Women are so busy beautifying their homes, that they let their minds get overrun with cobwebs.

Mr. J. F. Martin, superintendent of the Dominion Life Assurance Company, Waterloo, is in the city.

Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., and Mr. J. G. Lewis, of England, were the guests of Mrs. Adam Beck during their stay in the city.

From private sources it is learned that Capt. Stuart has no serious intention whatever of remaining permanently in South Africa after the war is over.

Dr. Steele, V. S., of Stratford, was here on Monday for the purpose of operating on the mare, Nancy Shucks, 2,68, belonging to Mr. Barnes, of the Barnes' stable.

"What are that young man's intentions?" asked the anxious parent. "Really, father," replied the dutiful daughter, "I cannot say. I confess that when he calls I am often in the dark."

St. George's Church, London Junction, celebrated its fourth anniversary in the church last evening by a concert and tea, which was well attended. The proceedings opened with refreshments after which the pastor, Rev. Geo. Gilmour, took the chair; and the concert, which was given by J. T. Dalton's Imperial Male Quartette, assisted by Miss Myra Pickard and Laura Murdoch, proceeded with. Following is the programme, which was most creditably rendered:—Quartette, "Sweet Sabbath Even"; the Imperator's Quartette, song, "Life's Lullaby"; Miss Myra Pickard, song, "She Haunts Me Like a Happy Dream"; Mr. J. T. Dalton, recitation, "Molly"; Miss Laura Murdoch, duet, "Home to Our Mountains"; Miss Pickard and Mr. A. E. Galpin, song, "Songs of the Empire"; Mr. Albert Riddle, address, Rev. F. W. Gilmour, Almoner, anthem, "Am I a Soldier"; the choir, song, "The Blue and the Grey"; Miss Myra Pickard, recitation, "The Old Surgeon's Story"; Mr. J. T. Dalton, recitation, "Ariste Laurie"; the Imperial Male Quartette, duet, "The Lesson"; Miss Pickard and Mr. J. T. Dalton, song, "The Temple of Peace"; Mr. A. E. Galpin, (a) "The Skippers of St. Ives," (b) "The Ticky Trio"; the Imperial Male Quartette.

Mr. Reneault Flaherty, of the postal service, and Miss Hannah Breen, daughter of Mrs. Mary Breen, of Sydenham street, were quietly married at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday morning. Rev. Father Aylward performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of both families. The bride was dressed becomingly, and as maid to her sister, Miss Maggie Breen was quite charming. Mr. James Flaherty, of the asylum staff, was groomsmen. The ceremony over, the bride party went to Mrs. Breen's residence, where a very recherche wedding breakfast was enjoyed, and spent a merry time until Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty left on their wedding trip to eastern cities. The wedding presents they received were both beautiful and useful.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the Memorial Church yesterday at 4.30 p. m., the rector, Rev. C. V. Owen, officiating, when M. Katharine, the youngest daughter of Conrad Long, was united in marriage to H. Homer Black, Phm. B. The bride was attended by Miss Marion Ballantyne, of Stratford, and G. A. Bentley, D. D. S., of this city, supported the groom, while little Nita Sheere was maid of honor, wearing blue silk and red hat and carrying a basket of carnations. The bride was dressed in a travelling suit of green broadcloth, with applique trimmings and a black hat. The bridesmaid wore blue cloth, with silk trimming. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for Buffalo and New York.

her life and is a graduate of the high school. She has been a member of Grace Episcopal Church for a number of years and has sung in the choir for some time. The groom came as an operator in the uptown office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and two years ago, upon the transfer of W. C. Baker to Peoria, he was made manager of the Galesburg office, which position he now occupies. The groom is a thirty-three year old, single man, a past master of Vesper Lodge, and a prominent officer in Galesburg commandery of the Knights Templar. He is also a member of the Galesburg and Coatsburg clubs. As a member of Grace Church he has officiated as an officer for a number of terms and is now clerk of the vestry. Both the bride and groom are very well known in Galesburg and are very popular. They will receive the heartiest congratulations of a host of friends.

"Sarnia Observer.—John Crosbie arrived here yesterday from the Island of Sumatra, where he has been employed for some years past. Mr. Crosbie has been prospecting for oil in the vicinity of Telok Botocency, Sumatra, East Indies, for nearly three years past, and has met with considerable success. He will remain here for the winter and will then go to Newfoundland to work for the same company that he has been in the employ of since leaving Sarnia about three years ago. If Newfoundland does not offer sufficient inducements to remain there Mr. Crosbie will go to Italy.

The marriage of Mr. William Kerwin, of the Kerwin House, Ingersoll, and Miss Katie Howe, eldest daughter of Mr. John Howe, of the Atlantic House, of this city, attracted a large number of their friends to St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McKeon. The bride and bridesmaid, Miss Lena Howe, were beautifully gowned. Mr. C. A. O'Neill, Ingersoll, was best man, the bride's sister, Geo. Kerwin, was groomsmen. They took of a wedding luncheon at the Atlantic House, and an informal reception was held before the young couple left for the east. They will spend their honeymoon in Toronto, Montreal and Troy, N. Y. The wedding gifts received were of unusual beauty.

Superintendent Martin, of the District police force, has written the following letter to Chief Williams, of this city:—"Our officers arrested a gang of young thieves here a few days ago, one of the ringleaders, had in his possession a silver-plated tea set, consisting of sugar bowl, tea pot, spoon holder and cream pitcher, marked on bottom 'The American Silver Co., Toronto.' Also one plush cape, with high collar. If you have any record of such articles being wanted in your city, please advise." The local detective states that Mr. Moseley, who is a London boy, has already served two terms in the Central Prison. Nothing is known in this city of the articles which were found in his possession.

The young people of the First Methodist Church held a patriotic meeting in Wesley Hall last evening, the pastor, Rev. Dr. Smith, presiding. The hall was very tastefully decorated with Canadian bunting. The following programme was rendered:—Recitation, Miss Kurzenkabe; solo, Miss Jessie Stewart; address, Edward Taylor, one of the returned soldiers from South Africa, who gave an interesting account of the battle of Paardeberg, in which he took part, and other operations; solo, Miss Parker; refreshments were served and a round table conference was conducted by W. G. Young. The meeting broke up with the national anthem.

A joint convention of the Sabbath schools and Epworth Leagues of the London district Methodist Church was opened yesterday morning in the Central Methodist Church, the attendance being fairly good. After the opening prayer and roll call two helpful addresses were given, one on "The Evils of Teacher and Scholar," by Mr. C. E. German; the other by Dr. S. P. Reynolds, whose subject was "The Dearth of Teachers, Cause and Cure." Subsequently each paper was discussed. At 12 o'clock noon the following papers were given: "Should We Pledge Ourselves Against the Use of Helps in the School?" by Mr. W. D. Buckley; and "The Sunday School Library—Helpful or Harmful?" by Mr. C. A. Barnes. Round table conference on Sabbath school work was led by Rev. A. C. Crews, and was followed by a mass meeting of the scholars and Sabbath school workers. At the evening session special music was given, and also addresses by Rev. A. C. Crews, of Toronto, general secretary of Sabbath School and Epworth League Board, and Dr. F. C. Stephenson, Toronto, general secretary of Forward Movement for Missions.

The Galesburg, Ill., Evening Mail gives an account of the marriage of that city recently of Mr. Wm. Howard a brother of Mr. Chas. E. Howard, of this city, and who was formerly of this city, and who was telegraph office here to Miss Lucy Greene. The event took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. I. R. Greene, in the presence of relatives of the family. Rev. F. W. Gilmour, Almoner of Grace Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony, and the bride was given away by her brother, Frank Yarde Greene. There were no attendants, and the wedding service was very simple, and beautiful because of its simplicity. The mail adds:—The bride has been a resident of Galesburg all *Eugene Drew, who left Chatham a few months ago for La Porte, Indiana, was struck by a train at the latter city Sunday and died from his injuries a few hours afterward. Particulars of the accident have not yet been received by the friends. Mr. Drew was about 25 years of age, and was a machinist by trade. He worked a number of years in Chatham, but recently moved to Detroit, where he was employed in a machine shop for some time. From there he went to La Porte. Deceased was born on the old homestead on the Creek Road, Harwich, where his widowed mother now resides. He leaves a mother and six brothers. The brothers are Martin, John, Tom, Albert, J. D., of the firm of O'Keefe & Drew, and Will, of the firm of King, Cunningham & Drew. His mother and brother John left for La Porte Monday to bring home the body for burial.

The Fit-Reform name stands at the top of the Canadian clothing business, not because we were the first to introduce the new system of making and selling (though we were — 1897), but because we were not satisfied when giving you better clothing, it must be best—and by long odds best. It is this continual striving after something better that has made Fit-Reform what it is to-day.

The result is a stylishness of cut, a goodness of material and perfection of workmanship that you have never seen in ready-to-wear clothing unless you have seen it here.

Is largely dependent upon the fire. A half-smothered blaze crawling over a dozen big clinkers will ruin the reputation of the best cook on earth. If you order "Walla-Walla" coal, you will insure having a clean, bright fire—one that doesn't die out, but keeps burning cheerily until nothing but a fine ash is left.

Our honest advice to you is to order a winter supply of "Walla-Walla" right away. Once the mines start they will shove anything in shape of coal out, but we have a large stock of summer coal still on hand. A word to the wise is sufficient.
