

ask the Men
who wear them

THE Greatest Boosters for 20th CENTURY Brand Clothes are the men who have been wearing them for years. Now and then they try another make—and get caught —but they come right back to the 20th Century Brand—back to the clothes that fit, keep their shape and make them feel comfortable in any company. The New Fall Fabrics for special measures are here. They show another remarkable reduction in price. May we show them to you?

years ago he married Lucile Barron of St. Clair, where he was then pracson of J. T. Ferguson, was taking on gasoline at the station and for some reason lit a match which ignited the fumes of the gasoline causing it to burst into flames. The car was pushed from under the station shed and the chemical turned on which soon had the blaze extinguished. The top was burnt off and the upholstering destroyed. The blaze caused quite a commotion for a short time.

News reached here last week of the death of a member of the Still family, who resided on the 4th line, Adelaide, many years ago. The departure came from Neepawa, Manitoba, who was accused of killing a heifer, an early settler in the Springhill district, met a painful death Friday morning, Aug. 12. He was driving the binder and apparently was removing a stone when the horses ran away. The man working in another part of the field found the body when he was going into dinner. One leg was severed and the other badly mutilated. Life was extinct, Still having bled to death. The horses were found at the barn, attached to the binder.
James Maher, of Adelaide township, passed away on Saturday morning Aug. 21, at the family residence, lot 3, con. 4. Deceased was 87 years old and had lived in the township for sixty years. He served as section foreman for the G.T.R. at Kerwood for about thirty years. His wife predeceased him about a year ago. He leaves a family of eight children: James, of Kerwood; Michael, of Blenheim; Mrs. Jos. Waltham, Sarnia; Mrs. Jos. Brady, Metcalfe; Mrs.
Sidney Routley, of Watford; Mrs.
Terrance Callahan, of Adelaide, and Dan and Nellie at home. The funeral was held on Monday morning to All Saints Church, Strathroy where mass was celebrated prior to interment of remains in the Catholic cemetery.
Following are the particulars of the sad fatality which occurred at the home of Robert Armstrong near Shetland last week when his six year old son was kicked to death by a horse. It appears that the father had taken his horses in from the field and tied them in the stable, leaving the harness on. He then took out his car and went to Oil Springs. While away his two little sons, six and eight years old, took the horses out and started racing them up and down the field, they on their backs.
The harness on the one horse shifted the little fellow sliding off and getting tangled in the harness. The horse then ran away and dragging him with it, kicking him to death.
His head and body were badly bruised and he only lived two hours after being hurt. Interment took place in Aughrim cemetery on Sunday.
