

The Weekly Monitor,

ISSUED ON WEDNESDAY, At Bridgetown, Annapolis Co., N. S. M. K. PIPER, Proprietor and Publisher...

TELL YOUR NEIGHBOR

From now until the end of 1902, the MONITOR will be sent to New Subscribers till the end of 1903, for $1.00 in advance.

Presidential interference in the strike of the anthracite coal miners of Pennsylvania has resulted in a rebuff from the operators that has lowered the respect of the average American for the coal barons.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Geo. E. Boak & Co., of Halifax, agent of the Broad Coal Co.

The firm of Fowler Bros., Toronto, has been dissolved, Mr. Frank H. Fowler, of this town, retiring from the partnership.

A good opportunity for a bright boy or young man to secure a permanent and remunerative position is open at the Monitor Office.

Mr. Blake Eggleston is doing duty as policeman pro tem., no permanent appointment to the position having as yet been ratified by the Council.

Mr. Elias Messinger has bought the lot of land east of Mr. Herbert Hicks' lot on Granville street, and is laying the foundation of a new house.

Mr. Harvey Sabanez, who was the victim of the shooting accident reported last week, is badly crippled, and it will probably be a long time before he recovers the use of the injured limb.

The millinery openings take place this week, and the handsome display of millinery will be shown, which our local milliners having visited city workers to inspect such distinguished connoisseurs upon the public as is involved by the present scarcity of coal supplies.

Mr. Elmer Brinton, just returned from Cuba, is showing his friends a specimen of the volcanic dust from Mount Pelee, which he brought back from Barbados, on which island it was estimated 200,000,000 tons have fallen.

The Provincial W. C. T. U. convention was held at Sydney last week. Last year's officers were all re-elected with the exception of Mrs. Powers, of Lunenburg, and recording secretary, Mrs. Burton Jost, of Guysboro, being elected to that office.

Mr. J. N. Rice's ten-year-old mare, Marie W. took first prize in the brood mare class at the recent Yarmouth exhibition. The animal is of Wilkes stock and is well bred.

It has been suggested that a county exhibition should be held alternate years at Kentville and Bridgetown, and we shall take pleasure in publishing on the subject, which we received too late for publication in this issue.

The display of fruits at the Kentville exhibition last week was exceptional, and in view of the fact that this is far below the average as well as a satisfaction to the exhibitors.

Mr. Frank Sabanez was up before the Supreme Court at Annapolis yesterday on the charge of breaking jail, to which charge he pleaded guilty.

The St. John Business College has entered its thirty-fifth year, and is sending out its annual calendar. A personal of the testimonials in the calendar and of the statement of local employers of college graduates will convince any intending student of the high character of the school.

The delightful autumn weather we have been enjoying for the past three weeks was interrupted by a heavy rain on Monday, and on Tuesday a contrary condition of weather in New England, the last ten days of September being marked by continuous rain and fog.

The Ping-pong Tournament in the Rugby Block, Thanksgiving Day evening, is an assured success. A week has sufficed to bring in enough entries to make the event one of the most interesting of the season.

Mr. Harry J. Crowe, in behalf of the Y. M. C. A. of Bridgetown, has concluded an agreement with Messrs. Primrose Bros. to lease for a period of ten years the upper flat of their new block now in course of construction, and a hall with all modern appointments will be fitted up for that purpose.

The arbitrator appointed to appraise the damages for right-of-way railway privileges for the property holders of the county along the line of the M. & V. B. railway started upon the work last week. Mr. John Longley was the arbitrator chosen by the Municipal Council.

From Sept. 27th to Oct. 27th, inclusive, the Dominion Atlantic Railway will issue Excursion Return Tickets to Boston, from all stations at first class unlimited fare, good for return within 30 days from date of issue.

Local and Special News.

Mr. J. W. Brown, optician, will be at the store of S. N. Wear on the 15th.

Over thirty tickets were sold at the Bridgetown station for the Kentville exhibition.

The launching of Mayor Shafner's new vessel will take place on Wednesday the 22nd.

The Paradise Agricultural Society will meet at 7:30 o'clock on Friday evening of this week.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Geo. E. Boak & Co., of Halifax, agent of the Broad Coal Co.
