Galt Terriers May Meet Winnipeg Champs for Canadian Honors

FIVE LONDON OUTFIELDERS ALL SHOWING TO ADVANTAGE

Tecumseh Catching Problem Settled With Eiffert and McKee Selected.

PLAY, TODAY, SATURDAY

Special to The Advertiser.
Three Rivers, Mich., April 16.—The prospective London infield is on the go at present and no changes are noted. Sanquist looks like a fixture at third. He has a fine arm and is a fast but steady fielder. He bats either right or left, and was used as lead-off man in practice games. He has had only fair success with the mace, but chances are that he will mprove as the season progresses. Naleway and Barbelon have been used at second and short, but Big dence rule. Bob Shafely has a fine chance to rout them. He is a good fielder and a very hard hitter when he connects. arm and has not really been able to show his stuff yet.

The club has five mighty good outfielders at present, and with the possible exception of Earl Stimpson, the veteran slugger of last year's outfield, there is promise of a fight for a position in the outer works. German always considered a fine hitting prospect, has improved, and Broderhas been hitting like a fiend in Licht and Nason look the best outfielders. German has had limited experience and Broderick is a triffe slow on foot, and lacks ag-gressiveness. On the other hand, Licht is a great hitter and fast, and Nason is an outfielder of experience, so that it may be that these two will keep their stations.

The catching department is a set-tled question, McKee and Eiffert will divide honors. Eiffert is a left-hand-ed batter, while McKee swings from the other side of the plate. Both are experienced, and rated as very good receivers. Three pitchers are sure to stick, Harris, Fields and Delman. Right now it looks as if Mernab and Achenback had the best chance to complete the hurling list.

There is of course a big chance that early dope will be upset, for all of them are going well for this season. No game was played today with the Morsemen because of a high wind. If weather conditions change there will be games Thursday and
