JUST CAMPAIGN LIE SAYS LEADER MACKAY

Toronto, March 30. - "The spring poet is getting busy," smiled the Hon. A. G. MacKay - this morning, when shown a dispatch from Chatham which indicated that he had refused to deny a rumor that he was to retire from the opposition leadership. "It is simply a continuation of a lie," he added. "A resignation rumor was printed in a Chatham paper. I denied it flatly at the meeting in Chatham.' "And deny it yet?"

"Of course I do." "What do you figure upon as election day?" was asked. Mr. MacKay laughed. "Perhaps May 28 would be near enough," he ventured. General opinion at the Parliament Buildings fixes the elections for some day in the last week of May or first $4 50 of June.
