THE QUEEN'S PARK NOT LOST TO THE CITIZENS OF TORONTO

The hidden deeds just discovered by our City Solicitor, ensure ingress, egress and regress over the Park avenues. Every citizen of our Queen City has therefore perfect right-of-way, and before asserting it, will strengthen his case and improve his general appearance, by calling at the Globe One-Price Clothing House, No. 420 Queen-street West, and securing some of the natty goods for Spring and Summer wear in Light Overcoats, Nobby Suits, newest styles in Men's Furnishing Goods and Underwear; also a complete assortment of Boys' and Children's Garments. These goods are all new and are being sold at lowest cut prices.

The directors of the University Board are forgiven for their weak attempt to place the Park on the market and can also secure bargains at
