James Bell's Rink Wins Labatt Trophy

Premier Trophy of W.O.B.A. Tournament Goes to London Rowing Club—W. J. Snelgrove's Quartet Captures Tecumseh Trophy From J. McDougall, Who Wins McNece Cup.

Fred Belts, Dr. J. A. Wright, J. A. Snelgrove and James Bell of the London Rowing Club comprised the rink that won the Labatt trophy at the Western Ontario Bowling Association, which was brought to a close last night, defeating F. N. Allen's Thistle Club rink in the final game, 21 to 15.

In the semi-finals for the premier trophy, James Bell won out from James McDougall, 15 to 10, and F. N. Allen defeated W. J. Snelgrove, 12 to 10, leaving the Thistle and the London Rowing Club to fight it out for the finals.

As was natural, the finals for the Labatt trophy was the principal attraction during the afternoon, and the game provided plenty of excitement for the players and spectators. It was nip and tuck right from the start, first one rink leading, and then the other. When the final end came, Bell was lying four shots to the good, and although Allen's rink tried hard to win out, the best they could do was to get two shots, which left them two down.

London again came to the front in the Tecumseh trophy, when W. J. Snelgrove's Rowing Club rink won out in the final game from Dr. Wylie of Brantford, 15 to 10.

Dr. Wylie administered a 20 to 15 defeat to A. A. Langford, and W. J. Snelgrove won out from James McDougall, 25 to 10. This is the third time that a Rowing Club rink has won the Tecumseh trophy, and it now becomes the permanent property of the club.

C. K. Bluet, Dr. Jarvis, A. A. Langford and James McDougall got into the semi-finals of the McNece trophy, and Fred and McDougall went into the finals by defeating Jarvis and Langford respectively, 25 to 10 and 23 to 10. In the final McDougall defeated Bluet, 25 to 10.

W.O.B.A. Tourney Draws Criticism From Bowlers

C. O. Knowles Points Out Weak Spots in Present System—Says Results Bear Out Claim That London Rinks Had Advantage of Draw.

The following letter has been received by The Advertiser from C. O. Knowles of Toronto, with reference to the Western Ontario Bowling Tournament.

Mr. Knowles skipped one of the Toronto rinks in the tourney, and is a bowler of wide experience. His criticism is very fair and no doubt expresses the views of a number of the out-of-town rinks.

Dear Sir:—As a participant in the recent bowling tournament held under the auspices of the W. O. B. A., and speaking as a bowler interested only in the development of the game, and the perfection of the system under which bowling tournaments are being conducted, permit me to offer a few words of criticism of the plan tried out in London this week.

I am aware of the fact that the new draw was an experiment, and I want to congratulate the officials of the W. O. B. A. for a courageous and honest attempt to remedy some of the long-standing grievances of the old system. That the new plan was not an unqualified success in its first try out is no fault of the officials, nor does it necessarily damn the system, although some of the players may have been tempted to express it in that way.

The new plan could only be tested in operation. The test has been worth while, because it has shown that it has many objectionable features, which will be able to devise means for obviating the worst of these, and thus produce a system which has much to commend it.

The playing of a fixed number of games in order to qualify for final rounds is a good idea, but as worked out this week it was very unsatisfactory and the number of rounds in the London rinks against all the outside clubs was a cardinal mistake—although some of the officials had intended to remedy this.

It was an undoubted advantage to the London rinks, which became more apparent with each day's play. The theory that because London had an entry of thirty rinks, the rinks were weaker than would have been the case had a dozen picked rinks been entered, and thus the outside clubs enjoyed an advantage, will not bear close examination. The reverse is the case.

Every skip who has had any experience in knowing tournaments away from home knows that it is not near so much a question of how to get the strongest rink as it is of how to get any rink. The material available for rinks when several days' absence from home and competition are involved is restricted. The large choice of players is always with the clubs playing in their own home town, and it would have been better and would have added variety to the play if for the first two or three games a pure draw had been made irrespective of how the London rinks were to be avoided the possibility of collusion the draw for the fourth and fifth rounds.

It is quite different from the London plan, and while it may develop some flaws it will not be open to these objections. I have not attempted to go more than point out what I consider are faults in the new system. It has also many good features which are equally apparent.

Yours in the interests of the game,
C. O. KNOWLES.

Several of the major league clubs are after Jack Snyder of London, who was painfully injured as a result of riding Frigole at Hamilton on Wednesday, is still unconscious in one of the Hamilton hospitals. When Stevenson felt the horse, Jack Winston jumped on him.

A Polish hand was responsible for holding up the game at Cleveland yesterday for ten minutes. Umpire Silk O'Loughlin ordered the hand to stop playing, and when they did not so stopped the game. Manager Lee Fohl of the Indians, protested, and after the argument had proceeded ten minutes the hand finally stopped playing.

Twenty-eight days of solid racing are provided for the Windsor meets this fall. In addition to the usual two weeks' racing of the Windsor Jockey Club, the dates of the new Kenilworth track have been allotted for the first week in September and the corresponding week in October. The Kenilworth track is fast rounding into shape. The stand is ready and the track nearly so, and carpenters are at work erecting stables that will accommodate 700 horses. Thirty-three rail-mutuels machines will be used the first meeting, and it is found that they are not sufficient the number will be added to for the second meeting. With the opening of the new track Windsor will become the most important racing center in the Dominion.

Joe S. Jackson of Detroit, who is president of the Baseball Writers' Association, at its fall meeting will ask for a revision of several sections of the scoring code. He points out one play for which an official ruling is necessary. When two fielders collide after one has just caught the ball, and the ball is dropped as a result, there is no uniform rule, says Jackson. Some scores credit the batsman with a hit and others charge an error against the fielder that dropped the ball.

Without doubt, Bill Rodgers, formerly of the Cincinnati Reds, and now guarding the keyhole for the Portland (Ore.) team, is now the greatest baseball hero in the boundless west. A few days ago, while playing the Salt Lake team in the latter city, Bill executed a triple play, unassisted, on three times, beginning with Paul Hines of the Providence National League team. May 1878, has this been done. This is how Bill came into great fame. Ryan singled, Orr walked, then Guigui hit a terrific liner at Bill. At the crack of the bat Ryan and Orr began to sprint. Bill caught the ball and touched Orr as he sped along the line, raced back to second, touching it before Ryan, who sought to return to it, could reach it. Even the saddened Salt Lake fans couldn't refrain from cheering Bill an ovation.

JABS AT ALL ROUND SPORTS.

Catcher Patsy Bailey of the Buffalo International has been sold to the Philadelphia Athletics.

Manager Red Sox has begun calling in reinforcements for his big "twentieth drive." He has recalled Vein Gregg, the veteran southpaw, from Buffalo, and he will report for the opening game at Detroit on Saturday. Carrigan has been endeavoring to come to terms with Smokey Joe Wood, but instead of agreeing, as at first announced, they have agreed to disagree. Wood wanted $2,500, but the Sox leader balked. The deal that recalls Vein Gregg from Buffalo provides for the sending of Pennek to replace the old-timer.

After Penn won the fifth race at Hamilton he was claimed by E. Trotter for $2,000. Three claims were made in for Connors, and G. Alexander secured her for $1,400. W. Alexander and D. A. Ewert also had claims in for the filly.

The stewards of the Hamilton Jockey Club have handed out a notice refusing the entry of the horse Thornhill for the balance of the meeting for inconsistent riding.

Pitcher J. E. Coffindaffer of the Pittsburgh Nationals has been released to the Minneapolis team of the American Association. He was recently obtained by the Pirates from the Chicago Club of the Ohio State League.

The fund being raised in New York to purchase a gift for Christy Mathewson now totals over $600. Donations ranging from five cents to $100 have been received, not only from New York fans, but from all over the country.

Cleveland is billed to start for the Tigers today with Harper or Gallia as Griffith's choice.

Following is the card for the final day of the Detroit Blue Ribbons, the feature of which will be the 2:05 trot:

2:05 trot, purse $1,200—Joan, Guy Nella, Little Brown, Lucile Spier, Mizell, Omar.

2:05 pace, purse $1,200—Camelia, Don Deamers, General Todd, Joe Patchen II, John Malcolm, Jones Gentry, Leila Patchen.

2:12 trot, purse $1,200—Breada, Donna, and Esperanza, San Felipe, Vank, Worly, Pierce, George N. Patterson.

2:07 pace, purse $1,200—Altawood, Bingham, Bondville, Dicto, Hal Leaf, Hazel Armstrong, Pat Carmody, Polly Ann, Lord Seymour, Kate McKinley.

The champion Red Sox open at Detroit tomorrow for a series of six games. A double-header will be played in the afternoon, the first game commencing at 1:45. A number of local fans are taking advantage of the Maccafee excursion to see the games. The special will travel over the C. R. road, leaving London at 7:30, and arriving in Detroit at 10:15.

Manager Bill Carrigan of the Red Sox, is the proud possessor of a wrist watch, which was presented to him by admiring Toronto fans on his recent visit to that city.

DETROIT, July 27.—For the third time in as many days Washington lost to Detroit, the score being 7 to 4. Boehling, who opposed Boland, pitched good ball, but his support was erratic, and the misplays behind him were costly. Henry was put out of the game for arguing with Umpire Owen.
