

Among Our Neighbours

LAWRENCETOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leck, of Truro, are in town.

Mrs. Chas. McKeown, who has been ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Steadman, of Westmouth, are here for a few days.

Miss Ella Lightbody, of Truro, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. S. C. Hall.

Mr. Bishop, our station agent, has his brother of Digby, as his guest for a few days.

We are sorry to hear of the heavy loss of Mr. Jos. Mailman, at Albany, who had his house and barn destroyed by fire.

Our town was shocked on Saturday forenoon at ten o'clock, to learn that our esteemed townsman, Mr. W. E. Palfrey, had passed away.

Although he had been ill for two weeks we had hoped daily to hear that he had passed the crisis and would soon recover, but the most devoted care and the skilled services of the three attending physicians were of no avail.

Mr. Palfrey was one of our leading merchants, one of the most proficient citizens and was always ready to lend his aid to everything that was for the advancement of our town and county. He was a deacon of the Baptist church, as well as superintendent of that Sabbath school, chairman of our school board and held several other positions of trust. He leaves a widow, two sons, two daughters, two brothers and one sister to mourn the loss of a loving husband, a devoted father and a respected brother.

The funeral service was held in the Baptist church yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon, the Revs. M. W. Brown, Wm. Brown and McDonald, of Bridgetown, officiating. We extend to the family the full sympathy of all in this their sad affliction.

BELLEISLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mack and daughter Elmer, of Mills Village, Queens Co., were guests last week of his uncle, Mr. Charles B. Wade.

Miss Hattie Longly and her brother Reginald, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. S. C. Churchhill, of Marlboro, Mass., returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett C. Goodwin who have been for some months past at the south shore, returned home last week. They were accompanied by Mr. King, of the H. & S. W. railway staff, who is their guest.

Miss Jennie Innes and Miss Lottie Chipman, of Tapperville, are guests of Miss Annie Kent.

Vernon Parker, the little son of W. Fletcher Parker, went to Halifax today (Monday), to the hospital to undergo an operation. He was accompanied by his physician, Dr. Armstrong, and his brother Robbie.

A most pleasing social event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert D. Gesner, at Willett's Corner, on Friday evening, the 18th inst., in being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, which they observed by entertaining a large number of their relatives and friends.

Newly and handsomely decorated with evergreen, was the scene of a very interesting evening on Wednesday, the 16th inst., when Elizabeth, oldest daughter of William Marshall, was united in marriage to James Marshall Schurman, who has recently returned from the Canadian west.

At high noon the bride, prettily attired in a soft clinging dress of cream Bedford cord, with bridal veil, entered the church on her father's arm, followed by her little sister Annie, dressed in white, as maid of honor. They were met at the altar by the groom and the sexton of the parish, Rev. J. Weeks, who performed the ceremony.

The wedding approach was beautifully rendered by Miss Leon Gibson, cousin of the bride. A reception was held in the parlors at the home of the bride's parents, after which the happy couple were driven to Bridgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Schurman leave in a few weeks for their home in Charlottetown, Mass., followed by the bride's relatives, all for their happiness.

The marriage of the bride and groom was a most happy one. The bride's father, Mr. Wm. Marshall, presented her with a beautiful diamond brooch. The bride's father presented her with a beautiful diamond brooch.

enjoyable occasion for all their guests, old and young. The younger portion enjoyed themselves in tripping the light fantastic, while games of various kinds were there for the elder ones—together with conversing with each other of cherished reminiscences of bygone years.

Mr. Gesner made it an evening of most pleasing interest and one to be kindly remembered. A very sumptuous tea was served at 12 o'clock. Soon after the seven small hours approached, the fingers of Mr. Gesner were lightly laid on the eyelids of the elder ones, which intimated it was time to go.

After good night and many wishes for many happy returns, all departed to their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. Gesner were the recipients of a large collection of beautiful and costly presents, which may be to them a silent reminder in years to come, of many kind friends.
