LETTER RECEIVED BY MRS. CHARLES WHITMAN FROM HER SON IN FRANCE

France, Oct. 4th.
Dear Mother:—
I received the invitation to your anniversary a few days ago, but I have been so busy lately that I have not had time to reply. I would have liked very much to have been with you, and I hope you had a good time. As you know by the official reports the Allies have attacked and driven back the Germans at several points and of course that has made a lot of work for us. It is over now for a few days and we have only a few patients left. I am feeling fine and am certainly glad to be able to do something for these poor fellows. They are very grateful for anything you do for them and that repays us for our work.
I am in hopes that it will soon be over and I will certainly be glad to get back to Canada. I am glad that I came, as a young man like me would have had no excuse for staying at home. In after years it will be an honor to be a veteran of this war.
I hope you are keeping well and that the rest of the folks are well. Write me all the news whenever you can and remember me to all my friends.
Your son,
ARTHUR G. WHITMAN.

ALLIES TO MAKE DETERMINED EFFORT TO CAPTURE TRENCHES

A despatch from Paris to the New York Tribune says: In the next few weeks there will be the greatest fighting by the Allies since the battle of the Marne. They expect to lose four men to every one German, but they are determined to carry the German trenches. This is the opinion in France. These trenches are of concrete bases. Each gun pours out 600 shots a minute.

FOR HEADACHES, BILIOUSNESS, CONSTIPATION, INDIGESTION

Nearly all our minor ailments, and many of the serious ones, too, are traceable to some disorder of the stomach, liver, and bowels. If you wish to avoid the miseries of indigestion, acidity, heartburn, flatulence, headaches, constipation, and a host of other distressing ailments, you must see to it that your stomach, liver and bowels are equal to the work they have to do. It is a simple matter to take 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup daily, after meals, yet thousands of former sufferers have banished indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and all their distressing consequences in just this simple way. Profit by their experience. As a digestive tonic and stomachic remedy, Mother Seigel's Syrup is unsurpassed.

H. PRICE WEBBER WILL RECOVER

(Daily Kennebec Journal, Oct. 5)
"Mr. Webber is out of the woods and unless something unexpected arises he should have a speedy recovery," was the statement made Monday to the relatives of H. Price Webber, who is in a hospital in Portland, where he last week underwent severe surgical treatment.
This will be pleasing news to his thousands of friends all over the States and Canada. As long as the recovery is safe and sure, it may be as speedy as it likes, is the universal expression.

A submarine telephone has been developed by which it is possible to detect the approach of a submarine by sound from observation boats or stations planted off shore connected with points on the mainland. This is claimed to be in use by the British.
