EXT WEEK CRUCIAL

uniors Have Two Hard Tilts -Intermediates Still Have Job Ahead.

Woodstock, Jan. 17.—The next week a critical one for the Woodstock mior and intermediate hockey teams, lich are now at the head of their spective groups in the O. H. A. The miors have two hard games to face th Guelph here on Friday and with tchener to play in that city next ednesday. If they can successfully gotiate these hurdles, they will go far the final series. The intermediates we also an unbeaten record, but have meet St. Thomas here on Monday, I this is likely to be their hardest me of the group. Although they deated St. Thomas in the Flower City, was only in overtime, and the Saints we visions of revenge for next Mony. For the game at Kitchener on ednesday a special train is being nartered, and a big crowd of fans is spected to make the trip with the hiors, who, if they win, will have neaded the group.

Girl Cagers Put On Two Fast Games At C. C. I. Gym.

The Central Collegiate gym was the cene of two fast and furious games in he London Ladies' Basketball League at night. S. & I. Imps beat Checkers 0 to 2, and First Methodists lost to he Kelpies 12 to 10 in one of the fastest ames on the L. C. I. floor this year. In the first game the teams were on en terms until the last few minutes play, when the church crew forged ead, only to be overtaken by the elpies. With two minutes to go the elpies soored and left the Methodists to points in the rear. For the winners, F. Liddicatt and D. tolme were the best, each scoring six ints and for the losers M. Mortimore id H. Langford starred.

The second game was fast, and al-lough it was a one-sided score it did bt indicate the playing of the teams oth teams were snappy and lack of ractice is the reason given for the heckers. actice is the reason given for the heckers' downfall. Bamford, Harris and Graves were the set for the winners, while Atwell and hanson were the bright lights for the sers.

something better in the pitching line than they have shown if they are to be successiu. This applies to the leaders of 1922 as well as the tailenders, for these leaders possess a lot of old pitching talent which may show signs of dryrot about next June, at which time some managers may wake up to the fact that they are not going anywhere except to the junk-pit.

The Cleveland club did one of the smartest and most heroic things on record in a major league race in 1922 when it decided to rebuild before May was over. In that month it was decided that the Cleveland team was not going to get anywhere. Without a moment's hesitation the president and the manager began to rebuild. Most clubs in similar cases try to stick it out for the remainder of the year, hoping to break even on the gate receipts and rebuild in the winter.

Not so with Cleveland. Before July 4 was more than a prospect they began to assemble new players, and by the end of the year they had something worth while to show the Cleveland fans. If they had waited they might have slid to the bottom, but by reorganization last year they figure they have a sure first division club for 1923. The teams which sent their pitchers out to condition early last year seemed to have much the better of the argument when the regular season started. In the promised three-cornered race in the National, Cincinnati has a pitching staff which, if it gets started right, gives much promise. If Moran can start at a runaway pace he stands a good chance.

COMMISSIONER LANDIS

Chicago, Jan. 17 .- Sergeant Jim York Chicago, Jan. 17.—Sergeant Jim York, southpaw hurler, was restored to good standing in organized baseball today. Commissioner K. M. Landis ruled favorably on the case following receipt of an application from the player, who last year deserted the Cubs and remained out of baseball. In 1921 York, with the help of a good fast ball, hurled several winning games. The probability is that the left-hander will be turned over to the Los Angeles Club.

New York, Jan. 17.—It begins to look as though "Tex" Rickard has had a change of heart concerning the proposed bout between Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard.

The big promoter admitted today that Tom Gibbons is a most likely-looking fellow, and in his opinion would make a most worthy opponent for the champion.

The French Boxing Federation has introduced a new wrinkle into the glove sport. This is to decorate boxers who have shown exceptional gameness. The decoration is in the form of a medal. It does not always go to the winners. Billy Matthews, who was stopped by Eugene Criqui in seventeen rounds recently, received one for his game stand against the Frenchman. It seems that against the Frenchman. It seems that Matthews took everything that Criqu could send his way, and was anxious to continue when the referee c lied a halt to the proceedings. Matthews was the first boxer other than a Frenchman to receive one of these awards.

The tendency among major league baseball clubs towards larger coaching and scouting staffs is growing. Nearly every big league team will have a bunch erans either of veterans either with the club, teaching the youngsters the fine points of the game, or hunting through the sticks from promising prospects.

The Cubs have signed Bobby Wallace. Kitty Bransfield and Jack Doyle; Frank Chance will have Hughle Duffy, Jimmy Burke, Mike Donlin and Jimmy Archer on his staff at Boston. Cleveland has added Frank Roth to its staff that includes Jack McCallister, Joe Birminghah and Charlie Hickman. The Yankees have Charlie O'Leary, Bob Connery and Bob Gilks; St. Louis will again have Lefty Leffield, Jimmy Austin and Herman Brinkie; Detroit has replaced Dan Howley with Fred Carlsch. John McGraw has increased his staff by signing Joe Casey and again will have Hughie Jennings, Cozy Dolan and Jesse

The showing made by Bantam Champion Joe Lynch against Midget Smith in the Garden recently indicates that Joe will not hold the title by the time another Christmas comes around. Lynch is becoming shopworn and looks it. He trained as hard as he knew how for Smith, and the result was disappointing to the champion's admirers. Joe Burman of Chicago is in line for the next crack at Lynch. If the match is made it will be like signing away the title. crack at Lynch. If the match is made it will be like signing away the title. year?

Then there is "Shucks" Pruett, the young collegian, who was such a great help to Fohl. Was he a flash, or will he improve with the year's experience?

Can Ray Kolp come through in such an impressive manner as he did in 1922? Kolp hasn't a great deal of stuff, but is a smart nitcher. but is a smart pitcher.

Will Van Gilder, the enigma of the staff, really do the fine work he is capable of?

Pitching wins pennants, and Fohl's staff is a very uncertain one.
