a new field of fiction.

"A Comedy in Wax," by B. L. Fargeon, is begun in the November St. Nicholas, and those who read the opening chapters are sure to follow the story to its close. It tells of Little Lucy, Lucy's lovers and Mme. Tussaud and her famous waxworks, and it is well illustrated by Fanny Y. Cory. Then there are plenty of good short "Ted's Contract" tells of a stories. manly little lad's adventure in his devotion to his father's interests; Albert Bigelow Paine's "Two Little New York Maids" are well worth knowing. "The Poison Bubble" is a good oldfashioned magic story; "Richard, My King," by Livingston B. Morse, and 'The Late Unpleasantness," by Charlotte Sedgwick, are very interesting. James M. Dodge, president of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, tells "The Money Value of Training." George Ethelbert Walsh tells about "Some Queer Mail Carriers Maratime Provinces. and Their Ways," and Dallas Lore Sharp writes of "Bird Friendships." There is a half-page view of the wall as it looks today at Cuddy's Crag, on the English-Scottish border, and the "A Week in the Woods' as it looks today at Cuddy's Crag, on TO BUILD DEFENDERS.

Montreal, Nov. 5. — Within a short time work will be begun at the Royal St. Lawrence Yeart Club's at the Royal page plotters.

Good paper and excellent type in a

Economy that Costs

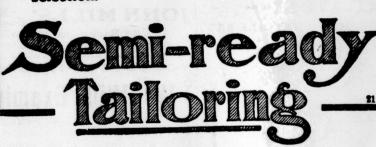

THEAP LABOR is too costly for us. A cutter could easily cost us ten thousand dollars per year more than his salary if he didn't know his business.

This is why we can't afford to have any but the best work people on Semi-ready. When we get these, we hold them through liberal treatment and proper appreciation.

As a consequence, Semi-ready clothes are conscientiously made-with smooth shoulders, close-fitting collars, and that indefinable effect which spells "style."

Just try on a "Semi-ready" if you'd see what a well-balanced coat can do for your

Finished to order in two hours after

146 DUNDAS STREET

Colonist Fares

To British Columbia, California, Colorado, Idaho,

Montana, Oregon, Utah,

Washington, etc., in effect

For further information or tickets apply to E. DE LA HOOKE, C. P. and T. A.,

ALL STATIONS.

Sharbot Lake, Windsor, Wingham, Teeswater, Owen Sound and intermediate stations; also Hamilton to stations Mat-

OCTOBER 9 to NOVEMBER 5, inclusive,

clusive, on OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER

Tickets valid for return until December

Ask or write your nearest Canadian

Ask of write your list. Pacific agent for copy of "Fishing and Pacific agent for copy of "Fishing and "Sportsman's Map." W.

Shooting," and "Sportsman's Map," W. FULTON, C. P. and T. A., London. A. H. NOTMAN, assistant general passenger

NEW YORK,

BOSTON

MICHIGAN CENTRAL

"The Niagara Falls Route."

CLOSE CONNECTIONS.

THROUGH PULLMANS, EXCELLENT SERVICE,

O. W. RUGGLES,

G. P. apa T. A.

All information and tickets at city office, 395 Richmond street. 'Phone 205.

O. W. RUGGLES, JOHN PAUL,

Cheap Colonist One-way

Tickets are now on sale

over the Great Wabash Line to California, Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Montana,

Washington and British Columbia. Tickets are good to stop over at different points. This will be a grand opportunity to visit the above points at a very low rate. All tickets should read over the Wabash, the short and true route to the west. For timetables, reservations of sleeping car berths and other information address any railroad ticket agent or J.

A. RICHARDSON, district passenger

United States and Royal Mail

New York. Queenstown and Liverpool

Saloon rates from $75 up. Second saloon from $45 up, according to steamer and Liverpool, London, Glasgow and Derry, $28 and $29 50.

Accommodations for all classes of passengers unexcelled. E. DE LA HOOKE, CLOCK CORNER,

Sole Agent for Londo

Third class rates to Steamers.

agent, Toronto or St. Thomas.

daily until Nov 30th,

and to Havelock to Sharbot Lake,

5, inclusive. Single fare for round trip.

Kinawa and Temiskaming, on until November 30, 1093.

CANADIAN

depot ticket agent.

agent, Toronto.

RAILWAYS AND NAVIGATION. GRAND TRUNK PAILWAY Reduced One-Way Second Class

The girl, accidentally (partly through

Then the three hundred pages following their running away consist wholly city ticket office, or C. E. HORNING, of the conversations and doings of half a dozen old-young children, Prue and Ricky included.

NEW STORY BY MABEL EARLE. "New Fortunes, or How Molly and Her Brothers Came to Boulder Gulch, a new story for young readers by Miss HUNTERS' EXCURSIONS FROM Mabel Earle. Miss Earle's success as a contributor to the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines argues well for is largely an outdoor story and the tawa to Nipigon and Garden River, in-S. Barnes & Co.'s new juvenile series, "The East and West Series" peculiarly appropriate.

"TENNESSEE TODD." G. W. Ogden, the young author of "Tennessee Todd," which will be published immediately by A. S. Barnes & Co., gathered the material for story at first hand. His family for many years were identified with the exciting river-boat life of the Missis-At Latonia—Fair aLdy Anna, 6 to 5; exciting river-boat life of the Missis-Onross, 10 to 1; Antolee, 9 to 5; Ceylon, 13 sippi, and from his boyhood Mr. Ogden to 5; Domino Whist, 30 to 1; Never Such, has been brought up in an atmosphere which was reminiscent of the old days when boat and train fought for the and all Eastern points reached in quickcommercial supremacy of the west. Like many successful novelists, Mr. Ogden's apprenticeship was served on the daily press. In Kansas City, Chicago and San Francisco he is wellknown for his brilliant journalistic Edmund Steadman's illustrated ar- work. During the last few years his ticle on the New York Stock Exchange, short stories have been attracting inentitled "Life on the Floor," opens creasing attention; his steamboat Leave London.

THE COSMOPOLITAN. "Adventures on the Ice-Floes," a liberally illustrated article by P. T. Mcday," etc. The usual variety of short stories, fiction and poetry, combine to make this issue of the Cosmopolitan decidedly entertaining as well as instructive.

RESTRICTION RATEWAY HUNTING

SEASON 1903. When and

In Quebec and the WRITE FOR

"Fishing and Hunting"TO....

51 King Street West.

Germany has but 2,117 miles of electric car lines.

ALLAN LINE ROYAL MAIL STEAMSHIPS.

From Montreal and Quebec every Satrday, to Liverpool, via Movilie. First cabin, $65 and upwards; second cabin, $37.50 and $40; and third class, to Liverpool, Derry, Belfast, Gasgow and London, $25 and $26. Through tickets to South Africa.

London Agents—E. De La Hooke, W. Fulton. F. B. Clarke.